

T. Honeyman, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mrs. William S. Biddle.
Cast—Miss Cornelia Cook, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Marjorie Hoffmann, Miss Polly Hewitt, Mrs. Harry Latt, Miss Jean Brownlie, Miss Mildred Jesselyn, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Laura Cummings, Miss Geraldine Spotted, Miss Smith, Miss Behrendse, Lester Hodson, William Wheeler, Richard Jones, Dudley Clark, Lewis McArthur, Blake Robbins, Mr. Baldwin, Howard R. Honeyman.

Mrs. Morris Palmer, who is visiting her. The other guests were: Mrs. S. M. Meaz, Mrs. R. C. Washburn, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Russell Sewall, Mrs. Walter White, Mrs. Arthur McComb, Mrs. George Beach, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mrs. Frank Ransom, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. T. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Clyde H. Heade, Mrs. E. C. Giltner, Mrs. Ambrose Scott, Miss Schacht, Miss Ransom and Miss Judith Scott.
Formerly one of the box parties of the week at the Orpheum was Mr. and Miss Elizabeth Peacock, Miss Ruth Fralley, Miss Barbara Macey, Miss Louise Caswell, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Grace Rosenthal, Miss Katherine Twomey, Miss Cornelia Cook, soloist.

San Francisco to live, Mrs. Winthrop Hammond entertained at bridge for her Wednesday. Assisting the hostess were Misses Helen Whitney and Dorothy Worcester. At cards the first score was held by Mrs. W. D. Lewis; the second by Mrs. Walter Warren, and the honor prize, a basket of violets and jonquils, was given Mrs. Quinn.
The other players were: Mrs. W. H. Mercereau, Mrs. C. F. Bunker, Mrs. Furbeck, Mrs. George Hyland, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. E. D. Whitney.

Special For Monday
One Silver Deposit Lemon Plate and Sterling Silver Lemon Fork, $1.65
Regular price $2.50.

Easter Sale of Women's Sample Novelty Suits Sample Party Dresses

If you have any Easter Clothes wants to supply, you should take advantage of this sale. A number of timely and very unusual purchases from America's most representative makers was secured by our Mr. Worrell, who is now in New York, and we have just received them in time for Easter. The items mentioned below forecast what an unusual buying event this really is.

Ladies' Novelty Suits

in fancy mixtures, the season's most pronounced and accepted styles. The assortment is extensive and varied enough to please everyone.

- $25.00 Novelty Suits at $19.85
$35.00 Novelty Suits at $24.95
$40.00 Novelty Suits at $29.85
$50.00 Novelty Suits at $34.95

Handsome Party Dresses

in all the new styles and designs, many duplicates of French models. The prices we quote on these Dresses are unquestionably the greatest values ever offered.

- $35.00 Dresses at $24.95
$20.00 Dresses at $14.95

Tailored Serge Dresses

Here's a special that will surely create spirited buying:

- $12.00 Serge Dresses at $6.95

"SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY'S PRICE"

WORRELL'S SAMPLE CLOAKS AND SUITS

32-134 Sixth Street, Corner Alder, Opposite Oregonian Building

REALTY DEALER WEDS VANCOUVER HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER

Miss Mattie Leavitt and M. C. Reed were married Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal Church, the pastor, Rev. Benjamin Young, D. D., officiating. Later they left for a wedding trip and will return to Vancouver, Wash., for a while, but intend making Portland their home in the near future.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. J. J. Leavitt and is a graduate of Willamette University. She took the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the University of Washington and has been teaching in the Vancouver High School. Mr. Reed is manager of a Portland realty company and a member of the Clivo Federation of Oregon and a member of the National executive committee of the United States Progressive League. He was formerly cashier of the Bremerton Bank.

mother, Mrs. J. Sallis, has returned to her home in Seattle.
One of the brides-elect who is coming in for an unusual amount of attention is Miss Ethel Honeyman. For her, Miss Judith Scott entertained Tuesday. Another afternoon was given to Miss Honeyman Thursday, with Mrs. Curtis Sargent as hostess. Entertaining for her Friday was Mrs. Percy Blanchard.

card evenings of the week, their taking place Friday at their home in Hawthorne Addition. There were four parties of 40 and prizes, tell to Mrs. J. R. Bowie and J. J. Reid. The other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dinmore, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Drake and Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Patrick.

