PENINSULA ASSOCIATION TO BUY HALL
The recently organized Peninsula Joint-Addition Association last week raised enough money to buy a hall at 121 Lombard avenue. Plans will be made to open the hall about January 15 when an entertainment and reception will be given. The association is circulating a petition for 30 signatures for the district and it is expected that the request will be submitted to the Executive Board soon. The opening of Albina avenue from Bryant street to Killingworth avenue is urged. The North Albina Club will be asked to cooperate with the association to obtain the extension of the street.

NEW PAINTINGS SHOWN
A collection of English, Scotch and Dutch paintings, by contemporary artists, is open at the Museum of Art, at Fifth and Taylor streets. The Museum hours are: Weekdays, 9 to 5 o'clock; Sundays, 2 to 5; free, the afternoons of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

TWENTY-ONE LADIES OF PORTLAND were

When You Buy A Diamond

You Must Depend On Your Jeweler

—There's nothing so important in buying a diamond as selecting the right jeweler. He must be more than honest—he must know diamonds. We've always specialized on diamonds of the best grade—the best advice we $25,000 RESIDENCE.

14-room handsomely appointed home, facing on the Irvington Tennis Club in the heart of Portland's most exclusive residence district. Large grounds, double garage. This house was built by the owner for a home less than a year ago, and it is seldom that such a place is offered for sale at a really reasonable price. Possession of the premises can be given at once. See us for particulars.

GARAGE LOCATION.

The owner of a fractional lot on Stark street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth, will build a one or two-story building to suit tenant, and lease for a long term of years; one of the best locations in the city for a garage.
For particulars apply to
CHAS. K. HENRY CO.,
HENRY BLDG.,
Fourth & Oak Sts., Portland, Oregon.

CHRISTMAS PHOTOS.

A few more orders will be taken for Xmas delivery. C. Elmore Grove, 322

COLD WORLD HAS TERROR

Prisoner Asks Added Sentence to Spend Winter in Prison.

PROVO, Utah, Dec. 16.—Cold weather has more terrors than the penitentiary for Frank Birch, a wanderer from Jersey City, N. J. Rather than face the icy blasts of a Utah December in 1912, Birch asked District Judge Booth today for an additional six months in state's prison.

AT THE QUELLE.

Plenty large, juicy Yamhill crawfish.
Dining-room for ladies, 6th and Stark.

plays the accompaniment; the right hand accents the melody or omits it entirely at will. Why not have a player piano that plays exactly the same way?
The new Apollo will; this is real music.
For sale only by Sherman, Clay & Co., Morrison at Sixth.

WHERE TO DINE.

and many delicacies at the Peerless Cafeteria, 34 and 36 Fifth street. Open all day; music from 12 to 2 and from 5 to 7 o'clock.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the many kind expressions of sympathy and the thoughtful consideration shown me by my friends and the order of the Maccabees during the illness and in the death of my husband, I wish to sincerely assure them of my appreciation.

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS.

What Are You Doing to Stop This?

The symptoms of eyestrain are numerous. It may affect you in the form of headache, or in the twitching of the eyelids, or in the watering of the eyes, or in burning sensations. Correctly-fitted glasses will give you the desired relief. You need a thorough testing of your vision first. We will do this for you without any extra charge, and you will find our prices most reasonable.
