Election Planned to Make Port of Coos Bay Certainty.

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 36.—(Special)—The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce held a meeting tonight to con-sider the action of the Supreme Court in repudiating the validity of the Port of Coos Bay. It was decided immedi-ately to take action to provide for an-other special election. The Port Com-mission had provided for additional work supplementing the Government project.

This work included the widening of the channel 100 feet from Marshfield to the Porter Milis, and was to cost $7000. The Port being dissolved, the obligation by that body could not be met. However, the work which was to have been done by the Port commission was personally guaranteed as fol-weeks from tonight.

The Christian Endeavor Society members of the Third District Union will hold a sunrise prayer meeting Easter morning at 7 o'clock at the Piedmont Presbyterian Church. Clarence H. Sprague, the district superintendent, will lead, the doors being closed at 7:15. It is expected that 150