The inactivity of the dull Lenten season was broken by an attractive party given Saturday afternoon by Miss Sadie Lu Knapp at her home on East Burdick street, in honor of Miss Jessie Harkins. Bridge was played at eight tables. Soon after receiving score cards, the guests discovered hidden announcements of the engagement of Miss Harkins to be married to Harry Van Alst, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The decorations were in pink, and in addition to the prize corsage bouquets of pink sweet peas were favors to the guests.

No announcement of the date of the wedding was made.
The invitations list included: Miss Jessie Harkins, Mrs. Henry Adix, Mrs. Oliver King Jeffrey, Miss Alice Doughty, Mrs. A. A. Applawhite, Miss Hazel Reed, Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, Mrs. J. A. Dowling, Miss Geraldine Coursen, Miss Judith Scott, Miss Josephine Stapleton, Mrs. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Camilla Herz, Mrs. H. E. Lounsbury, Mrs. C. E. Stolte, Mrs. George McMath, Mrs. Ben Morrow, Mrs. Arthur Barendrick, Mrs. A. J. Stewart, Mrs. W. E. Spencer, W. A. Trimble, K. A. Wyckoff, P. W. Williams, Leslie Werschul, P. C. Yates and the Misses Zeila Stevenson, Harriette Brown, Eva Cable, Bessie Robinson and Florence Lewis.

One of the showers for a bride-elect was given by Mrs. D. O. Lively Wednesday to compliment Miss Ethel Honeyman. Handkerchiefs were the shower gifts and at bridge later Miss Clara Fiedler captured the prize. Guests were: Mrs. Ambrose B. Scott, Mrs. Percy W. Blanchard, Mrs. Carroll Hurlbert, Mrs. Elwood Hensherb, Mrs. Arthur Kerron, Mrs. Frederick Hartman, Mrs. J. C. Harrington, Mrs. Edward P. Baird, Miss Judith Scott and Miss Agnes McIntosh.

Mrs. Owen Summers (Mildren Morgan) entertained last Thursday afternoon for Miss Dorothy Hour, who will leave soon for her home in Chicago, after several months' visit here. Bridge was played. Guests were: Miss Dorothy Bour, Miss Edna Minsinger, Miss Josephine Rogers, Miss Dorothy Moulton, Miss Dorothea Wagner, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Vona Guthrie, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Frances Madsen, Katherine Whitner, Miss Ruth Small, Miss Irene Daly, Miss Kate Brasel, Miss Lucille Dunne, Miss Margaret Webster, Miss Irene Allen, Miss Emma Kiesterman, Miss Margaret Bates, Miss Mary Monks and Miss Louise Poulson; Mrs. F. D. Butler, Mrs. R. Noonan, Miss Geraldine Coursen.

Later other friends called in for tea.
Miss Laura Korrell entertained informally Friday with five tables of bridge for Miss Henrietta Rothchild, who leaves soon for a trip abroad, and Miss Mary Otten, a recent bride-elect. Miss Rothchild will be accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rothchild, for a trip to Europe.

Mrs. George S. Whiteside entertained Wednesday. Her event was informal bridge, there being three tables. Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. Otis B. Wight and Miss Eleanor Gile held the winning scores.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metschan held a family dinner at the Imperial Hotel in the Elizabethan room, Sunday night, the occasion also commemorating the birthday anniversaries of the host and his son, Phil Metschan, Jr. At the other covers were: Mrs. Phil Metschan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Metschan, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Metschan, Miss Lillian Metschan, Miss Annie Biesen, Mrs. Valenka Everaush, Mrs. Emma Kiesterman, Miss Anna Metschan, all three of whom came from Tacoma for the event, Mr. and Mrs. P. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Griffith, Mrs. Misses Gertrude, D. Sutherland and M. V. Sutherland, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. C. Neill (Pansy Sweetser), of San Rafael, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Gottschalk, of Canyon City; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Metschan and Frank Metschan, of Grants Pass; Phil Tobin and Frank Tobin, of Winnemucca, Nev.; Miss Metschan, Phil Metschan, third, and the Misses Marie, Jeanette, Dorothy, Phyllis and Susan Metschan.

MARX & BLOCH
283 Morrison Street

Watch for our weekly specials; they are money-savers. We offer only good and useful articles, in order to advertise our up-to-date Silverware Department.

