THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, JANUARY 14, 1912.

Little Zelda Mosseshon Hums Melodies in Perfect Harmony at Age of Nine Months and Composes Songs With Ease Now.

ZELDA MOSSESOHN.

site-eine dal-ly in her tak the will not an in the there.

our the store to store this goat by more that the

01- WORDS AND MUSIC BY ZELDA

OTHERS - MUSIC BY ZELDA MONESORN.

Lit-the boy the out the por Si.

by + 1 d ind make to other

MOSSESOHN, AGE STEARS.

mario

0772

There tax tax my log the Sa

ALININ'S

entertainment will consist of a munical programme, cards and luncheon. The following women are on the reception committee: Mrs. I.F. Mahoney, Mrs. W. Yillis, Mrs. C. Waish, Mrs. Joseph Noo-nan, Mrs. C. I. Smith, Mrs. A. Mompler, Mrs. Ralher, Mrs. Jahnes Lacey, Mrs. A. Marpet, Mrs. William Bally, Mrs. H. Al-lehoff, Mrs. J. C. Hayes, Mrs. W. J. Mo-ran, Mrs. R. Case, Mrs. E. Wells, Mrs. F. Wascher, Mrs. E. McEntee, Mrs. N. L. Miller, Mrs. E. Scott, Mrs. H. L. Cox, Mrs. W. V. Miller, Mrs. J. Stokan, Mrs. J. Shannon, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. W. Graham, Mrs. E. Mor-ita, Mrs. James Kirby, Miss Mary Cham-bers, Miss Alta Cox, Miss Frances Bra-dy, Miss Genevieve Ward and Miss E. Costello. . . .

The surprise party given Albert and Oscar Spahn at their home Wednes-day evening by a number of the younger members of the "P. S. T. V." was a very enjoyable affair. Games, music and dancing formed the enter-tainment of the evening. Among those present were: Miss Molly Spahn, Miss Ethel Brown, Miss Jeannette Winters, Miss Enma Eirich, Frederick Traut-man, William Gerber, Alvin Baumgar-ten, Andrew Amacher, Frederick Schu-macher, Oscar Spahn and Albert Spahn.

One of the events being looked for-ward to by the students of Washington High is the February 12 class play, to be given January 12 and 18 in the be given January 12 and 13 in the school auditorium. This is the first time in the history of the school that a February class has attempted to give a play and consequently the interest is running high. The proceeds will go toward defraying expenses of the grad-uating number of the "Lens." Various members of the cast have planned to entertain those in the play and enjoy-able times are expected by all.

able times are expected by all. The Electrical Workers' Union, No. 317. will give an illuminated ball the night of January 15, at the the Armory. Tenth and Couch streets. The lodge has been working on the decorations for more than two months to outdo the ef-forts of the committee last year. Elec-tric lights will glow from every nook about the place and long strings of colored lights will be stretched across the beamed cellings. The Shakespeare Club of the Wo-

The Shakespeare Club of the Wo-men's Alliance of the Unitarian Church will meet next Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the Unitarian chapel at Sev-enth and Yamhill streets. "Twelfth Night" will be read and discussed.

WEDDINGS.

Gaston-Rothrock. A quiet but pretty wedding was that of Miss Edith C. Fothrock and George Oliver Gaston, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Herring, of home of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Herring, of 44 Buchtel avenue, Sunday afternoon. December 31, at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. F. Reagor, of the First Christian Church, officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Perry L. Rothrock, wore a gown of white just over messaline, elaborated with fringe and Irish net. Her long tulls vell was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried an arm bou-ouet of carnations and Illes of the valquet of carnations and Illies of the val-ley. Decorations of Oregon grape, carnations and California peppers were used throughout the rooms. Mr. Ban-non, a nephew of the bridegroom, sang "In the Garden of Roses." The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Rothrock, of Vancouver, Wash: Miss Morton, of The Dalles, and Mrs. J. Ban-on, of Pendleton Mr. and Mrs. Gaston will be at home to their friends at 44 Buchtel avenue after January 17.

Hendry-Kirkland.

Hendry-Kirkland. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kirkland in Irvington, January 4, their daughter, Hasel, and Dr. Roy R. Hondry were married by Rev. George B. Van Waters. The marriage service of the Episcopal Church was read. Miss Hazel Coote played the wedding march. The bride, who came in on the arm of her father, wore cream satin with pearl trimming. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses. Miss Adine Swart, gowned in white marquisette, was bridesmald. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. S. G. Kirkland, brother of the bride, attend-ed the bridegroom.

