STOCK SHOW FIXED

Great Number of Exhibits to Be Shown Here in March.

FREE ADMISSION IS PLAN

Business of Industry in Portland Shows Remarkable Growth Since Holding of First Exhibit. Premium Lists Framed.

Plans are being perfected for the second annual Pacific Northwest livestock show which will be held at the North Portland stockyards, March 16-20. From inquiries received from stockmen of nine Northwest States the indications are that the exhibit will be one of the largest and best ever held in this part of the country.

There were exhibited last year 50 cars of cattle and less than a half dozen cars of sheep. This year there will be fully 100 cars of cattle on exhibit and about 30 cars of sheep. There also will be a big exhibit of horses and mules.

Premium Arrangement Made.

No charge for admission will be made, nor will there be entry fees. A premium list totaling $6000 will be provided. The larger part of the expense of the show will be borne by local stockmen and dealers. As the show will be much larger than the County Club exhibits and will be the means of drawing a great amount of business to Portland and Multnomah County, the County Court will be asked to appropriate $2000 towards the premium funds.

"Exhibits of this kind do great good for the stock-raising industry of any community," said D. O. Lively, manager of the show, yesterday. "No better example can be cited than the success that has attended the Fort Worth shows and what the exhibits have done for that place. Since the annual show was started there 10 years ago, the annual business has grown from $5,000,000 to $75,000,000.

Great Future Foretold.

"In the two years that we have held exhibits, the business at Portland has made a larger increase than in any other city in the United States. With a larger country back of us, Portland will undoubtedly in time become one of the greatest livestock centers in the world. Our exhibit this year will be interesting and will do much to demonstrate the importance of the livestock industry."

The officers of the show are: President, M. K. Parsons, of Salt Lake City; vice-presidents, J. J. Hill, R. B. Lovett, William Hanley, of Burns, and Frank Hagenbarth, of Spencer, Idaho; manager, D. O. Lively; secretary, N. C. Maris. Members of the executive committee are W. H. Daughtrey, C. C. Colt, C. H. Frye, of Seattle; Thomas Carstens, of Tacoma; O. M. Plummer and M. J. Gill, of Portland.

WRONG MAN OFFERED $1

Generous Persons Would Assist in Buying Marriage License.

Ed I. Wheeler was deluged with offers of dollars yesterday from philanthropic citizens, owing to a mistake on the part of A. W. Leubers in giving his street address as 554 Washington, when he applied for a marriage license at the County Clerk's office Wednesday, but was obliged to go without the required document because he was one dollar short of the necessary sum. Ed I. Wheeler happens to live at the address given by Mr. Leubers and Miss Margaret Loken, the prospective bride.

While he was appreciative of the kindness of his unexpected visitors, who continued to call throughout the day, willing to offer him a helping hand to matrimony, Mr. Wheeler, so it chanced, is already married.

Finding that his offers of assistance found their source in a story appearing in The Oregonian yesterday, in which the plight of Mr. Leubers had been set forth, Mr. Wheeler hastened to guard against further visitation by a letter, in which he said:

All day today, philanthropic citizens have called and insisted on giving someone a dollar to get married on. I have no objection to receiving dollar donations from anyone, but I am already married, and as Abe Potash says, "That's something else again." Donations, not necessarily of a dollar, will be thankfully received at all times, but I would like them to come under another heading. It speaks well for the charitable citizens of Portland that at least 20 people have called today and offered to supply the lacking dollar. Mr. Leubers might do worse than to spend a day at the number inadvertently given. I will give him a dollar myself.

Our enormous business during and immediately after the holidays has delayed this Clearance Sale a week. We must finish by the 22nd—thirteen days. More pianos are to be disposed of than in any preceding clearance sale. We must get rid of all and in order to do so these Clearance Sale prices will be found lower than ever made heretofore. And we'll make terms of payment so easy that even in these allegedly rather dull times, every instrument will find an immediate buyer. Here is a partial list. Many are brand new pianos, of styles that are dropped from our 1912 catalogues, many have been accepted by us in part payment for Autopianos, Pianola Pianos, Baby Grands and a few have been taken back from customers who have moved away. See the Pianos, the prices quoted cannot possibly convey a correct impression of the extraordinary values.

Note these photographs. Nearly 40 discontinued catalogue styles at less than dealers' wholesale. Pay $1.25 a week.

SPECIAL!
Numerous Player Pianos, Pianola Pianos, etc., second-hand, at virtually your own price. Payments $2 a week.

