

ast. Mrs. George Pettinger will act with the officers as a board of management. Mrs. J. E. Beaumont, from Willamette Chapter, was elected state regent and Mrs. W. M. Ladd, from Multnomah Chapter, vice-state regent. After the election of officers tea was served. Mrs. Charles Gauld presided at the table.

Multnomah Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is planning a colonial tea to be given at the new Multnomah Hotel on February 22.

Rabbi and Mrs. Joseph B. Wise are receiving felicitations upon the arrival of a baby girl, who will be called Elia Helen Wise.

The home of Mrs. George W. Weidner was the scene of a pretty tea Wednesday afternoon, given by the Women's Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal Church. Mrs. Grindley and Mrs. Shook presided at the table in the dining-room.

Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse entertained informally two tables of bridge Monday afternoon.

Miss Orpha Beacham, of Seattle, is the guest of Mrs. Richard Hogue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alva Jacobs left Portland Monday for San Francisco. They will motor through Southern California for about a month.

Miss Louise Williams was hostess at an informal bridge and dancing party on Tuesday evening complimenting Miss Edith Brownlee, of Spokane, who is the house guest of Miss Marjorie Forsyth. The living-room was effectively decorated with pink carnations, and in the dining-room poinsettias and Oregon grape were used.

A recent letter from Mrs. George Russell tells of the wonderful Delhi Durbar. Mrs. Russell declares that the world has outdone itself in this show. Mrs. Russell says that one might go to India every year for a lifetime and not have the opportunity of seeing the life, types, customs, jewelry, Rajahs, or splendor that this Durbar showed; and that no place but India could have been the setting for this dazzling scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. McCord, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman and Mrs. McDonough left Portland Saturday for an extended Eastern trip. While away they will visit Chicago, New Orleans, Palm Beach, Washington, New York and Boston. No date has been set for their return.

The Catholic Women's League and the Knickerbocker Club are planning to give a large ball at the New Multnomah Hotel on February 19. Between 500 and 700 invitations will be issued for this dancing and dancing party. The committee in charge of the ball will be on the reception committee: Mrs. James Laidlaw, president of the league, chairman; Mrs. H. C. Bowers, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. J. W. Costello and Mrs. D. J. Mahar. Members of the Knights of Columbus who will be on the committee are: D. J. Mahar, R. J. Schloepel, Mrs. W. T. J. Patterson and P. E. Sullivan. Card tables will be arranged for those who do not care to dance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamont, of Seattle (Claude Hahn), have taken apartments at the Grafia Hotel in Washington, D. C. for the winter. Mrs. Lamont left Portland about a month ago, shortly after the wedding of her sister, Della Hahn, and Walter Gearin.

News comes from New York that Dr. and Mrs. Pelgram sailed January 8 on the Cronia for a winter cruise via the Mediterranean. They will stop at Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Genoa, Naples and France. Dr. and Mrs. Pelgram will arrive in London about the middle of the season, and will have a houseboat on the Thames. Among the many friends who have bid good-bye to the Pelgrams are the steamer salient Mrs. Elizabeth Sears and Ford Tarpley, of Portland. Dr. Pelgram is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Kahn (Miss Germaine Samuel) have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at 281 Twelfth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Kingsbury have given up their apartment in the Kingsbury. They will pass the remainder of the winter with Mrs. Kingsbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery G. Hall, at 714 Everett street.

The following clipping is from a San Francisco paper: "The wedding of Miss Albertine Detrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edington Detrick, Jr., to John Jerome Alexander, of Portland, will take place early in April. Definite plans for the wedding have not yet been made but the attractive bride-elect, who is being showered with social favors by her friends on both sides of the bay, the engagement of Miss Detrick to Mr. Alexander was announced last summer at the Detrick home at Berkeley. Mr. Alexander is engaged in business in the northern city, where he and his bride will make their home after an extended honeymoon trip. Miss Detrick is a cousin of Miss Ernestine McNear and Miss Marian Miller, of San Francisco. Her fiancé comes of a prominent Portland family. He formerly attended the University of California and is of the Chi Psi fraternity."