BY NAOMI SWETT SS ZELDA MOSSESOHN, of 776 Johnson street, who is but 3 years re, is an unusually brilliant child, to speak, little Zelda commenced ning melodies in perfect harmony, he äge of 10 she commenced the second of the church of the sold. She was given no musical in-tion until about three months aro, is as commenced taking plane les-mposition seems so natural that continually picks out impromptu ed the bridegroom. The parlors were brilliant in holly and mistletoe. An arch of white and green formed the nupilal bower. In the dining-room where a wedding supper Composition seems so natural that she continually picks out impromptu pieces on the plano, and a few of these have been witten by her mother. The first little song is entirely of Zelda's composition in both music and words. Zelda has a remarkably clear and pure volce, having a range of two and one-half octaves, from low E to high C. She has a perfect memory, know-ing close to 50 different songs, with words and melody to each. She is well posted on Bible stories and can recite the Patriarchs, the name of the 13 sons of Lacob and the story of Joseph. In fact, she knows well the book of Gen iear Agness, Farrer-Whiteley. Herbert Farrar and Miss Ruby Whiteley were married Sunday, Janu-ary 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clara became the brow Rev. A. O. Baltimore, of Lebanon. Rev. A. O. White officiated. The bride was attired in a white vel-vet gown and carried white carnations. She was attended by her slater, Miss Phena Rive, and Louis Rive acted as provide the bride was one of the Laing, 514 East Market street. Rev. J. Bowersox officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Far-rar will be at home to their friends at 514 East Market street. groomsman. The bride was one of the most popular young women of Silver-ton. The bridegroom, who is the only sen of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Batlimore, of Lebanon, and a grandson of the late Dr. Byland, of Woodburn, is a South-Johnson-Knight. Chris C. Johnson and Miss Ina' G. Knight were married at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of their friends, Friday, January 5. Rev. Delmer H. Trimble, D. D., of Centenary Pacific fireman. Mr. and Mrs. Baltimore left after the ceremony for California, where they will pass their honeymoon. Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. Evans-Emmett. of the First Preabyterian Church, Jackson-Northrup. The following appeared in the Santa Ana Blade, of December 27: "A quiet home wedding took place Charles A. Evans and Miss Veneta Emmett were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 614 East Ash quimby was the scene of a pretty wed-ding January 11, when Caroline, the diest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Quimby, was married to Gustavus A. street, January 8, Rev. Delmer H. | Wikander. The ceremony was per-

Have you received your share of the Morgan-Atchley $25,000 dividend

As soon as you become a customer of the Morgan-Atchley Store you begin to receive dividends on every dollar's worth of goods you buy. These dividends are real and substantial and average at least 121/2% throughout the year. We can pay them because of our very enviable business location on the East Side, where land is comparatively cheap and taxes and the interest on the investment comparatively small.

We Save $25,000 in Taxes and Interest Because We Built on the East Side and We Share This Big Sum With Our Customers

Right now there is a further inducement for you to come here. Our regular low prices-121/2% less than elsewhere-are further reduced because of our January Clearance-EVERYTHING IN THE STORE-A FEW CONTRACT GOODS EXCEPTED-IS NOW CUT IN PRICE.

We positively assure you that we can save you at least one-third against any competitor's offering.

We would esteem it a favor if you would shop around a bit before coming here for your own satisfaction. We want to also call your attention to our Partial Payment System. It is positively the best and fairest in vogue anywhere in the land. It puts you in possession of the complete housekeeping outfit upon the payment of a small amount-you having the use of the goods while paying for them.

So if you are as yet not a customer and dividend sharer of this store, come and become acquainted. It will pay you well.

TURNITURE CO.INC Grand Avenue and East Stark Street

No Other Store Can Undersell Us We Undersell All

Others

yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Doerr, on North Broadway, the contracting parties be-ing Miss Gladys Northrup, of Portland, Oregon, and S. C. Jackson, of the same place "The bride, who, her winsome ways,

"The bride, who, her winsome ways, has endeared herself to all with whom she has come incontact during her short stay in California, was attrac-tively dressed in white silk and car-ried a bouquet of brides roses. "With a setting of California's most characteristic flowers, roses and calla lilles, the ceremony was performed, Rev. Otto S. Russell, of the First Bap-tist Church, officiating."