Write for lists and descriptions if you cannot call right away. Our free exchange privilege goes with every one of the instruments in this sale. Use one of these instruments free for two years; then get a nice new one.

Remember most of these pianos can be had for $1.00 a week; the best kinds $6 and $8 a month, if you are not prepared to pay all cash.

WAGNON IS PEEVED

Perennial Howl Rises Against Jackson Day Banquet.

"UNDEMOCRATIC," HE CRIES

Just Think of Crime of Party Leaders Gorging Themselves at a $2-a-Plate Feed, He Expostulates—Kick Is Old Story.

Dissension, threatening entire disruption, has appeared in the ranks of the Democrats of Multnomah County. It consists of H. D. Wagnon, single-taxer, Bryanite, "Dimmycrat" and general sympathizer with those in straitened circumstances, against the others of the bunch. The bone of contention is the annual Jackson day banquet to be given at the Commercial Club Tuesday night.

Wagnon is voicing his perennial objections to the holding of this love feast. In the first place, he urges, it costs too much. The price is $2 a plate. He is busy scoring the followers of Jefferson and Jackson for what he chooses to term their undemocratic action in gorging themselves at a high-priced banquet while thousands of men are walking the streets of Portland "hungry and homeless and having not where to lay their heads."

Even Place Dissatisfies.

The objector further objects to the feast being held at the Commercial Club, which he describes as "a hotbed of thieves, liars, usurers and all-round crooks." Wagnon would not associate with them, he tells those whom he manages to buttonhole for conversation, and he intimates that anyone who would stands a splendid chance of dropping in his estimation.

Although he is not a member of the Jackson Club, the Democratic organization which puts on the banquet, Wagnon puts in an appearance at the meetings once in a while, especially around about the time the banquet question comes up for consideration. Always he objects to the unwarranted expenditure in the name of the "poor and downtrodden," sympathy and feeling oozing mellowly from his voice and his eyes showing a suspicion of tears. Wagnon's objections have finally got into the chestnut class and they glide off the minds of his auditors like water off a duck's back.

Last Meeting Recalled.

At the last meeting of the club he taxed beyond endurance the patience of J. Henessy Murphy, a Democrat who can quote the works of classical authors by the yard and who is recognized as a keen wit.

"Say, Wagnon," queried Murphy, "did you ever hear what Mark Twain said when he was in the catacombs?"

"No, sir; I did not," replied Wagnon, turning in the direction of his interrupter.

"Well, he said, 'For heaven's sake trot out a fresh corpse,'" shouted Murphy. Immediately afterwards he "ducked" for the rear of the room, Wagnon shouting after him:

"We don't need any corpse. There goes one now."

Then someone took advantage of the turmoil to move for adjournment and Wagnon had no opportunity to finish his speech. Some of those present acknowledged afterward that they were afraid he might move them to tears and they did not like the prospect of being forced to yield to the finer feelings.

P. S.—Mr. Wagnon has informed many of his fellow-Democrats that he will not be at the banquet.

Damage Suit Drags.

The $75,000 damage suit of A. L. Monical against the Pacific Hardware & Steel Company is still in progress before the United States District Court and probably will continue until the middle of the week. At the conclusion of the testimony of the plaintiff yesterday the defense asked for a judgment in its favor, which was denied by Judge Bean. Monday morning the jury will be taken to Supple's wharf to view the scene of the accident.

Vegetarians Will Meet.

"Permanent Peace, Happiness and Health Advanced by Vegetarianism" will be the subject for discussion at the vegetarian conversazione at 511 Yamhill street Tuesday night, January 9, at 8 o'clock.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT PORTLAND AT AGE OF 69 YEARS.

Samuel S. Jolly.

The funeral of Samuel S. Jolly, who died at his home, 1073 East Eighteenth street, January 4, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from Pearson's chapel, 369 Russell street, with burial at Rose City Cemetery. He enlisted in Company K, Twelfth Ohio regiment, in June, 1861, serving until July, 1864, when he was mustered out and re-enlisted in the second battalion of the Ohio National Guard for three months. He was then appointed a Lieutenant in Company E, 175th Ohio Regiment, serving until the close of the war. He participated in the battles of Bull Run, South Mountain, Antietam and other engagements. He was a charter member of General Ransome Grand Army Post, of Hillsboro, Or., to which place he came after the close of the war. He had lived in Portland since 1872. He is survived by his widow and a brother, Robert L. Jolly, of Cincinnati.

