

Tomorrow's Assemblage of Removal-Priced Merchandise Excels Our Previous Efforts--Extraordinary Prices That Are Certain to Surprise You

Postscript

—Not nearly enough people know the possibilities of this Great Removal Sale in placing reliable merchandise of merit at removal prices, although thousands of shoppers already do. Here is news in this two-page announcement calculated to make a lot of new friends for this store, as well as strengthening old ones.

—At the very height of the Spring season we are sacrificing merchandise reflecting the latest Spring fashions, together with staple merchandise in constant demand for personal adornment and beautifying the home. Our every effort this season is measured by the outlook for the future. The Removal Sale is but a stepping stone in preparation to presenting the public of Portland, Or., a new retail establishment, with everything new from basement to roof.

—No economical shopper can afford to supply Spring and Summer needs excepting at this remarkable sale. There is a saving on everything you buy, for every article in the store is reduced.

Why Not Buy Dresses Now? With Time and Prices Right

One-Piece Dresses

Removal $29.95, $31.95 and $33.90

Selling Normally to $45.00

—This disposal of one-piece dresses for women and young women measures up to an ideal sale, for it is not a disposal of ordinary dresses just to make a sale, but Lipman, Wolfe & Company dresses, reproductions of French models. Savings are worth while, as is readily seen by the prices.

—All the new models created by French designers are found in these dresses—the high waist line—narrow; clinging skirts—deep chiffon collars—heavy embroideries and silk cord and braid trimmings. Made in serges and other popular weaves.

Removal of Dress Goods

Navy Blue Serges at 87c

—5000 yards of navy blue serges 46 inches wide, absolutely pure dye and hand-twisted, made of fine imported wools. These serges we can recommend highly for tailored suits and walking skirts. We have sold this serge season after season with the greatest satisfaction to our customers.

New Bordered Challies

Pongee Sale at Removal Prices

87c, $1.10, $1.29, $1.59, $2.18, $2.45, $2.95

—These silks come to us from the new Chinese republic. They were purchased, however, before the revolution, when the Chinese looms were busy turning out their customary fabrics; before agitation, war and pillage interfered with their commerce. Shrewd merchants, at the first inkling of revolution, anticipated the rise in silks that was to follow, and secured what silks they could at former prices. The last shipment of pongee silks has just come to us.

New Trimmed Hats

Selling Regularly to $10

Monday $4.95

—To those who have not gotten a new hat, or wish for another, this sale means much.

—It is a saving of from $3.00 to $5.00 apiece on every hat on sale.

—The story is a simple one. We secured an immense stock of elegant hats from a wholesale milliner who overreached his selling capacity and found himself with a superabundance of beautiful hats. A telegram, an offer, a price concession and the transaction was closed. These shapes came to us by express, and we turned our entire force of milliners to work creating these hats. We release them to you tomorrow at prices which about cover the wholesale cost of the shapes. We shall distribute them to about 500 new owners by Monday night.

—These hats form a highly creditable millinery display, and they are examples of every recent tendency in millinery models. Small, medium and large Tagal hemp shapes, trimmed so admirably and so tastily that they would readily bear a French label.