Cunningham-Wright.

Charles D. Cunningham, a rancher of Agnes, Or., and Miss Mary Wright, for-meriy a business woman of Idaho Springs, Colo., were married at the new

Grand Central Hotel January 9 at 3 o'clock, Rev. Benjamin Young officiat-ing. The parlor was decorated with pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Cunning-ham left immediately for their home

Trimble, D. D., of Centenary Methodist Church, officiated. Booth-Muikey. The marriage of F. Morris Booth, of Kablotus, Wash., to Miss Eva Muikey. Precently a leacher in the Ladd School. Portland, was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Muikey, at Monmouth, on the evening of sunday, January 7. Obre-Brooks. Richard R. Obee and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Brooks were married at the residence of the bride's brother, Charles Warrens, at $48 Melinda avenue, Wed-nesday, Rev. Luther R. Dyott officiated. Reis-Yaugha.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Emil F. Reis and Miss Birdie Grace Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Damerberg an-nounce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Elizabeth, to Jack J. Kindred. The wedding will take place in February. Vaughn were married at the residence of the groom's parents, at 289 East Forty-second street, Saturday. Dr. Lu-ther R. Dyott officiated.

Mackay-Sairbaira.

Reis-Vaughn.

D. N. Mackay and Miss Netta Salr-bairn were married at 414 Columbia street on January 13, Rev. Thomas Holmes Walker, of Calvary Presby-

NEW MILLINERY

DUPLICATE OF CARLINE RE-BOUX, OF PARIS, FRANCE.

Haggerty's Finest in City-Hati Made From London and Paris Models, Direct Importations.

An agreeable surprise is awaiting those who will visit Miss Haggerty's millinery store, recently opened in the Eilers bldg., Seventh st., near Alder. It is probably the finest store of its kind in this country. The famous Carline Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elkington an-nounce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Edith, to Rosa W. Elkins. The wedding will take place in June. Reboux, reputed to be the most beauti-ful millinery establishment in Paris, was used as a model and it is practi-cally a duplicate of this well-known shop. After much planning Miss Hag-gerty conceived the idea while in Paris of duplications the Couling Rebourt in At the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon the wedding of Mrs. Sue M. Taylor and John McClelland took place, Rev. Mr. Young officiating. Wood-Prot of duplicating the Carline Reboux in Portland. Old gold is the color scheme used, the draperies and upholstering being of old gold brown—a new shade. The furniture, showcases and all wood work is hand carved Circassian walnut. The lighting fixtures are unique and harmonize splendidly with the fur-nishings, giving a subdued light very restful and pleasing to the eye. Ex-pende has not been spared, but the prin-cipal object has been to obtain an artis-tic interior and fitting background for the many beautiful and dainty things that are being displayed. Owing to unavoidable delays in open-ing, resulting in this store being overof duplicating the Carline Reboux in Owing to unavoidable delays in open-ing, resulting in this store being over-stocked, a material reduction in price has been decided upon. All millinery has been made from original London and Paris models, scoured in person by Miles Haggerty while abroad. In addition to millinery here will be found a large display of beautiful head dress and boudoir caps, made by Lib-erty and Tiffany of London. Hand-em-broidered chiffon wraps and shoulder coverings, made in the convents of France, dainty novelty wraps, jeweled and embroidered, novelty vells, etc. For a short time everything in stock can be a short time everything in stock can be had at exceedingly low and attractive prices. -

Johnson street, who is but 5 years of age, is an unusually brilliant child.

At the age of 9 months, before she was

At the age of 5 mounts, butters was able to speak, little Zelda commenced humming melodies in perfect harmony. At the age of 10 she commenced to pick out harmonious chords on the piano. She was given no musical in-struction until about three months ago, when she commenced taking plane les-nors.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF WEEK CONTINUED FROM PAGE 3

invitations for a dance to be given at thistensen's Hall, Friday evening, February 5. The patronesses are Mrs. J. B. Harrington, Mrs. S. A. Johnson, will be delivered by Rev. John H. Boyd. J. B. Harrington, Mrs. S. A. Johnson, Mrs. A. K. Bentley; the committee is Orie Harrington, Florence Bentley, Mildred Lawrence, Vita Povey, Aifred Johnson, Harold Meier, Oscar Weist, William Tuerok and Neilis Hamlin.