The First Infantry band is giving daily concerts on the infantry parade grounds and the music is attracting many persons from Vancouver and Portland. The concerts are given at 3:30 o'clock every afternoon, including Sunday. The programme given yesterday, under the leadership of Joseph Feltwell, was: March, "The Columbian"; overture, "Sunshine and Flowers"; waltz, "Our Wedding Day"; Idyl, "Softly, Unawares"; selection, "A Waltz Dream"; descriptive, "Charge of the Light Brigade." The First Infantry band took first prize of all military bands in the Department of the Columbia in Tacoma two years ago.

Captain and Mrs. Alfred Aloe and son, Robert, who have been in El Paso, Tex., for several months, returned Wednesday, after having passed a few weeks in California, in Pas Robles, San Francisco and other points.

Major Edward F. McGlachlin, of the Second Field Artillery, left yesterday for the School of Fire, at Fort Sill, Okla. Captain A. B. Warfield is now the highest ranking officer in the Second Field Artillery, so will succeed him in command of the batteries here.

Lieutenant and Mrs. I. J. Phillipson gave an informal party in their quarters Tuesday night, after the hop at the Officers' Club. The guests were Captain and Mrs. John E. Thomas, Jr., Lieutenant Seth W. Scofield, Lieutenant John M. True and Lieutenant James A. Ullo. Thursday night Lieutenant and Mrs. Phillipson entertained General and Mrs. Marlon P. Maus, Major and Mrs. Edward F. McGlachlin, Major and Mrs. Charles E. Layman, and Lieutenant James A. Ullo. The decorations were white and green and the table was decorated with peach blossoms.

Mrs. Augustus H. Bishop and her two children left Monday for Detroit, where she will make her home with her brother, W. H. H. Hutton. No trace of Captain Bishop has been found since he disappeared more than two weeks ago.

Henry M. Fales Jr. son of Captain and Mrs. Henry M. Fales, married Miss Cecile Vatec Wednesday, March 29, in Old Grace Church in New York City. Mr. Fales is an engineer in New York, where they will make their home. Captain Fales saw his son last June, but Mrs. Fales had not seen him for three or four years. Owing to the length of the trip, and the fact that the First Infantry sails so soon for Honolulu, Captain and Mrs. Fales could not attend the wedding.

Mrs. Thomas G. Spencer, wife of Lieutenant Spencer, entertained a number of women of the post at tea Monday afternoon.

The Spanish-American War Veterans gave a ball in the post gymnasium Thursday night.

Miss Isabel McGunagle, daughter of Colonel McGunagle, gave a bridge party at her home Thursday afternoon, for the women of the post. There were six tables of bridge, and Mrs.

General and Mrs. Marlon P. Maus entertained at luncheon Sunday at 12 o'clock. The guests were: Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Miss Failing and Miss Mary Failing, William Heilright and Dr. Coughlin, all of Portland. The table was decorated with jonquils and English violets.

Lieutenant Robert Sears, of the First Infantry, has been ordered to Monterey, Cal., where he will be a member of the permanent personnel of the School of Field Artillery. This detail is for four years and is considered a very desirable one. Lieutenant and Mrs. Sears will leave today for the Presidio of Monterey.

Many witnessed the regimental review and inspection of the troops on the artillery drill grounds Friday afternoon. More than 1000 men participated in the event, which simulated a camp, as it would be in actual warfare. Conical wall tents and shelter tents were pitched, a meal was cooked by the Second Field Artillery troops, and all men, equipment and quarters in the post were inspected. The First Infantry and the Second Field Artillery bands furnished music for the day and moving pictures of the events of the inspection and review were taken.

Mrs. Mathew A. Reasoner entertained the Post Bridge Club Friday afternoon and Mrs. I. J. Phillipson won first prize.

Captain Edward Stuart, of the Second Field Artillery, who has been in the Letterman Hospital for the past two months, is reported to be improving, and he is expected to return to his post in about two weeks. Mrs. Stuart and family are here.

General Marlon P. Maus will go to Tacoma today to inspect proposed sites for maneuver camps for the coming season.

George W. Harris won first prize, and Mrs. A. E. Warfield second, and Mrs. Mathew A. Reasoner, third. The decorations of the tables were tulips. After the bridge party the remainder of the women of the post came in for tea.

Mrs. Lister, wife of Captain Ralph B. Lister, gave a dinner Monday in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Daniel F. Cowles, of Redlands, Cal., who is visiting her. Pink carnations were used as table decorations.