Mrs. M. Sichel was hostess at two bridge parties last week. At the first affair, Tuesday afternoon, card honors fell to Mrs. A. L. Hexter, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Julius Lippitt and Mrs. Carrie Harris. Later in the afternoon several additional guests called for tea. The fortunate contestants at the second bridge on Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Henry Metzger, Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer, Mrs. A. C. U. Berry and Mrs. Benjamin Neustader. Mrs. Clementine Hirsch and Miss Florence Kohn assisted Mrs. Sichel both afternoons.

Mrs. John Raymond Barber, her young son and daughter, and their sister, Miss Elizabeth Woodward, who have recently returned from the Philippines, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Barber.

The skating party given by the Campus Club at the Oaks rink Friday evening was a decided success. The patronesses for this affair were Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Robert S. Bean, Mrs. Dwight Edwards, and Mrs. J. Thatcher. On the committee were Robert Bean, Jr., Theodore Edwards, Herbert Thatcher, William A. Bibbe, Richard H. Grant, Arthur O. Merrick and Guy Perham. The rink was decorated gaily with varicolored pennants, and Chinese lanterns suspended from the ceiling threw a glow over the scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger were dinner hosts last Tuesday. Covers were laid for Miss Ida Hirsch, Miss Florence Kohn, Samuel Bissinger, Leopold Hirsch and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Russell E. Sewall was hostess at an informal luncheon Friday complimenting Miss Katherine Crawford, who is visiting Mrs. S. Chapman and Miss Florence Williams, of Seattle. The table was centered by pink carnations and the covers were marked by corsage bouquets of violets.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fenton returned last week from Honolulu. Mrs. Fenton will pass the remainder of the winter in California.

News has been received by Mrs. C. M. Meredith, who is distantly related to Hall Caine, that the distinguished novelist and playwright expects to leave England at once for a prolonged stay in the Engadine, walls in Europe last

OREGON CITY GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF PORTLAND MAN.

MR. AND MRS. BEQUEATH.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 20.—(Special).—A pretty home wedding took place in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel last Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Eulalia, was married to Lee H. Bequeath, of Portland. Rev. J. Landborough, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated. The house was decorated with carnations, Oregon grape and magnolia. The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Hazel Toomey, who wore Nile green chiffon over silk. The flower girl was Ruth Schuebel, who wore white. The best man was John Bell, of Los Angeles. Preceding the marriage ceremony Mrs. Leon Des Larzes sang, "Oh, Flower of All the World," and at the close Melvin Ogden, musical director of the Oregon Glee Club, of Eugene, played Lohengrin's wedding march. An atole was formed by six young women, who carried ropes of evergreens, these being Miss Evelyn Harding, Miss Louise Huntley, Miss Clara Mann, Miss V. Smith, Mrs. Charles Thomas and Miss Roberta Schuebel. The bride and groom, beneath a floral hower during the ceremony. A wedding breakfast was served after the marriage ceremony.

Summer, Mrs. Meredith and daughter Helen visited the noted writer at his Summer home, Greeba Castle, Isle of Man, where they were most hospitably entertained.

Mrs. James F. Kinder was hostess to the Thursday Club at her home at 221 East Twenty-first street, just off Hawthorne avenue. Her mother, Mrs. Canfield Marsh, assisted her in serving refreshments later. Guests included Mrs. L. Sahin, Mrs. A. Patterson and Mrs. Maurice Winter. Club members present were: Mrs. J. W. Holt, Mrs. Alice Cowell, Mrs. J. W. Holt, Mrs. A. Dinsmore, Mrs. F. J. McGottigan, Mrs. F. J. Schloepel, Mrs. W. B. Shively, Mrs. F. Dille and Mrs. S. O. Kranz.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Main at 221 Seventh street, near Mill street, February 1.

Miss Hildreth Humason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Humason, left Portland next Wednesday for a six months' trip to the East and Europe, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, and Miss Edith Waldo.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Summers, Jr., have returned from their wedding trip. They have taken an apartment on Ford street.