The J. F. F. Club has issued a lim-ited number of invitations for the Jan-Wei number of invitations for the salay wary dancing party to be given Tuesday evening. January 23, at Murlark Hall. The committee in charge are the Misses Margaret Gallagher, Katheryne Madi-san, Margaret Floyd, Katheryne, Mar-lon and Margaret La Spronce.

The St. Lawrence Court of the Cath-olic Order of Poresters will give its first annual dancing party at the St. Lawrence hall, at Third and Sherman streets, Friday evening, January 26. The committee is composed of W. P. Lillis, Lee J. Wright, J. C. Smith, R. A. Twias and F. G. Tillman.

The Young Men's Club of St. Law-rence Church, assisted by young wo-men of the parish, will give a whist and "500" party to be followed by dancing, Wednesday evening, in the St. Lawrence hall. Refreshments will be served be served. . . .

The Pebruary, '12, class of the Lin-coln High School will have a skating party at the Oaks rink Friday, Janu-ary 18, Special arrangements have been made for the luncheon, which will be given in the reception-room. La Hoa Club will entertain with a La Hoa Chub will enterrain will a leap year danchig party Friday even-ing, January 26. In Christensen's hall. Patroneases are Mrs. W. A. Elvers, Mrs. P. Douglas, Mrs. P. J. Smyth, Mrs. J. Kenneflok and Mrs. E. H. Deery.

COMING EVENTS.

The 153d anniversary of the birth of Scotland's bard. Robert Burns, will be honored by the Portland Scots and other admirers of the poet Wednesday. other admirers of the poet Wednesday, Junuary 74, at the Masonie Temple. The celebration, which is under the am-pices of Clan Macleny, Order of Scottish tlans, is to take the form of a concert and dance. The following persons are on the programme: Mrs. Eifreida Hel-her Weinstein, soprano, Mrs. Luiu Dahi Miller, contratic, J. Ross Fargo, tenor, and J. Claire Monteith, baritone, J. Gari Denbon will be the accompaniat.

Women of Saint Mary's parish are planning a reception for Wednesday, January 17, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The

Robertson-Todd. Among the recent weddings was that

Among the recent weddings was that of Leonard J. Robertson and Miss Marie Todd. The wedding ceremony was per-formed by Rev. Herbert G. Crocker, pastor of the Atkinson Memorial Church at his residence. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are at home to their friends at $66 East Hoyt street.

Professor Darwin Wood and Miss Violet Bell were married at 559 Union avenue Monday. Professor Wood is the "One-Man Orchestra" at the Union Theater.

Bowlby-Collier.

Lawrence Bowlby and Miss Grace Collier were married Tuesday by Dr. Luther R. Dyott, at the residence of the bride's mother on Portland Heights.

Grant-Congdon.

The Mount Tabor residence of D. J. Quimby was the scene of a pretty wed-ther R. Dyott. Wikander-Quimby.

At the First Congregational Church Wednesday John P. Grant and Miss Sa-die Congdon were married by Dr. Luness Mrs.

Sophle Beck Baldauf arrived from Oskaloosa this morning on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Beck, at $4 North Seventeenth street.

Ralph R. Rudolph, fiance of Miss Ger-trude R. Carter, returned to his home in Pennsylvania Friday, baving been the holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Loring S. Carter.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Portland Young Men's Christian Asso-clation, passed yesterday in Tacoma in conference with Young Men's Christian Association officials in that city.

Miss Valeska Liebe, of The Dailes, has returned home after a short visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G.

moved into their new home in Irving-ton. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis P. Sargent and their son Harrisof, have been passing the holidays in San Francisco with rel-atives. Mr. Sargent returned last week.

but Mrs. Sargent will visit in Cali-fornia until about March 1. Miss Margaret Stoppenbach, daugh ter of William Stoppenhach, indigh-tir, is distinguishing herself. In her studies at Lawrence University, Apple-ton, Wis, where she is a student. Miss Stoppenhach is a nicce of Theodore Stoppenhach, of Piedmont.

Mrs, Carre Louise Dunning, who left Portland last June for the East, has returned to her home, "Dunhurst," after passing three mouths in New York and three months in California. Mrs. Dunning will remain in Portland until July, when she will go to Paris for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Howe, who have recently returned from an East-ern trig, have gone to pass the first forinight of the New Year at their Mosier fruit farm, "Lehowa." They were accompanied by Mrs. Howe's sis-ter, Mrs. Samuel H. Maddock.

ter, Mrs. Samuel H. Maddock. Mrs. E. R. Monroe, of Olympia, Wash., is visiting in this city at the home of her aister, Mrs. J. B. Clifford. Mrs. Monroe will leave this week for Sac-ramento, Cal., where she will visit her daughter, Estelle, and niece. Miss May Monroe, of Tacoma, Wash., who are passing the Winter there with her brother, H. Beattie. Mrs. Monroe, ac-companied by her niece and daughter, will visit San Francisco, San Diego and Mexico, returning to tills city in June to attend the Rose Fessival. to attend the Rose Festival.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Miss Buckenmeyer announces new dancing classes. A 1193, Main 7755, **

The Wolsiefer Millinery, formerly of 163 Seventh St. is now located at 202 Seventh. Renwick Hotel Bidg.

Mrs. Young is now opening new classes in dancing for high school and academy pupils. Call East 3119.

in uses 400,000,000 pounds of ten every and exports 200,000,000 pounds.

Pastor Enters New Field.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 13 .- (Special.) HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 13.—(Special.) —Rev. T. S. Handsaker, who for the past year has been pastor of the First Christian Church here, has resigned the pastorate to enter the evangelical field. His headquarters will be at Walla Walla. At a recent banquet, when the sum of $2400 was raised to carry on the local church work for the ensuing year, it was announced that the church had here in the past year 150 additions year, it was announced that the church had had in the past year 150 additions.

Ridgefield Knights Install.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., Jan. 12,-(Spe-cial.)-On Thursday night Lake River Lodge, No. 124, Knights of Pythias, in-Lodge, No. 124, Knights of Pythins, in-stalled the following officers for the term: C. C., W. I. Groff, V. C., Walter Brunkard: M. of W., Albert Sachtier: K. R. and S., Isaac Hughes; M. of F., G. W. Buher: M. of E., E. A. Black-more: M. at A., Joseph Wells; I. G., Harry Weber; O. G., J. J. Jacobs.

Notice to Fat Women

Notice to Fat Women Presumably you know, ladies, that the passes you have got to take off your fat, this must be done in one of three ways. By dietake, by exercise, or by means of Marmola Presoripilon Tablets. The two former will keep you busy for monthe and punish you pratty severaly, the latter will cost you 75 cents at the druggists, your diet necessary, and yet in all proba-busy for the latter will be losing from 12 to 16 cunces to at a day. Which method do you like the out?

best? If you fancy this pleasant method of getting off the fat, see your druggist in-stantly, or else write the Marmola Co. 068 Farmer Bidz, Detroit, Mich. to send you a case by mail. These cases contain so generous a quantity of tablets that the reatmont is very economical. It is, also, quite harmless for the tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Presuription.

LEMUEL LEMMON AND FAMILY AT REUNION.

LEMTEL LEMMON AND FAMILY AT REUNION. SALEM. Or. Jan. 13.—(Special.)—At a recent family reunion of the Lemmon family in Salem there were 33 present. All Lemmons. The family union was considered remarkable from the fact that there are 11 children in the family and all of them were present. Eight of them were mar-ried and all the sons-in-law and daughters-in-law were present. Lemmel Lemmon, still living, is probably one of the oldest living ploneer residents of Salem, and is the partiarch of the family. He came to the Willamette Valley in 1845. In 1845 his father took up a section of land west of Brooks, which is now the site of the Eagan and Krebs ranches. At that time there were but 25 or 30 families at Salem, most of them being missionaries. Which is now the site of the Eagan and Krebs ranches. At that time there were but 25 or 30 families at Salem, most of them being missionaries. Mr. Lemmon was born in Indiana. July 4, 1835. His parents crossed the plans in the train under Captains Tetherow and English. Mrs. Lemmon was born in Ohio and crossed the plains by ox team in 1851. They were married in 1867. Eleven children were born to them, all living and all shown in the accompanying plcture. They are Edward L Lemmon. Salem; Albert J. Lemmon, Antelope, Wasco County; Mrs. Armanelle J. Barnett, Inde-pendence; P. N. Lemmon, Grans Valley, Sherman County; Mrs. Josephine F. Adkins, Lane County; Mrs. Ethel P. Brown, Silverion; Pearl S. and Flyn Lemmon, Portland; Xury Lemmon, farmer of Sherman County; Kunice L and Mary E. Lemmon, who live at home in Salem.

THIRTY-THREE OF FAMILY OF 1845 PIONEER GATHER AT SALEM.