

TAFT POINTS OUT EXTREMIST PERIL

Real Progressives Are Not Socialists, Says President in Chicago.

CALM ACTION DESIRABLE

Absence of Motive for Labor and Saving Declared to Be Defect of Reforms That Would Destroy Property Rights.

CHICAGO, March 9.—President Taft tonight gave a new definition of a "political progressive," in a speech at the banquet of the Swedish-American Republican League of Chicago.

Term "Progressive" Defined. "The term 'progressive,' said the President, 'includes all of those who have been moved to efforts of reform by the necessity for legislative and governmental action to deprive corporate capital and undue vested privilege of its political power and to bring about proper popular and governmental control and regulation of the use of capital in legitimate avenues and for legitimate purposes.'

"An Administration which has been successfully progressive in deed is entitled to the approval of the people. The present Republican Administration in what it has accomplished in executive and legislative action is able to point to many real steps of progress both in the way of avoiding unnecessary disturbances of business in the way of regulating corporate capital and preventing its abuses, and in the preservation for the public of what belongs to it, as well as in ameliorating the legal status of certain classes of the people, and in increasing the functions of the Government for the benefit of the whole people.

Motive Would Be Destroyed. "The 'progressive' movement has assumed the character of a crusade, and many radical remedies were suggested, the carrying out of which would only be less destructive than the threatened fatal course of the disease.

"The growth of Socialism in this country is a noteworthy incident in showing the extreme to which many would go in the solution of the problem which I am discussing.

"The faculty of every Socialistic scheme which destroys the right of property for the uplift of humanity is that it is impossible to find a sufficiently strong motive for labor or for savings. Without this, the wealth of the world could not increase to meet the demands for a higher standard of living and increased physical happiness of the growing population.

"The banquet was given in commemoration of the 10th anniversary of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack, and the President referred to that first fight of the ironclads as a sort of starting point for a political speech.

People Roused to Action.

"There is nothing more inspiring in the history of the world than the story of the achievements of the Republican party since the Monitor received her baptism of fire."

Mr. Taft pointed out that the "progressive" movement practically began with the present century. Two decades of enormous expansion of the industrial and commercial life of the United States up to 1890, he declared, were responsible for encroachments of "big business" in the field of politics, and finally he pointed to the present situation, where encroachments must be stopped and legislation must be enacted that would hold in restraint corporate and vested interests. He said that the "progressive" movement cannot be overestimated. It put the people on guard in every state and in every community.

Corporation Laws Already Passed. "The anti-trust law and the interstate commerce act to control interstate corporations both were passed some time before," said Mr. Taft.

"But," he continued, "the first step, and the most important, was the stirring of the people to the entrance of the crisis that they had to meet, and the obstacles they had to overcome." In conclusion the President pointed to the acts of his own Administration to prove its progressiveness. He said in part: "Under the Jeffersonian idea, it was thought the least government of many minds was the best and that the more nearly the functions of the Government were confined to the administration of justice and to the enforcement of law, the better the state under present conditions there are many functions that the Government can more effectively and more economically perform than private enterprises and in this way the individuals among the people may derive greater benefit from the government provision for the legislative discharge of such functions by the Government is progressive.

Bitterness Will Pass. "There were many who were not socialists, but who saw in the present structure of our Government, and especially in the checks and balances intended by the framers of our Constitution to secure deliberation and calm action on the part of the people, a real obstruction in the reforms that were deemed necessary in order to maintain the proper control of capital and corporate privilege by popular will and to secure equality and opportunity.

"Progressives of this stripe attained a great popular support and were able, for a time at least, to give the impression that others who were equally imbued with the necessity for reform

AMERICANS HOPE ROJAS WILL LEAVE

Juarez Business Men Anxious to Have Rebel General Sent South.

BANK LOOT TOTALS $10,000

Increased Resentment Is Shown Following the Robbery of Mexican Government's Financial Vaults Near Border.

EL PASO, Tex., March 9.—If General Orozco, chief of the rebels in Mexico, fulfills his promise of ordering General Antonio Rojas, commander of the Juarez garrison, to join the southern campaign, it is asserted generally that he will have the gratitude of most of the Juarez business men, many of whom are Americans with interests on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande.

Rojas' latest exploit of calmly looting the Juarez branch of the Mexican National Bank has greatly increased resentment on both sides of the river. According to the most accurate versions obtainable of various details of the story, Rojas, when placed in command at Juarez, instructed the manager of the branch bank, E. Fernandez Alonso, not to move any money from the bank. Most of the valuables already had been spirited away, but more remained than Senor Alonso cared to "contribute."

General Salazar scarcely had left for the south last Sunday, leaving General Rojas in charge, when report was common and insistent that the bank would be robbed. Finally General Rojas unhesitatingly placed a guard around the bank, but despite this guard the work of opening the vault began Thursday and was completed last night.