The Willamette Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held a meeting Wednesday at 2 P. M. at the residence of Mrs. Swart. The following officers were elected: Regent, Mrs. R. M. Cross; vice-regent, Mrs. George L. Brown; secretary, Mrs. A. W. Ingalls; treasurer, Miss Annie L. Adams; registrar, Mrs. E. F. Hitchcock; historian, Mrs. H. K. Ferris.

Mrs. Carrie R. Beaumont, the retiring regent, Mrs. E. A. Beals and Mrs. Warren Swart were elected to serve on the board of management. Mrs. Carrie R. Beaumont was elected by the Multnomah and Willamette chapters as state regent of Oregon, and Mrs. William M. Ladd was chosen state vice-regent.

Mrs. George H. Hill, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Gandy, and John, left several days ago for Southern California, to remain during the winter and spring. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chapman, with their children, will occupy the Hill residence at 255 Twelfth street.

GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the First Infantry Band, which will give a ball in the post gymnasium January 21. This will be the most brilliant social function ever given by the enlisted men of the post. It will be a full-dress affair, from 9 until 2 o'clock in the morning. Colonel George McGunagle, Commander of the post, and Mayor Charles S. Irwin, of Vancouver, have been asked to lead the grand march. The music for this march will be that of the composition of Chief Musician J. Feltrinelli, and is known as the Colonel McGunagle March, a general regimental march. Trumpeters and drummers will assist the 16-piece First Infantry Orchestra in playing this march. The Mayor and Council of Vancouver, the Elks of Portland and of Vancouver, the Portland and Vancouver Commercial Clubs, besides the officers and women of the post, have all been invited to attend.

During an intermission, Frank E. Hennessy, of Portland, will sing. In the special dances, "Carmelitas" and the "Jamboree" of Vancouver, societies of young women, have been remembered, and the Elks' Waltz for 1912 will be played.

General Marion P. Maus, accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Lieutenant E. G. McCleave, left yesterday for Yakima, Or., on a trip of inspection of the Coast at that point.

The young daughter of Colonel and Mrs. E. F. McGunagle, when riding Friday, was thrown to the ground. She was not seriously injured.

Eugene Fales, son of Captain Henry M. Fales, has heard that the Senate has confirmed his appointment as Second Lieutenant and he is awaiting his commission from President Taft.

A farewell reception for Colonel and Mrs. James S. Rogers, and Captain and Mrs. Henry M. Fales, will be held Tuesday evening at the Officers' club rooms, from 9 until 11 o'clock. There will be dancing and refreshments. Colonel and Mrs. Rogers expect to leave Wednesday for Honolulu, where he will assume command of the Second Infantry. Captain Fales is to go to Manila, January 23, to join his regiment, to which he has been assigned, since being promoted.

Lieutenant Joseph C. Hatlie, of the First Infantry, has been granted a leave of absence of 45 days and he left yesterday for his former home in New York City.

Mrs. John R. Thomas, Jr., wife of Captain Thomas, Post Adjutant, entertained at luncheon Thursday afternoon. Covers were laid for nine. They were Mrs. Edgar H. Yule, and her guests, Mrs. F. D. Eby, Mrs. A. H. Bishop, Mrs. E. F. McGunagle, Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, and her guest, Mrs. A. L. H. Davies. Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer, Miss Isabel McGunagle and Mrs. Thomas.

The rumor that the First Infantry may not be sent to the Philippines has aroused considerable excitement here, as many would welcome an order to go elsewhere, as the regiment has seen much service in the Islands. It is reported semi-officially that Major-General Leonard Wood, in Washington, D. C., has said that the First Infantry will not go to the Islands, or to Panama. There is a possibility that it will be ordered to Honolulu. Orders have been received to go to Parang, Mindinao, Philippine Islands, and unless another order is received, the command will go from Portland, March 5.

Mrs. A. H. Bishop, wife of Lieutenant Bishop, has returned from Monterey, Cal., where her husband has been attending the School of Musketry course. Lieutenant Bishop is now receiving treatment in a hospital, but it is expected that he will return here in a short time.

