

impaneled. The state has used only one of its three peremptory challenges while the defense has only exercised three of the six peremptories allowed in criminal cases. It is doubtful if the jury can be completed before Wednes-day. Everything depends on how many of the veniremen disqualify themselves of the ventremen disquality inematives as jurors during their examination and at the same time the amount of time that is wasted by opposing counsel in purely time-consuming and more or less vitriolic controversies which have al-ready characterized the proceedings. As a rule it requires from an hour to two and one-half hours for both sides to dispose of a venireman.

Various Pursuits Represented.

Yarlous Pursuits Represented Warlous adjuorned Friday after-neon, the following 12 men were in the jury box: H. M. Callwell, bill clerk for Weils-Farro Express Company, 309 San Rafael; J. H. MacDonald, carpen-ter, 1070 East Fortieth, South; O. F. Barney, Hineman, 86 Base Line road; Barney Haffey, saloonman, 82% Third, North; Martin Satler, contracting paint-er, 422 Going; J. A. McArthur, merch-ant, Woodstock; W. G. Easton, real es-tate broker, 73 East Sixteenth; F. E. Jackson, commercial traveler, 1282 Bel-non; L. A. LaJole, wholesale jowels, 1251 East Morrison; Charles A. Kalus, Farner, accountant, 520 Weidler; and C. G. Paine, 1641 Olin. With the ex-eption of Mr. Paine, all of these ven-terines have been passed for cause by both sides and are subject to persente ory challenge by either the state or the defense. The examination of Mr. Palne as to his qualifications as a juror will be taken up when court re-sumes tomorrow morning. The three veniremen peremptorily ex-used by the defense were: Louis cused by the defense were: Louis Haertiein, molder, 869 Mallory avenue; C. D. Ramsdell, carpenter, 4304 Fortieth avenue, Southeast; and S. C. Baker, carpenter, 967 East Flanders. The prosecution has applied only one of its three peremptories and with it excused D. W. Fairclough, saloonman, 449 East Couch. In his examination as a pros-pective juror in the case, Fairclough admitted that he was a tenant in a building owned jointly by Mr. Malarkey, counsel for the defense, and Phil Met-

28th Under Examination

ce the selection of a jury began Since the selection of a jury began. 27 of the regular jury panel have been examined and the 28th, Mr. Paine, awaits questioning as to his qualifica-tions tomorrow. Of the 27, 15 were passed for cause by both sides. Four of that number have since been ex-cused from service through the exer-cise of peremptory challenges. The other 12 men called to the jury box were either excused for cause by the (left to right)-T. W. Vreeland, M. Bernstein, G. H. Thompson, M. S. Woodcock; E. W. Haines, Class Historian; W. J. Kerr, Class Orator; Dr. C. W. Lowe, Thirty-third Degree Cont How (left to right)—T. W. Vreeland, M. Hernstein, G. H. Thompson, M. S. Woodcock; E. W. Haines, Class Historian; W. J. Kerr, Class Orator; Dr. C. W. Lowe, Thirty-third Degree Honorary Member; J. R. Bogers, Class President; H. L. Pittock, Thirty-third Degree Honorary Member; E. G. Jones, Master of Ceremonles and Honorary Member; C. C. Craig, Class Secretary; R. W. Wilson, R. E. Sewall, F. J. Leonard, L. Gerlinger, Jr. Second Row—C. A. Milliman, A. J. Hodges, L. H. Fish, W. Balzhiser, H. C. Chadbourne, R. F. Honking, S. Kapstelu, W. E. Mallory, L. F. Buck, E. H. Wheeler, R. Shelley, C. J. Thomas, C. E. Irwin. Third Row—A. B. Chadbourne, E. F. Surface, C. H. King, C. A. Inskeep, R. Becker, W. H. Young, E. A. Biggs, M. D. Haves, I. F. Knewlton, J. R. McAllister, R. D. Hoyt, W. C. Elliott. Top Row—G. F. Price, G. H. Penrson, G. N. Versteeg, W. E. Gelinsky, A. J. Hill, C. M. Wheeler, L. A. Jacobsen, W. F. Fiebig, F. Bell, W. H. Ramp, L. Bothacher.