Wednesday General Rojas was engaged busily in holding a court martial to discover the culprit or culprits who had started reports that the bank would be robbed. It was reported today that last night a well known American saw him counting the money taken from the vault.

According to Senor Alonso the booty aggregated 20,000 pesos, which is equivalent to about $10,000 in American gold. To some interviewers today he said he knew nothing of any robbery; to others he said the funds belonged to the government and that he was the proper custodian.

Manager's House Robbed. After the work at the bank was completed by means of crowbars and pickaxes, Senor Alonso's Juarez home was robbed and the loot came to $1,000. He was dispatched a telegram from the Spanish Minister at Mexico City, protesting against the outrage.

General Rojas has extended in other serious instances. He has seized lumber, flour and other goods belonging to foreigners after the latter had obtained permits for shipment or storage from Colonel Ponce.

A special dispatch from Chihuahua tonight said that Orozco sent another troop train in the direction of Jimenez tonight and that his mechanists were trying to fashion a field piece.

The chief of the agents of President Madero, now in this city, says that the rebel forces will reach Jimenez, their present ostensible objective, much less Torreon. He says that Orozco will be compelled to fight soon very near Chihuahua. The insurgents who surround him will be driven back by a superior force from the City of Mexico and will find detachments from Ojinaga and Madera, and other cities, and General Pancho Villa in his rear.

BANDITS ROB FOREIGNERS

Americans in Culiacan Valley Organize for Self-Protection.

TUCSON, Ariz., March 9.—Hopeless of Government aid against the bandit marauding as an insurrection, who surround them on all sides, United States citizens in the Culiacan Valley, on the West Coast of Mexico, have sent their women and children to the United States, are concentrating to protect themselves against attack.

From the vicinity of Mazatlan come reports of bold robberies and the murder of a United States citizen, a force of rurales under Eduardo Felix has been operating against the bandits, but so far has been unable to cope with the situation.

At Guadalupe de Los Reyes, a town in the state of Sinaloa, 25 federalists under Norberto Rochin, the jefe politico, beat off a force of rebels estimated at 100 men. Four of Rochin's men were wounded.

STEAMSHIPS CUT RATES

WATER FREIGHTS FALL WITH REDUCTION BY RAIL.

San Francisco-Los Angeles Business Benefited to Extent of 10 or 15 Per Cent.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—(Special.)—The Pacific Coast Steamship Company today announced a cut of from 10 to 15 per cent in the freight rates by water between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The North Pacific Steamship Company will make a similar reduction in its rates between the ports in reducing the Southern Pacific Railway rates between San Pedro and Los Angeles and the new rate will save shippers by the steamship lines a reduction equal to the cut made by the Railroad Commission.

The steamship companies were not hurt by the ruling of the Railroad Commission to reduce their rates. The cut will be from 40 cents to 60 cents a ton. The present rate of $2.50 will be cut to $2. The rate on canned goods and on all first-class articles will be reduced 60 cents a ton. First-class freight in less than carload lots will be reduced from 2 1/2 cents per 100 pounds to 4 1/2 cents. The cut in freight for first class will be from $4.50 a ton to $2.50.

Morgan Must Pay Heavy Duty. NEW YORK, March 9.—J. P. Morgan will have to pay a large sum of money in duties on the art collection which he is now bringing from abroad in spite of the law recently passed to exempt works of art over 100 years old and paintings over 20 years old.

MAN KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Alaskan Shoots Admirer of Spouse in Triple Tragedy Over Parting.

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 9.—Paul Barch, 48, unexpectedly returning to Douglas today to seek a reconciliation with his 19-year-old wife from whom he had been absent a month because of a quarrel, found her in her home with Louis Sekulich, of whom he was jealous.

Barch at once shot and killed his wife and then shot Sekulich and supposed that he had killed him. He then barricaded himself in the attic of the house and shouted to persons in the street that he was about to kill himself. A Deputy Marshal broke open the door of the attic and at the same time Barch shot himself four times.

He died half an hour later in a hospital, with a smile of satisfaction on his face. He was permitted to believe that he had slain Sekulich, although the latter is still alive.

The Barch baby toddled about the floor of the house during the tragedy. All the principals were Austrians.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The House appointed a committee today to investigate alleged scurrilous language regarding President Taft, Senator Root and others, put in the Congressional Record by Representative Aiken, Independent, of New York, under "leave to print."

Aiken alluded to the President as having failed to make good a promise regarding appointments of postmasters; accused Senator Root, Cyrus Durey and Louis N. Littlebauer of furnishing reflections on Mr. Aiken, and charged that Paymaster Ray of the Army had been shielded by President Taft for a political debt.

The request for the investigation, presented by Representative Foster, Democrat, of Illinois, was adopted unanimously. Throughout the denunciation of his action, Mr. Aiken, standing in the center aisle of the House, said nothing.