The women of the post have Monday afternoon to skate in the gymnasium, for practice. The young people of the post skate Wednesday evenings, with music by the First Infantry Band.

SILVERFIELD'S DEPENDABLE FURS

This name stands for the standard of dependable, stylish and most-wanted models in correct Furs. The satisfaction of buying reliable, dependable Furs such as we offer, is only appreciated after a personal investigation. You will then be convinced of the superiority of our Furs.

This is Positively the Last Week of This Sale

The One Great Opportunity of a Lifetime

Fur Coats Shawls, Scarfs and Muffs

Highest Price Paid for Raw Furs FOURTH AND MORRISON

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The young people of the Universalist Church were entertained at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger in Irvington on Tuesday evening. A company of 25 enjoyed the gracious hospitality of these delightful hosts. The music of Dr. and Mrs. George Warden added much to the enjoyment of the evening. The guests included Miss Marion Phillips, Miss Mary Wheeler, Mr. A. W. Watkins, Mr. Mark Daniels, Miss A. Baxter, Miss Agnes Phillips, Mr. H. I. Bowles, Misses Ruth and Esther Gridley, Mr. C. Porter, Mrs. Florence Hand, Miss Gladys Wiggins, Mr. E. Ray Duncan, Miss Sylvia Phillips, Mr. Fay Gridley, Dr. and Mrs. George Warden and Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Dimond Corby and Miss Muriel Ford. The happy social life of the young people of this parish, which supplements the devotional, makes it attractive to the young men and women of Irvington and Holladay.

The February, 1912, graduating class of Washington High School is much pleased with the success of the play, "One of the Eight," which was presented under the direction of Miss Schives in the high school auditorium, January 12 and 13. The large assembly hall was crowded Friday and Saturday. The play, which concerns the experience of Henry Brooks, a country lad attending college, is clever in lines and situation, and the amateur actors received much credit for their intelligent interpretations of the characters.

The music was furnished by the High School Orchestra under the direction of Paul Wilson. The play was a financial as well as dramatic success, and the proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the class lens, which promises to be one of the best papers yet published at Washington High school.

Miss Madge Cramer entertained a number of her friends at her home, 525 Sixth street, on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 P. M. The game of the afternoon was "five hundred." Delicious refreshments were served by the Misses Cramer.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Kate Kelly and Miss Kate D. Porter. Those present were: Mrs. Kate Kelly, Miss Frances G. Porter, Miss Etta O. Bailey, Miss Anna V. Casebeer, Miss Kate D.

Porter, Miss Laura A. Peterson, Miss Helen K. Crane, Miss Madge Hill, Miss Ruth Dune, Miss Margaret Eade, Miss Tressa Spencer, Miss Goldie Grisom, Miss Irene Jones, Miss Jessie Nicholson.

Mrs. William Norton entertained members of the younger set at her home, 1922 East Alder street, Saturday evening, in honor of the 17th birthday of her daughter, Nadine. Games and music formed the entertainment of the evening. Those present were: Misses Rose Morin, Wauwata Koth, Georgia Smith, Lillian Olson, Evelyn Carlson, Ruth Norton, Lou Speyer, Bertha Pollock, George Peterson, Cecil Nazy, Audrey Norton, Alice Berger, Pauline Norton, Elma Mills, Messrs. Jack Odom, Carol Morrison, Jack Le Monte, Harvey Verschuik, Harold Demmon, Frank Clay, William Lucas, Ed Hand, Allie Wallis, Dean Norton, Raymond Nazy and Wayne Devoney.

Winslow Meade Circle No. 7, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, installed the following officers Monday by Past Department President Mrs. A. M. Hines: President, Mrs. Abraham; senior vice-president, Mrs. Neuberger; junior vice-president, Mrs. Scheer.

(Continued on Page 4.)

Fine Furs AND FUR GARMENTS—FOR LESS

Coats Our entire assortment of ELEGANT MODELS in all the LEADING RELIABLE FURS—CUT THE LIEBES WAY—AT 1/4 Off

Approved Styles and Excellent Workmanship.