I. W. W. TROUBLE SETTLED

Big Delegations Expected. "The Rose Societies of Tacoma and Seattle, which are both thriving and enthusiastic organizations, will be asked to send delegations here to par-ticipate in our ceremony. And, bestdes all this, I want to ask all our patriotic citizens to observe the day of rose planting generally in their own yards. They can plant their flowers at some hour which will not conflict with the general celebration and if Mr. Hill comes, everybody will be afforded the opportunity of hearing him deliver an opportunity of hearing him deliver an address,

The

The Sons of Norway are planning to hold their next grand session in Port-land during Rose Festival week, June 10-15. Hans Bugge, of Bellingham, Wash, grand president of the Pacific jurisdiction, has taken the matter up with the Festival management and it is expected that suitable arrangements will be made for bringing the thous-ands of delegates here for that gather-ing. President Bugge advises that a majority of the members are eager to The Sons of Norway are pl other 12 men called to the jury box were either excused for cause by the court or were challenged for cause by the prosecution or the defense and ex-eured by the court. Of the 12, nine were excused on challenges submitted by the defense, the challenge in several instances not being resisted by the state. Of the other three, two were challenged for cause by the prosecu-tion and the third was excused out-right by Judge Kavanugh.

tion and the third was excluded out-right by Judge Kavanaugh. These 12 men were: Alvin S. Wal-ker, confectioner, 129 East Thirty-flith; L. D. Nash, engineer Union Meat Com-pany, Kenton; William Kallender, car-penter, 7222 Foster road; C. A. Eastman, contractor, 617 East Ninth North; W. Colinea carpenter, Canitol Hull; J. E. Gaines, carpenter, Capitol Hill; J. T. Lacey, train auditor O.-W. R. & N., 1375 East Irving; Charles Dahl, laborer; Le Roy Hadley, manager Baggage & Omnibus Transfer Company; Fred Gaebler, laborer. 660 Harold avenue; Herman Sauers, laborer, 766 Hood; M. Tannler, dairyman, 1024 Mallory ave-nue; Albert Kalkofen, harnessmaker, 107 East Foster road.

Children Enjoy Playing Games and Then Partake of Sumptuous Feast of Ice Cream, Cake and Numerous Goodies.

Two dozen members of Portland's tiny society folk gathered at the real-dence of Julius L. Meier, yesterday afternoon to celebrate the 10th birth-day of Jeanette Měler. At 2:30 o'clock cay of Jeansite Meter. At 2100 o clock the little maids and masters arrived at the scene of the function and an after-moon of games begun. Later the little folks were scated at a table laden with a grand spread of ice cream and cake and other goodles. When the camera man came to take with a grand spread of ice cream and cake and other goodles. When the camera man came to take a picture of the little guests of the time hostess all covered their eyes with one hand and tried to hold both ears closed with the other. After much to coaring by Mrs. Abe Meler, Mrs. Julius L Meler. Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch they were finally pre-valled upon to take their hands down over arrested for speeding his acro-sver arrested for speeding his aero-plane was heaped upon Farnum T. Flah, the 18-year-old avlator, while on the way from this city to the avlation field at Dominguez. Young Fish had an engagement to fiy early in the day, and was rushing his machine along in tow of a powerful automobile when he was halted by a motorcycle policeman and charged with speeding. He was allowed to continue to the field after agreeing to appear in court Monday. The officer charged that Fish was making 40 miles an hour when arrested. when arrested.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 20,-The distinction of being the first aviator

Cottage Grove Fight Opened.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Jan. 20,-

of Semi-Annual Events in Oregon-E. G. Jones in Charge Initiatory Ceremonies.

Class Is One of Largest in History

A banquet marked the close of the 35th semi-annual reunion of the Scot-tish Rite Masons of Oregon at the Scottish Rite Cathedral last night. A class of 48, which has been receiving the degrees from the fourth to the $2d, com-pleted the work about $ o'clock last night, and soon afterward retired to main banquet-room at the cathe where a delicious repast was dral, served.

The class is one of the largest ever participating in the semi-annual re-unions, and its members represent Hotel last night. many parts of the state. It was con-ducted through the various degrees by E. G. Jones.

