CHARMING WOMEN LIFE OF WALLINGFORD PLAY

Rose Curry, Marjorie Foster, Florence Dunlap and Lois Burnette Carry Leading Roles in Drama.

Rose Curry, who appears as "The Stenographer in "Get Rich Quick Wallingford"

ALTHOUGH in writing the drama "Get-Rich - Quick Wallingford," George M. Cohan has departed from the path of musical comedy, which he has heretofore trodden, he has shown, in the selection of the cast for this play, that he is a firm believer in the drawing qualities of good-looking women, no less in straight than in musical comedy. One of the 24 parts in "Get - Rich - Quick Wallingford," which is coming to the Heilig Theater for four nights beginning Sunday, four roles require young women, and these are as attractive in appearance as they are excellent in their respective portrayals.

Rose Curry, who plays the part of the hotel stenographer, and afterwards Wallingford's secretary, is one of the most charming of the younger leading women, and is a pure type of Irish beauty. It was for this reason that Chauncey Olcott selected her as his leading woman in his Irish plays. She made her first stage debut as a child with Joseph Jefferson, and her last appearance before joining the "Wallingford" cast was as leading woman for Wilton Lackeye.

Marjorie Foster, who is seen as Dorothy Welles, the girl with whom Blackie Daw falls in love, was starred a few years ago on the coast in "The Road to Yesterday," and was seen here last with William H. Crane in "Father and the Boys." She is of a decided ingenue type, blonde and petite.

Florence Dunlap, who has the part of Bessie Meers, the head waitress of the country hotel, is of the statuesque type. She is a clever comedienne, having appeared with May Irwin, Marie Dressler and other dramatic and musical comedy stars. She is delicious as the haughty, slangy, empress of the rural eating parlor.

Lois Burnette, who plays the part of the landlord's daughter, is a Western girl, born and bred amid the Rocky Mountains, and is a true type of the dark-eyed, black-haired, rosy-cheeked daughter of the land of the setting sun.

RELIEF FUND DWINDLES

Efforts to Be Made to Have Council Appropriate $5000 More.

Efforts will be made to get the City Council to appropriate $5000 more to the city relief fund, which is being expended in the building of a driveway through Mount Tabor Park, so that the work can be completed this year. Park Superintendent Mische reported to Mayor Rushlight yesterday that nearly $9000 out of the $10,000 appropriated by the Council in December for the building of the driveway and the relief of the unemployed has been spent and that $5000 more will be necessary to complete the work.

The driveway is to be 8800 feet long and 32 feet wide. The stretch has been cleared of all timber and before the $10,000 is exhausted the work of grading will be about two-thirds completed. Superintendent Mische had estimated that the work if let by contract would cost $15,000, and says the cost will be no greater under the day labor scheme, which was adopted, to furnish work at small wages for the unemployed.

There is an average of more than 50 men at work every day. Some days the number falls very low because of the opening up of other kinds of labor in the city, but on other days the number increases, when stormy weather causes the other classes of work to shut down.

Works Rapidly and Safely — Requires No Exercising and Allows You to Eat What You Like—Cut This Out.

For the benefit of those who wish to reduce their flesh quickly and safely, we will give the recipe and directions in full for a simple household remedy that can be obtained at trifling cost from any good drug store: ½ ounce Marmola, ½ ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3½ ounces Peppermint Water. All three are cheap and wholesome, but you should take care to get an unbroken package so that you get Marmola and not a substitute. When you get home mix the three together by shaking them together in a large bottle and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Follow these directions and you will have the best fat reducer that money can buy. It will take off the flesh at the rate of at least two pounds a week without disarranging the stomach or causing wrinkles, while, best of all, no exercising or dieting is required to help it out. You can get results and at the same time take things easy, and eat what you like—as much as you like—and whenever you like.
