

SOCIETY

MISS RICHARD NIXON WHO LEFT PORTLAND FOR SAN FRANCISCO LAST WEEK

THE past week was the gayest since the beginning of the holiday season, and many smart functions are planned for next month, as there are but five more weeks in which society may divert itself before Ash Wednesday arrives, bringing the season of sackcloth and ashes.

As is the custom at this season of the year in all Northern cities, many society folk are journeying to the sunny Southland. Beautiful Honolulu is claiming an unusual number of Portland residents this month. Southern California, the Riviera of the West, is always popular, and many prominent persons have taken the trip to Panama, and still others are planning to go in the near future.

The opening of the new Multnomah Hotel will be the occasion for many brilliant functions in that hostelry. The most important from a social standpoint will be the subscription dance and the large ball to be given by the Catholic Women's League and the Knights of Columbus.

The larger events of the past week were the third subscription dance, the wedding of Miss Laeta Buehner and Robert Noble and the dinner dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell were hosts.

The most important events thus far scheduled for this week are the two teas to be given by Miss Dorothy and Miss Mildred Josselyn Tuesday and Friday afternoons and the many informal affairs which are being planned for Mrs. Elsworth Mather Taylor, of New York, and Miss Edith Brownlee, of Spokane.

Marlark Hall was the scene of the third subscription dance Friday evening. The patronesses for this affair consisted of the brides of the year, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot being the only exception, and include Mrs. Thomas Robertson (Kathleen Burns), Mrs. Kenneth Beebe (Caroline Wilson), Mrs. Gilbert Durham (Dorothy Holbrook), Mrs. Antoinette Labbe, Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd was gowning in white marquisette, with a bodice of pearl encrusted net and touches of rose satin. This costume was further enhanced by bands of sables.

Mrs. Kenneth Beebe wore Chinese blue marquisette over cream satin.

Mrs. William S. Biddle appeared in vivid green chiffon over white satin elaborated with cut-steel trimming and touches of black satin.

Mrs. Elsworth Mather Taylor, of New York (Ma Whidden), who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Whidden, was striking in a gown of yellow satin cut on severe lines and worn with a handsome scarf of black cashmere lace.

Mrs. J. Ernest Laddlaw wore bordered black chiffon with roses in pastel tones, over brocaded Chinese silk, and a band of black and gold in her hair.

Mrs. William MacKenzie, of New York (Bernice Stewart), was in flame-colored chiffon over white satin.

Mrs. Donald R. Munro wore an unusually handsome gown of white satin.

Mrs. William Hamilton Toaz, wife of Lieutenant Toaz, United States Navy, was admired in a creation of Alice blue chiffon over white satin elaborated with jet and with a deep border of black velvet on the skirt.

Mrs. Thomas Sharp was in a flower bordered chiffon trimmed with real lace.

Mrs. Gerald Beebe wore gray blue crepe.

Mrs. Wilson Clark's gown was of white crepe trimmed with ball fringe and embroidery.

Miss Leslie Weidner, whose engagement to Stanley Jewett was announced recently, was particularly striking in blue marquisette over shaded pink satin worn with a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids.

Miss Louise Burns, one of the attractive debutantes, was in deep cream net over pink satin elaborated with tiny French roses in tones of pink.

Miss Polly Hewett appeared in black-spangled net worn with a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

Miss Katherine MacMaster was in a gown of palest blue chiffon elaborated with bands of same toned embroidery and chiffon ruffles held the drapery in place. The costume was completed by a Juliet cap of chiffon.

Miss Lillian O'Brien wore embroidered rose pink satin.

Miss Maidsa Hart was in white, chiffon with a tunic bordered with deep bands of gold-colored satin, which was extremely becoming to her blonde type.

Miss Angela Kinney was gowning in cream voile over satin.

Miss Josephine Smith was charming in white satin with a tunic of pearl encrusted net and iridescent beads.

Miss Mary Brownlie wore pale blue chiffon outlined with bands of fur and with touches of yellow at the corsage.

Miss Katherine Holbrook's gown was of cream chiffon with a bodice of gold lace worn with a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids.

Miss Isabel McGunneagle, of Vancouver Barracks, was a handsome figure in a creation of cream net over blue satin, further enhanced with gold lace and bands of fur.

Miss Barbara Mackenzie, who recently returned from Europe, wore a Parisian gown of pink with a sash of plaid net and a pink band in her hair.

Miss Cornelia Cook was in dotted pink net over mauve satin.

Miss Isabella Caud was gowning in white lace with touches of scarflet at the corsage.

A wedding of widespread interest was that of Miss Meta Buehner and Robert P. Noble, which was solemnized on Monday evening at the home of the Miss Evelyn Wilson, Misses Polly and Margaret Hewett, Miss Claire Houghton and Miss Marjorie Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox have returned from the East, where they passed the holidays with their daughter, Miss Claire, who is a student in Miss Spence's School.

