LAUNCHING BARES SOCIAL WOUNDS

Texans Stirred Because Miss Lyon Was Chosen as Battleship's Sponsor.

Roosevelt Manager's Daughter Chosen Before Colonel Had Become Candidate-Vessel to Be Giant of Its Class.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 18.—The battleship Texas, greatest of the dread-noughts yet constructed for the United States Navy, was successfully launched here today in the presence of a notable company. As the big hull, gay with bunting, started down the ways, little Miss Claudia Lyon, daughter of Colonel Ceell A. Lyon, Republican National committeeman for Texas, crashed a bottle of champague against the bow. Secretary of the Navy Meyer was present representing President Taft, and among his guests was Miss Helen Taft. Social Storm Brews.

The launching of the Texas, which will cost the Government $11,000,000 and will carry the most powerful armament of any vessel affost, was not accomplished without leaving some scars, ment of any vessel affort, was not accomplished without leaving some scars, but these were of a politice-social nature. Colonel Lyon is the Republican National committeeman for Texas who has been making the strongest kind of a partisan campaign in his state to line up Republican delegates for Colonel Roosevelt. Wives of Texas members of Congress, first wondering why the Governor did not bestow the honor upon his own beautiful young daughter, have been angered because he did not, as an alternative, select the daughter of some of the members from Texas themselves. And there are in the families of the Texas delegation some young women who, it is admitted from every side, would grace any occasion.

Representative Slayden has no daughter, but his orphan niece. Miss Mary Agnes Slayden, is counted with the beauties; and Representative Smith has a charming young daughter not yet out of school—little Mary Culberson. Is no was regarded as peculiarly eligible.

The cheice of Miss Lyon was made before Colonel Roosevelt announced his candidacy, and it is part of the acrimonlous talk that has been indulged in that Secretary Mayer made the choice with the political purpose of strengthening the chances of his chief to obtain favors down Texas way. At any rate, the storm has been one of the most violent that has disturbed Congressional society in a decade.

At the last hour, it was said today, Texans decided not to let their personal feelings cast a shadow over what is really an important National svent, and they attended in large numbers to cheer the Texas as she sild down the ways.