E. G. Jones Gives Lecture. The class and many members of the bers of the class, the knights com-mander of the court of honor and others who have assisted in the work of conferring degrees to the members of the Aberdeen's Check on Street Speaking

Meets With Favor. The knights commander of the court of honor met at noon yesterday and ABERDEEN, Wash., Jan. 20 .- (Spe-Percy Hoyt, of Cheyenne, Wyo., was the only visiting member present There are 25 members in this jurisdiction, cial.)-Industrial Workers of the World trouble was settled here with the passage of an ordinance by the City Council giving the workers the right to speak on the streets 30 feet south of the property line on Heron are 25 members in this jurisdiction, chosen from the 32d degree members of the Scottish Rite. It is the honorary degree leading up to the 33d degree, which is the highest Masonic degree. Robert A. Miller was elected presi-dent and A. M. Wright, secretary. B. B. Beckman was appointed to assist these officers in arranging for the was's social events. street on cross streets. The privilege will be most largely used on G street, which was the scene of the original disturbance and where subsequent disturbances were staged. The first test of the new ordinance probably will be made tonight. One of the provisions of the ordinance to year's social events. The annual banquet of the class of January, 1909, was held at the Imperial which the workers have agreed is that which the workers have agreed in this no defamatory remarks concerning the city, county, state or National officials shall be made and that no inflama-tory utterances shall be indulged in. If trouble arises it will be over these

Cottage Grove Bank Elects.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Jan. 20 .-

officers re-elected were: Herbert Eakin, president; T. C. Wheelar, cashier, who, with J. H. Hawley, N. W. White and O. O. Veatch, form the board of direc-tors. The bank recently moved into its new building and added a savings and other departments

General Maus to See O. A. C. Drill.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 20.-(Special.)-General M. P. Maus, D partment Commander of the Columbia, is expected by Lieutenant

W. C. Miller, commandant of the O. A. C. regiment, to visit this command dur-ing the present week. Special drill will elected at the annual meeting.

The Little Friend

other departments.

Desertion Pleas Made by Women.

Informal Banquet Held.

participated in an informal banquet.

new class.

THE DALLES, Or., Jan. 20 .- (Spe-cial.)-Suit for divorce has been filed wo provisions.

Cases Never Self-Cured. True Dr. Van Vleck Found Genuine Relief Which Is Healing majority of the members are eager to come here at that time.

Buy the records for your Victor,

Victorla or talking machine from Sher-man, Clay & Co., Morrison at Sixth. Victor records are the best, and can be ed on all disk machines.

can be

J. J. HILL IS BIDDEN

Other Speakers to Be Asked to Be Here Rose Planting Day.

Portland's Celebration of Washing ton's Birthday Gains Unique

Place Among Festivals-National Delegations Expected.

James J. Hill has been requested to be the leading guest of honor and speaker at the annual "Rose Planting Day" ceremonies which will be held as usual, on Washington's birthday, Feb-ruary 22. An urgent invitation to the head of the Great Northern system has been sent by Dr. Emmet Drake, who will have charge of the event and who has been prominently identified with former planting days and with the former planting days and with the Rose Festival and the Rose Show. In addition to having Mr. Hill here,

Dr. Drake hopes to have Governor West on the speaking programme, with Mayor Rushlight and the Mayors of Oregon City and Vancouver, as well as other prominent persons in public and Park Yet to Be Chosen. As now planned the formal cere-monies in connection with this novel monles in connection with this novel Winter function will take place in one of the public parks, in the Mount Tabor Park preferably, although this will have to be decided by the Board of Park Commissioners at its next session. Strong support of the plan has been assured Chairman Drake by Emil Mische, Superintendent of Parks, who will assist in preparing the planting spots for the reception of the Portland queen flower.

spots for the reception of the Portland queen flower. While it is intended to have one spa-cial place set aside for observance of this event, the residents and properly owners in all parts of the city are to be urged to observe the day at their own homes and to set out as many roses as they can contemporaneously with the chief celebration in one of the narks.

Rose to Be Blesned. It is probable that the former custom of having little boys and girls from the various sections of the city do the

the various sections of the city as the actual work of consigning the plants to mother earth, will be followed this year. There also will be the solemn ceremonial of "Blessing the Rose" by some church dignitary, together with a concert by a local band while the pro-gramme is under way.

concert by a local pand while the pro-gramme is under way. "We are just getting our plans un-der way." said Dr. Drake, last night, "buit from now on we shall keep on hustling and do our best to make this a most noteworthy occasion. Portland has established a fine reputation theoreheut the country by dedicating has established a line reputation throughout the country by dedicating Washington's birthday to the planting of our most characteristic and popular flower and I am confident that Mr. Jaimes J. Hill will give our invitation most careful consideration. He has not related Portland for some time and not visited Portiand for some time and this gives him a patriotic opportunity to come even if he can stay but a day.

Big Delegations Expected.

business life.

the parks.

BIG

CEREMONY PLANNED

Thousands.

(Special.)—For the 11th successive time the same officers and board of directors of the First National Bank were re-SENDS $1 PACKAGE TO TRY FREE

If you have Piles, or the itchins, burning irritation which is their sure warning. let us send you Dr. Van Vicek's 3-fold Ab-sorption Remedy for all rectai trou-bles at once. It is a dreadful mistake to allow this ma-lignant disease to make unhindered progress, for 1 it progress, for it may lead to the deadly torture of fistula and cancer. No matter at what d this coupon today.

be sent you by return using it, if you are satlief and comfort as it has done for many thou-We take your word.

Van Vleck Co., GP2 Majestic Bidg., Jackson, Mich.

FREE $1 COUPON. Good for $1 Package of Dr. Van Vleck's Complete 3-Fold Treatment to be sent Free on Approval, as ex-plained above, to Address,

Mail thi	s coupon today to Dr. Va b. GP2 Majestic Bldg., Jack h. Return post will bring

CHILDREN AT BIRTHDAY PARTY OF LITTLE PORTLAND MAIDEN.

Boy and Girl Living With Home steader Taken Away.

CHILDREN BROUGHT BACK

J. G. Kilpack, traveling agent for the J. G. Kilpack, traveling agent for the Boys' and Girls' Ald Society, has re-turned to Portiand after a trip 85 miles southeast of Prineville, where he went to take charge of a boy and a girl, aged 9 and 10, respectively, who had been taken from Portiand by a man named Peterson, to his homestead. They lived in a small cabin, which served for bitchen dinher-room and bedroom for kitchen, dining-room and bedroom for the three. This matter was brought to the attention of Superintendent Gard-ner by Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin.

It was found that Peterson, while in Portland had appealed both to the Boys' and Girls' Ald Society and the Children's Home for a boy and girl but his appli-cation was rejected. Superintendent Gardner says Peterson is the same man whose case was aon is the same man whose take was brought to his attention by the author-lities of Marion County in 1907, when it was reported that he had married a girl 15 years old. Peterson later ap-plied for a divorce before the Circuit Court of Marion County. The father and stepmother of the children live in Destination and their case will be dis-Portland and their case will be dis-pused of in the Juvenile Court,

FRUIT TREE LOSS SMALL

Horticultural Inspector Says Storm

Damage May Be Repaired.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 20 .- (Special.)-The fruit trees were not seriously injured by the recent silver thaw, is the statement of A. A. Quamberg. Herticultural Inspector of the counties of Clark, Skamania, Klickitat and Cow-lita. He returned today from a visit in the district.

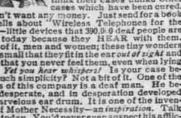

In the district. "In many cases the small branches which were broken off can well be spared," he said, "and the fruit yield will not be materially lessened. Where the trees have been uprooted, as they have in many cases, they can be pulled have in many cases, they can be pulled have been uprooted a block have in many cases, may can be pured back into position by use of a block and tackle and anchored to the next trees with wire. In this manner many trees may be saved."

Actual

of the Deaf

be held for General Maus.

"There's Rellef in Every Package,"

Dr

be a successful remedy to be an on this approv-plan. So write to day-new-to D he sol othing. We take your word, outsands of letters from peo-the world who write us that they have been cured, even after 30 and 40 years of pain, a ftor everything clse, pensive and pain-ful operations, ful operations, van see that Dr. Van Vieck's must