Mrs. Thomas Kerr will entertain with a bridge next week.

Major James McI. Wood entertained at dinner at the Arlington Club Wednesday evening, complimenting Mr. Earle, general manager of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, and Ralph M. Jeski, designer of Broadway bridge. Additional guests were Mr. Gaffney, Pacific Coast representative of the Pennsylvania Steel Company; Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Carl Gray, president of the Hill lines on the Pacific Coast; D. C. O'Reilly, Carl Spohn, C. E. S. Wood and J. P. Driehaus, vice-president of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell were dinner hosts Thursday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mears, Miss Anita Burns, Miss SooySmith, of New York, C. N. McArthur and Kurt Koehler.

Later in the evening about 40 guests came for an informal dance.

Miss Genevieve Thompson's guests at a matinee party at the Hellig Theater to see "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" last Saturday were Mrs. Carroll Hubbard, of Hood River; Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Mrs. Frank Gilchrist Owen, Mrs. Joseph M. Bradley, Miss Isabella Gaud, Miss Edith Brownlee, of Spokane; Miss Marjorie Forbiss, Miss Katherine MacMaster, Miss Judith Scott and Miss SooySmith, of New York. Later the guests were entertained at tea at the Portland Hotel.

Mrs. Richard Nixon, a portrait of whom appears on today's society page, left Portland last Monday for California, where she will visit her brother, Captain Cyrus Dolph, at the Presidio of Monterey. Mr. and Mrs. Nixon returned recently from an extended visit in Europe, where they were entertained extensively.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot and little Jane Talbot have returned from a two weeks' visit to the beach.

Miss Genevieve Thompson, accompanied by Mrs. William H. Ridenbaugh, of Boise, Idaho, left Portland Thursday evening for San Francisco. The party will be at the Palace Hotel, until Wednesday, at which time they will sail for Japan, where they will pass the remainder of the winter. Miss Thompson expects to return in about a fortnight.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery has been entertained extensively in New York, where she has the entire of Mrs. Nelson exclusive set. At present Mrs. Montgomery is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. C. B. Wood, in Washington, D. C., and has been the motif for many smart affairs.

Mrs. Charles Whitney will preside at a luncheon on Tuesday at Alexandra Court, complimenting Miss Edith Brownlee, of Spokane, who is visiting Miss Marjorie Forbiss.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd has as her guests, on Saturday, to see the afternoon performance of "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," Miss Helen Wheeler, Robert Bean and Harry Lytle.

Thomas Sharp returned Wednesday to his ranch, Oregon. Mrs. Sharp will remain in Portland for several weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Grelle will return to Portland the last of this month. She has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Henry, for about six weeks.

Mrs. Clyde H. Reade entertained informally Thursday afternoon complimenting Miss Florence Williams, of Seattle. Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse and Mrs. J. H. Riley were the fortunate contestants. Additional guests were: Mrs. George A. Marshall, Mrs. Howard Corbett, Mrs. Russell Lewis, Richard J. Holder and Miss Hazel Crocker. This is the first of a series of afternoon affairs planned by Mrs. Reade.

The following clipping from a Washington, D. C. paper is of interest in Portland:

Edward Burr, U. S. A., and Mrs. Burr entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mrs. James B. Montgomery, of Portland, Or., who is spending a few days in Washington, the guest of Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood. Others in the party were: Brigadier General George L. Gillespie, U. S. A., read, and Mrs. Burr, of this city; Admiral O'Neil, U. S. N. After dinner the party attended the usual Thursday evening reception and dance at Mrs. Wadsworth's.

Mrs. Burr is the daughter of Mrs. H. D. Green, who is touring the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. James McI. Wood were hosts at a box party at the Hellig Monday evening. Their guests were Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Marjorie Lewis, Kurt Koehler and Maxwell Wood. In another party were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Almsworth, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Miss Sallie Lewis and William T. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill, of St. Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Hill, of Portland, are journeying to California in their private car, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hill, of Portland. Mr. Hill is a son of J. J. Hill and Mrs. Hill is sister of Mrs. Anson Jackson (Miss Marjorie Barrows), who visited Mrs. Kirk Smith (Lila Wood) some time ago.

The following is from a Tacoma paper: "Mr. and Mrs. Jack White Brown have taken the Ripley residence in Interlaken during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Ripley abroad."

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who were visiting in Hood River after passing the holidays in Portland, returned suddenly to Tacoma and were in this city only one day on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baldwin returned last week from a three months' trip passed in the East and Europe. The Baldwins went first to New York and motored through New England. They passed considerable time in Paris and Rome, and the booking of the steamer Hesperia, which sails from Honolulu next Tuesday, shows a number of names well known in Portland society. Among these are Mrs. Henry E. Jones and her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Washburn, of Medford; Mrs. James A. Dougherty and Miss Angela Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard and son Ben and Jordan Zan, all of whom have Honolulu as their destination, and Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Holbrook and Philip Hart, who will journey to China and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis are planning to leave San Francisco for Honolulu about February 14, as also are the Misses Vida and Mildred Nicholas.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd was hostess at luncheon on Wednesday, complimenting Miss Louise Burns and Miss Katherine MacMaster. Additional guests were Miss Hazel Dolph, Misses Jean and Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Isabella Gaud, smart in her attire, but devotes much of her time to serious pursuit. She is the daughter of Mrs. Milo Potter, of Santa Barbara, and is a belle in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland and other Coast cities, where she is a frequent and much-feted visitor.

Among the smart events planned for this week are the tea Tuesday afternoon to be given in honor of Mrs. Carl Gray, Jr., at which Miss Dorothy Josselyn will be hostess, and the tea to be given Friday for the younger set by Miss Mildred Josselyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Simcoe Chapman expect to leave Portland next week. They will make their home in San Francisco.

Miss Ella Hirsch has sent out cards for a large bridge next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Elsworth Mather Taylor, of New York, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Whidden, has been the motif for a round of entertaining in Washington. Mrs. Taylor has not been in this city since her marriage. Among the affairs planned for her next week are the tea Monday, at which Mrs. Frank Hart will be hostess, and the bridge party to be given by Miss Isabella Gaud, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. John Barrett and Miss Inez Barrett left Portland Saturday for San Francisco. They expect to visit in the Bay City for about two weeks, and then tour Southern California. They will return to Portland in about six weeks.

That Portlanders feel the importance of the Panama Canal is proved by the number of prominent business men as well as pleasure-seekers who, during the last two months, have journeyed to the isthmus from this city. Mr. Joseph N. Teal has recently returned from Panama and Major J. J. Morrow and Major James F. Melndow, who are at present in New York, are planning to make the trip soon. Dr. George F. Wilson and the Misses Frances and Evelyn Wilson left Portland Saturday with Panama as their destination.

Mrs. Charles F. Beebe and her son, Walter Beebe, left Portland for the East last Friday. They will return in about a month.

General T. M. Anderson has been called to Seattle on account of the serious illness of his son-in-law, Captain W. T. Paton, United States Army.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held at the home of Mrs. Wallace McCam-

Advice to Beauty Seekers

BY MADAME MAREE.

FOR A BEAUTIFUL FORM.

Nature did not intend woman to be thin or scrawny, and where undeveloped exists it can be easily corrected. The Vaseline method rarely fails, and while simple, is correct in principle. By this treatment starved and stunted tissues receive proper nourishment. Any woman can prepare her own treatment by making a syrup with a cup and a half of sugar and water to make a pint. In this is stirred one ounce of galingale (be sure to get the pure). Take two teaspoonfuls before meals, and before long you will notice marked results. This recipe is inexpensive, and results are certain if you follow these simple directions.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Dolores: My dear girl! Don't think doing that. All you require is a good massage cream. This cleanses the pores and skin of impurities and bestows an exquisitely refined bloom to the complexion. You will find a cerol massage cream easiest to prepare and unfailling in results, and as you can make it at small cost, you should never be without it. Get three ounces cerol at the drug store and dissolve in a pint jar of boiling water, stirring until smooth and creamy. A nightly massage with this, and the skin is soon cleared of its pimply, sallow condition.

M. W.: Until the hair follicles are stimulated to healthy action you will always be troubled with brittle, thin, stringy hair. A good tonic gives new life to hair roots, and when this is done the hair grows in soft, rich and fluffy. The best tonic I know is made at small cost. Here it is: Mix a half-pint each alcohol and water, and pour in one ounce beta-cantol. A little massaged in the scalp nightly for a time produces an abundance of fine, glossy hair. You get beta-cantol at the druggist's.

Hope: Don't use soaps on the hair and scalp. What is needed to correct the oily condition is a good shampoo twice a month for a time, and excess oil and dandruff then will not bother you. A splendid shampoo can be had with plain eggol, which you can buy at any drug store. This makes a searching yet soothing lather and thoroughly cleanses the scalp, leaving it healthy and pliant and giving to the hair a rich lustre.

Grethen: I am deeply sorry because of the fuzzy growth on your chin. However, give an ounce of delol at the drug store and mix a little with water to make a paste, then spread thickly on the offending hairs and after two or three minutes scrape off and wash the surface and the hairs are gone. Use it freely each night before retiring and you will soon have a smooth, velvety complexion without the use of powder or cosmetics.
