

MRS. VON CLAUSSEN JUDGED NOT CRAZY

Doctor Says She's Merely Conceited "Like Many Other Women."

DOORS OF ASYLUM OPENED

Delusions About Invention of Airship and Politics Gone—She Says Hearing Is First "Square Deal"—Brother Custodian.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 20.—(Special.)—On the testimony of Dr. H. V. DeHart, who said that Mrs. Ida von Clausen was not crazy but was merely conceited, "like many women," Mrs. Von Clausen, who has figured considerably in the limelight, won her release from the Bloomingdale asylum. She was placed in the custody of her brother on an order by the court but it was stipulated that she should be kept at White Plains and her mental condition reported to the court at frequent intervals.

Many sensational features played a part in the hearing on the writ of habeas corpus which was granted by Supreme Court Justice Morschauer.

Daughter Runs to Her Arms. At one time Mrs. Von Clausen dramatically appealed to the court.

"Let me have my liberty," she cried to Justice Morschauer; "I want to look after my daughter."

At this juncture a little girl of 10 years, attired in white, ran into the space reserved for attorneys and witnesses, and clasped her arms about her mother.

Dr. De Hart and Dr. Zacharie, of White Plains, were called by counsel for Mrs. Von Clausen. They declared that the patient was sane, and that there was no reason for her detention in the asylum.

Mrs. Von Clausen took the witness stand in her own behalf and told a straightforward story. On cross-examination she was asked as to her alleged delusions.

Delusions Called Myths. "I have enough trouble without delusions," she replied. "I want to say that delusions are only myths. This is the first time in four years that I have had an opportunity for a hearing in court. I am now getting the first square deal."

Dr. Charles P. Campbell, of Bloomington Asylum, produced a record of the condition and actions of Mrs. Von Clausen. Among other things, he testified that Mrs. Von Clausen had said she was the inventor of an airship over which Paris went crazy. She said that it was founded on the principle of equilibrium. The witness also said that Mrs. Von Clausen wrote a letter to Governor Dix in which she declared that the credit for his election was due to her. The hospital physician also testified that Mrs. Von Clausen had said that Secret Service men were following her at the instigation of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

ROYAL VISIT MOMENTOUS

Austria-Hungarian Archduke to Show Friendship for Germany.

VIENNA, Jan. 20.—Much comment has been caused here by the report that the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his consort, the Duchess Sophie of Hohenburg, intend to pay a visit to Berlin, where they will present at the Emperor's birthday celebration on January 21.

This is the first time that a member of the Austrian imperial family has left Vienna to participate in a birthday celebration of the German imperial family, and great political significance is attached to this departure from custom.

It is believed that the visit of the Archduke is intended to dispel the mistrust of the German republic toward Austria which has existed since the Moroccan crisis.

CHILD RIDES BRAKEBEAM

Five-Year-Old Takes Cat Along on His Perilous Journey.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Jan. 20.—The world's youngest "brakebeam tourist" probably is the 5-year-old Benny Toungod, of this city, who with his favorite cat tucked carefully under his arm, has made a journey of six blocks under a freight car.

A Salt Lake train stopped in front of Benny's home and the youngster, with the cat, swung onto the brakebeam. The train moved to the west end of the yard, where a brakeman discovered the illegal passenger and after no little trouble dislodged him.

He was apparently utterly unconscious of his peril and said that he had enjoyed the ride.

CASHIER SENT TO PRISON

Five Years Is Penalty for Falsifying Account of Assets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—William B. Nash, cashier of the defunct Market-Street Bank, who was convicted of having issued a fraudulent statement regarding the financial condition of the institution, was sentenced today to five years in San Quentin prison by Judge Dunne.

Nash issued a statement in which the bank assets were given as $46,000 more than actually existed. President Marshall, of the Market-Street Bank, convicted on a similar charge yesterday, will be sentenced Monday.

JAIL BARS AID ROMANCE

Wedding Helped by Jailor; Present to Bridegroom Is Freedom.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 20.—(Special.)—A romance blossoming behind the steel bars of the County Jail ended in a wedding today, when J. C. Freeman and Maud Dixon were married. Justice of the Peace Dewitt M. Evans performed the ceremony, and Head Jailor James Longmire officiated as best man. Freeman has been serving a 63-day sentence from the Police Court and his bride was serving 30 days, sent up from the same court.

When he heard of the romance, Jailor Longmire enacted also the role of aide