Thomas P. Clark, captain-general; William E. Yates, excellent prelate; William Laughlin, senior warden; James Scott, junior warden; William P. Conaway, treasurer; Theodore G. Rosenquist, recorder.

Officers for 1912-1913 are: Abraham L. Miller, eminent commander; William Laughlin, generalissimo; James Scott, captain-general; William E. Yates, prelate; George H. Mullin, senior warden; Clempert Scott, junior warden; William P. Conaway, treasurer; Theodore G. Rosenquist, recorder.

Other members are: George Asher, Robert Asher, Abram Axell, George H. Baker, Herbert L. Baker, Frank G. Barnes, Elmer E. Beard, William E. Bennett, David Beckett, Wilfred Bishop, Albert M. Baker, Diobert D. Boak, John A. Buchanan, John C. Budd, Henry W. Burden, Thomas N. Carmichael, Alonzo W. Carner, Walter E. (Continued on Page 4.)

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
The eminent commander, officers and six knights of Vancouver Commandery No. 10, Knights Templar of the State of Washington gave a dance at their Asylum, Masonic Hall, Friday evening. An address on Masonry was delivered by Sir Knight Frederick William Keator, bishop of diocese of Olympia, Wash. The choir of St. Luke's Episcopal Church gave a programme. Members are: Miss Laura Brown, Miss Jennie Smith, Mrs. J. B. Clayton, Mrs. Ed Fletcher, Mrs. Kate Busby, soprano; Mrs. Dorothy Finchart, Miss Beatrice Williams, Miss Helen Kinney, alto; W. K. Lloyd, A. Ackles, Harry Smith, E. S. Boniface, tenors; H. G. Smith, Francis Leigh, Leland Wilson, J. H. Heasley and Clement Scott, basses, and Mrs. Lulu Wavers, accompanist. The orchestra was composed of William Fell, Anton Goetz, Michael Zarish, Fred B. Rogers and Francis Leigh.

The committee for the evening was: Sir Clement Scott, Sir Augustus B. Muskerly, and Sir Thomas P. Clarke. Officers for 1911-1912 were: Edward G. Crawford, eminent commander; Abraham L. Miller, generalissimo;

NEW ARRIVALS of EASTER SUITS

During the past week we have received a number of specially selected suits for Easter. They afford a desirable opportunity for tasty selection. Your particular attention is invited to the many novelties in navy suits, trimmed effectively in lace or touches of white or colored agarie.

The Bartholomew Co. WASHINGTON AT TENTH STREET

The Increasing Cost of Furs

Demands that they receive the best of care when not in use. PROTECT YOURS BY STORING in our Cold Dry-Air Vaults in a modern fireproof building. VAULTS OF STEEL AND CONCRETE Each article cleaned by vacuum and compressed air. Most perfect system of protection AGAINST MOTH, FIRE, THEFT. Phone—our messenger will call—Main 24, A 2440. H. LIEBES & CO. J. P. Plagemann, Mgr. CORBETT BUILDING 288 MORRISON ST. Note Address—Corbett Building, Adjoining BANK

FOR EASTER The Holiday of Flowers

We offer for the inspection of the flower-loving people of Portland a Grand Easter Display of

Flowering and Ornamental Plants

The assortment and variety we will show during the coming week will be larger and finer than ever before and will include many NOVELTIES AND SPECIALTIES of exclusive design. Nothing can be more appropriate for Easter Gifts than our fine flowering plants, artistically arranged in our handsome hampers, baskets or jardiniere. CHOICE CUT FLOWERS of our usual high grade will be very popular for Easteride, including as it does for the coming week many Spring Flowers which are procurable at no other time of year. PRICES JUSTLY MODERATE—FREE CITY DELIVERY Early selecting and ordering for Easter is an advantage.

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS 287 MORRISON STREET, BETWEEN FOURTH AND FIFTH

REMEMBER OUR ONLY BUSINESS is IMPORTING ORIENTAL RUGS and RETAILING

ORIENTAL RUGS, of quiet tones, exceeding good taste, unobtrusive designs, at prices not possible for itinerant merchants who are not direct importers. We have studied a specific knowledge of the fact that Portland people will and must have particularly quiet colors and designs; in fact, the floor coverings of the Portland home must have character with a most subdued blending of tones.

CARTOZIAN BROS. ORIENTAL RUG IMPORTERS 473 Washington, Between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets.