GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST

The Blue Star Division of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Woodlawn M. E. Church, which is under the supervision of Mrs. S. S. Shoemaker, gave a social entertainment at the church, Friday, April 12. The singing of the church choir, as well as the duets and solos furnished by members of the choir, were well received.

The main feature of the evening was the exercises of Miss Mable Walter's kindergarten class. A male quartet composed of the pastor of the Woodlawn Christian Church and three of the members rendered a number of selections.

The recitations of Mrs. Gladys Prichard and E. A. Myers were also entertaining. Mrs. Coleman and her two sons produced a little comedy entitled "Mrs. Buttermilk Goes Tomorrow."

Mrs. Shoemaker read a letter from her son dated at Portland, April 12, 1932. This explained the many chnages that had taken place in the city within 20 years.

The programme was as follows: Song, choir; story, "Benny and His Grandma," Dr. Blatchford; duet, Misses Oberg; exercise, Miss Watkins' kindergarten class; song, male quartet; song, Elizabeth Naomi Shoemaker; reading, "Yacob Strauss," E. WOMAN ADOPTS TWO CUBS WHEN THE MOTHER BEAR IS KILLED.

MRS. ALVAH CHURCHILL AND PET BEAR CUBS.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., April 19.—(Special.)—Roy Boutwell, who works at the Vesuvius mine, in the Bohemia district, brought in two black bear cubs a few days ago, which Alvah Churchill purchased and presented to Mrs. Churchill, who has adopted them as pets. They take very kindly to their new situation, as the picture indicates. Mr. Boutwell killed the mother bear the day before he found the cubs. In fact he knew nothing about the cubs until he came back after the body of the old bear, and found the little fellows, evidently quite hungry, whining around the body of the dead mother.
