Thomas McCusker Declares Pinchot Makes Statements Inconsistent With Facts and Points Out Discrepancies.

In a 750-word telegram from Amos Pinchot, Gifford Pinchot, William Kent and Medill McCormick, active Roosevolt partisans at Washington, D. C., to Dan Kellaher, of this city, charges by Walter L. Houser, National campaign manager for Senator La Follette, that Roosevelt double-crossed the Wisconsin man, are emphatically de-

Contained in the telegram are fur Contained in the telegram are further declarations which are plainly calculated to qualify La Foliette's manager for membership in the Ananias Ciub, without the need of further credentials. The Pinchot telegram was made public yesterday by F. W. Mulkey, who is in charge of the Roosevelt campaign in this state.

The telegram sets out that Roosevelt did not enter the race for the Presidid not enter the race for the Presi-dency until after Houser had assured Pinchot and his associates at the time La Follette suffered a physical col-lapse early in February, that the Wis-consin Senator should withdraw as a candidate for the reason that Roose-velt was the only man who could hold the progressives together.

La Follette's Statement Figures. It makes the further allegation that It makes the further allegation that Houser, on February 5, exhibited to Pinchot and Rooseveit's friends, a type-written announcement by La Follette of his withdrawal from the race. This announcement is alleged to have included a provision by which the supporters of La Follette were specifically released from supporting him longer, and at the same time were advised to and at the same time were advised to "go to any candidate through whom, in their judgment, the progressive cause would best be advanced."

Thomas McCusker, manager of the La Follette campaign in Oregon, last night declared that the Pinchot tele-gram made representations altogether inconsistent with the facts as they were known to Senator La Foilette. McCusker, Houser and others. Fur-McCusker, Houser and others. Furthermore, he asserted that the contents of the message were at variance with the press reports reviewing the political situation and published at the time of the alleged conference, when it is contended La Foliette agreed to withdraw as a candidate. Mr. McCusker characterizes the telegram as an 11thur attempted explanation to holster the waning cause of Roosevelt and the same time, if possible, to present me slight justification for the abrupt entrance of the ex-President into the Presidential contest.

This is not true. So far as we know every message or communication sent from Senator La Follette's headquarters to Colonel Roosevelt, or carried from Colonel Roosevelt to Senatur La Follette's headquarters, was made to Gilson Gardner, who has already in a widely-published letter pointed out that Mr. Houser's acting to was made to disson tharder, who has already in a widely-published letter pointed out that Mr. Houser's estimates are not in accordance with the fact, or to one of us, or in our presence. Puthermore, Colonel Roosevelt has at all times made it perfeetly clear that he would not bind himself to refuse the nomination if it were offered to him. These statements were correctly repeated by us to Mr. Houser at the La Follette headquarters and there was no possibility of misunderstanding Mr. Roosevelt's position.
"Mr. Houser has wandered so far from the facts that he appears to have forgotten that among Senator La Fol-lette's supporters and advisors he was one of the first to urge that in the interests of the progressive movement Senator La Foliette should withdraw in favor of Colonel Roosevelt. This he did repeatedly in the presence of many Conference With Houser.

"On the night when Senator La Fol-lette was starting for his mid-Winter Western trip. Mr. Houser met William Kent, Gifford Pinchot, Amos Pinchot and Medill McCormick at the latter's apartment in Washington. He then stated that in his opinion the only way stated that in his opinion the only way to keep the progressives together and prevent Taft's nomination was for La Follette to abandon his own candidacy and throw his influence and organization to Colonel Roosevelt, if the Colonel would consent to become a candidate.
"Mr. Houser said that Senator La

convention with more than a corporal's

On Monday, January 29, at a conference at the La Follette headquarters. Mr. Houser repeated these statements in the presence of the undersigned and others. first consolidation of the justice district was effected. He served for one term, declining renomination. In 1898 Mr. Geisler was nominated to the office of City Attorney, being, however, defeated by the factional division of the Republican party.

Mr. Geisler is at present actively engaged in the practice of law, with offices in the Henry building. His public life has demonstrated that he has a mind of his own and will carry out his idea of justice "in scorn of consequence," as shown by the following instance: While Justice in 1895, though dependent upon fees for his compensation, he put a stop to a useless and very expensive moral wave roundup by refusing to accept as sufficient mere testimony of common fame, unsupported by evidence of a specific instance. Again, while attorney in the case of State vs. Mulier, the latter having been arrested for violating the statute prescribing that "no female shall be employed in any laundry. In this state more than ten hours during one day." his client desired him to defend on the ground of unconstitutionality of the act. This Mr. Geisler declined to do, and received permission to withdraw as counsel on the ground that the could not agree with the contention of his client nor his associate counsel, and aiso on the breader ground that the act was a wholesome one, which, for moral reasons, should not be defeated. and also on the broader ground that the act was a wholesome one, which, for moral reasons, should not be defeated. Mr. Geisler's view in this case was that taken by all the courts, including finally the United States Supreme Court, to which the question of constitutionality had been appealed.

the announcement was, as he explained, to give a little time for private measures to be sent to the La Follette managers so as to give them an opportunity to transfer their organizations to Colonel Rooseveit.

will conduct the Assessor's office according to law. No juggling with the assessment rolls: will make the Assessor's office an open book to the taxpayers. No star-chamber proceedings go with me. Multnomah County assessments have been increased at the rate of nearly 30 per cent a year since 1904. The tax rate was $1.48 per $100 of assessed value in 1905, and this year it is $2.44. Assessments climb year after year, and the tax rate climbs with them. The tax burden falls heavily upon all classes of people, but heaviest upon the little homeowner. I think the time has come to investigate these heavy increases and see what justifies them. What do you think? I believe in economy in public expenses, but not in parsimony. We eannot tax ourselves rich, but we can tax ourselves poor. Therefore, I am opposed to excessive increases in assessments and excessive taxes. If you believe as I do, vote for me in the primaries on April 19.