An Assortment Universally Acknowledged to be the Leader

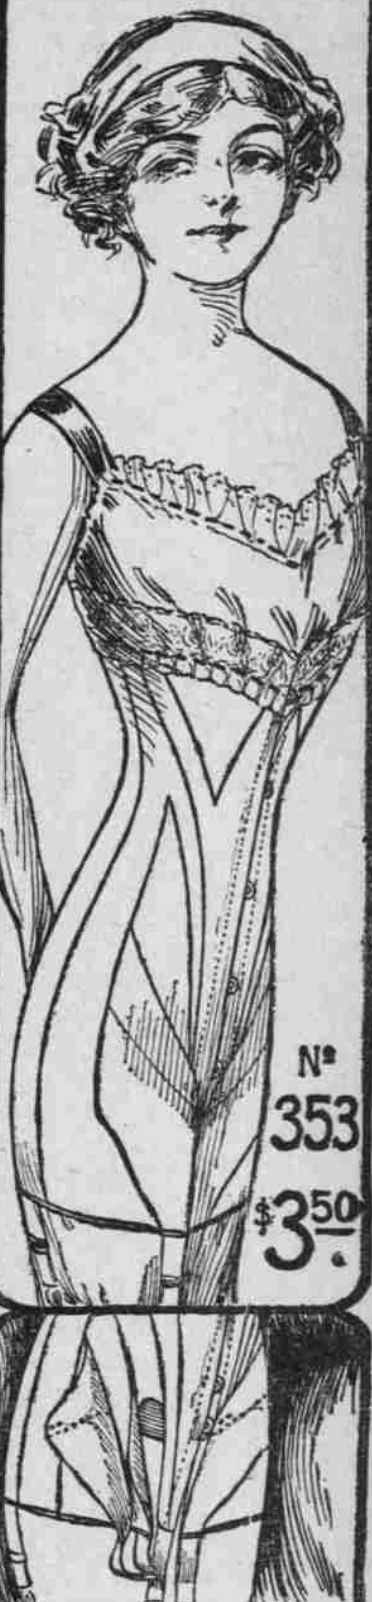

20% DISCOUNT FUR NECKWEAR, FUR MUFFS, FUR SETS, SNAPPY, STYLISH IDEAS in this season's most favored FURS embracing everything from the more costly to the most modestly priced piece. EACH AND EVERY PIECE CARRY THE MAKERS' GUARANTEE

H. LIEBES & CO.

J. P. PLAGEMANN, Mgr. Corbett Building MANUFACTURING FURRIERS 288 Morrison St Raw Furs Wanted—Highest Market Price Paid for Prime Pelts

This Corset not only makes you LOOK smaller, but actually drives away the fat, so that you ARE smaller

ACHIEVEMENT SALE of Nemo AUTO-MASSAGE SELF-REDUCING CORSETS

No. 353 $3.50 No. 354 $3.50

DEAR MADAM: You have quickly adopted this latest Nemo invention—the "Auto-Massage Self-Reducing Corset"—so now you have another and very useful friend in the Nemo family.

We don't blame you for having doubted our claim that this corset actually reduces the size and weight of your figure; but now you believe—for the corset has "made good."

You need never question any statement we make. "Nemo" always stands for 100 per cent. truth.

These new corsets, Nos. 353 and 354, would be wonderful figure-shaping corsets even if they hadn't the auto-massage feature.

Though only $3.50, they are really in the $5.00 class, as corset-values go.

No. 353 low bust $3.50 No. 354 medium

Note the very long skirt—it gives you superb slender style when you stand, but you have lots of room when you sit down; and the corset can't bind or ride up.

In Good Stores Everywhere KOPS BROS., Mfrs., New York

WATCH FOR BIG SALE B. SALL THE LADIES' TAILOR, 411 MORRISON STREET New Baker Theater.

S. H. SCHWARTZ EXCLUSIVE Ladies' Tailor AND HAITT MAKER, NOW LOCATED AT 423 FLIEDNER BUILDING, Marshall 2377.

W. G. SMITH & CO.

THIRD FLOOR WASHINGTON BUILDING BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH ON N WASHINGTON STREET.