HUME HOLDINGS SOLD

MACLEAY ESTATE EXPENDS $250,000 ON VAST TRACT.

Storage Plant and Waterfront Property at Port Orford Also Included in Transfer.

Title to about 15,00 0acres of timber and agricultural land along the Lower Rogue River and around Port Orford yesterdnay passed to the Macleay estate, of Portland. The negotiations for the purchase of the Hume holdings were started about two months ago. It was necessary to examine and pass upon over 150 abstracts of title. Attorneys for the Macleay estate completed examination last week and the transfers of the various parcels were made yesterday. All of the Hume estate land holdings in Oregon are included in the purchase, which involves a total consideration of $250,000.

In addition to the purchase of the land the Macleay estate also bought the wharf and waterfront at Port Orford. The Port Orford cold storage plant also has been taken over by the same interests.

It is estimated that about 6000 acres of the Hume tracts are adapted to farming purposes. The tract contains about 125,000,000 feet of merchantable timber.

It is the intention of the Macleay estate to develop the holdings, to colonize the agricultural lands and to carry out plans for the improvement and settlement of the large district. Later a big sawmill plant will be installed.

"We are unable to announce definitely our plans of development," said Roderick Macleay last night. "Examination of the entire property will be made by an expert and when reports are made we then will know what projects we will undertake first. We are convinced that that section needs development. The great natural resources of the district will justify extensive improvements. We expect to prepare a large part of the holdings for colonization purposes. Among other propects will be the construction of a sawmill at Port Orford. The port is ideal for shipping. The Anvil and the Yale are now in operation between Portland and Port Orford. Considerable shipping also is done between Port Orford and Coos Bay."

Clatsop Precinct Lines Changed.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 6.—(Special.)—A large part of the day's session of the County Court was consumed in appointing the judges and clerks of election for the various precincts throughout the county. Changes were made in the boundaries by creating ten election precincts in place of seven in the city, and Seaside was divided into two precincts, the dividing line being Bridge street.

Of the Japanese factory laborer the average "work life" is short, very few being able to last longer than five years. Hence the rural population hesitates to migrate to the city when country employment is abundant.

My Ten-Day Treatment Positively Cures BACKACHE

FREE

Are you racked with pain?

Do you suffer so that your daily work is a torture instead of being a pleasure?

Have you lost ambition, zest, enterprise, the desire to better yourself because of pains, aches, dullness?

Has rheumatism set its clutches on your muscles and paisied your limbs so that life is hardly worth living, your days a horror and your nights a terror?

I can relieve your sufferings and I want to do it now. Write to me. Fill out the coupon and mail it to me. That is all you need to do. I will do the rest and it will cost you absolutely nothing.

Rheumatism, back-ache, kidney troubles, bladder troubles, chronic catarrh, female weakness and the so-called weakness of men are generally due to one cause—uric acid poisoning. My treatment, which is different from all others, will dispel your pains; it will make life worth living. Take it and you will get up in the morning after a sound night's sleep, refreshed and invigorated. Once more your muscles will respond to your will and do so readily without twinges of agony, without reluctance. Your backache will vanish and you will bless me and thank me as have done thousands of others.

This treatment is not an experiment. It does not contain drugs that injure you while giving temporary relief. We have vouched for it according to law.

I am not offering to send you a sample but a full ten days' course of treatment with full instructions as to how to use it and all of it is absolutely free to you.

I want to convince you that it is your duty to yourself and to those who love you and are dependent on you to try this free 10-day treatment of mine.

No man tortured with uric acid complaints is fit for the battle of life. He cannot bring his brain nor his hands to work properly when his body is racked with pain. No woman can care for her home, bring up her children right or work if she is cross, miserable, distracted by suffering. The struggle is too keen, competition too merciless, the fight for success too strenuous to be handicapped by physical ills. To the man or woman who suffers I want to bring relief, comfort, happiness, success. Fill out the coupon attached here and mail to me. Don't wait until tomorrow, tomorrow never comes, do it at once. With my Ten-Day Treatment, I will also send my book on Uric Acid Diseases. It is a pamphlet full of the results of an experience of thirty-two years, during which I have specialized in uric acid complaints. It contains also a few of the tens of thousands of testimonial letters from preachers, lawyers, men and women of affairs the country over who have not hesitated to say just how much I have benefited them.

DR. G. B. ABBOTT.

P. S. Perhaps you have a friend who is a sufferer. Don't hesitate to have him or her fill out this coupon or write me a letter, or you do it for your friend. They will call you blessed.
