

ADHERENTS OF T. R. FOOLED, IS BELIEF

Idaho Elects Five Delegates to National Convention Favoring Taft.

BREACH MAY BE RESULT

Colonel's Supporters, Though Asserting Delegation Is Seven to One for Him, Are Beginning to Be Anxious.

LEWISTON, Idaho, May 18.—(Special.)—So smoothly did the Idaho convention move that the temporary fight was over, and so amicably were the delegates to the National convention selected that now it is believed that the Roosevelt forces at Lewiston convention last Thursday were not acquainted with the men when they selected the eight delegates to go to Chicago.

A retrograde party of Taft men that there are five staunch Taft men in the Idaho delegation who will represent this state, and the President's supporters are not slow to say that they "put one over on the Colonel's friends." Evans, of Idaho County, has been an open supporter of the President and never gave a pledge to support the Roosevelt supporters. When Fremont wanted a man on the delegation, nothing was said regarding on which side he was, but Frank Hagenbarth, of that county, was selected and he is considered one of the staunchest Taft men in Southwest Idaho, and ever since the present campaign began he has been fighting for Taft.

There was nothing binding in the selection of the Idaho delegation. Never was the word instructed mentioned, and the Idaho representation goes, it is said, absolutely unpledged, although selected by the Roosevelt contingent.

Roosevelt men are somewhat dazed by the situation and, although deploring that the delegates stand five to three in favor of Taft, they are unable to account why there should be any question as to how the eight stand. If the delegates chosen are in a majority for Taft there is no question that a breach will exist in the party. The fight put up by Herman Rosell, a prominent Shoshone "standpater," now is shown to have been without avail. Roosevelt men still believe that they have the delegation, 7 to 1, but there is now unrest in the ranks and it should stand like that with more than 100 votes in their favor. They maintain they are men honor-bound to vote for the Colonel, and that to vote otherwise in the National convention will be suicide to the party in this state.

The belief is entertained that the steering committee, of which Miles S. Johnson, of this city, was chairman, had much to do with the results of the convention Thursday.

JARMIN CASE IS DISMISSED

But Portland Men Are Re-arrested at Davenport, Wash.

SEVENPORT, Wash., May 18.—The indictments against J. B. Jarmin, a salesman for a Portland bridge concern, charging an attempt to bribe Lincoln County Commissioners has been dismissed on the ground that the grand jury which returned the indictments was not legally drawn.

By the decision the indictments on similar charges against J. P. Whitlock, of Portland, president of the Coast Bridge Company, and H. W. Raynor, also connected with the company, also are nullified.

Prosecuting Attorney Freese immediately swore out informations and warrants against Jarmin, Whitlock and Raynor, and they were re-arrested each putting up $3000 cash bond. Indications are that the cases will not be tried until the Fall term.

HORSE'S KICK IS DEADLY

Hillsboro Farmer Succumbs to Fractures to Larynx and Arteries.

HILLSBORO, Or., May 18.—(Special.)—Ed H. Winters, aged about 40 years, died yesterday afternoon at Hillsboro, after a long illness, which was received from a kicking horse. Winters was kicked in the throat Tuesday and the larynx broken. Arteries in the throat were also lacerated. Blood accumulated in the lungs and five physicians were in attendance. Winters leaves a wife and one child, a 19-year-old son. He carried $1000 insurance in the Fraternal Brotherhood, his wife being the beneficiary.

The dead man lived on what was known as the "Mountain" Buck ranch, southwest of Cornelius. His home is now in charge of the publisher. The paper will support Champ Clark for President.

Marion Prune Crop to Be Good.

SALM, Or., May 18.—(Special.)—That the prune crop south of the city will be as large as last year, when the crop was excellent, is the statement made by several of the leading prune men who have been investigating reports that the crop promises to be small.

Salem's Weekly Gets Name.

SALM, Or., May 18.—(Special.)—The new Democratic weekly which it is proposed to issue here will be called The Oregon Messenger, according to a decision reached by A. M. Dalrymple and James E. Godfrey, who will have charge of the publication. The paper will support Champ Clark for President.

LEADERS ARE PICKED AT AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

R. A. Blanchard, of Chicago, Is at Helm of Student-Body, With Bert C. Burdick, of Portland, as Vice-President and Manager Basketball Team.

Above—R. A. Blanchard, President Student Body; B. Burdick, First Vice-President Student Body; Middle—C. A. Dickey, Second Vice-President; E. W. Curtis, Business Manager Barometer; H. B. Thompson, Editor-in-Chief Barometer; Miss Gertrude Walling, Secretary of Student Body. Below—L. R. McKenzie, Member Student Athletic Board; H. C. Hessel, President of Oratory and Debates; S. W. Rich, Student Auditor of Athletic Board; W. J. Kocub, Third Vice-President of Student Body.

ORSON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 18.—(Special.)—The annual student body election, held at Oregon Agricultural College yesterday afternoon, placed R. A. Blanchard, junior student in agriculture, of Chicago, Ill., at the helm of the student organization for the next year. Blanchard is also business manager of the 1912 Orange, the college annual. Students prominent in athletics, oratory and other college activities were elected to the other offices in the gift of the student body.

First vice-president, Bert C. Burdick, of Portland, junior student in school of pharmacy. Burdick is also captain-coach of the 1912 basketball team. Second vice-president, C. A. Dickey, junior in commerce, of Molalla. Dickey is president of the sophomore class and a member of the student council. Third vice-president, Walter Koolig, of Corvallis, president of the freshman class and student council member. Secretary, Miss Gertrude Walling, senior. Editor O. A. C. Barometer, R. B. Thompson, of Portland. For the past

DEGREES GO TO 173

Graduation at University This Year Largest Ever.

ONE IS MARRIED WOMAN

Commencement Programme Includes Campus Breakfasts, Reunions and Open Air Drama; Festive Week June 16-19.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 18.—(Special.)—By far the largest graduating class that ever left the University of Oregon, 173 young men and women, will receive diplomas with degrees in the graduates, liberal arts and engineering departments of the State University at Eugene one month from tomorrow, Wednesday, June 13. Prior to this time the largest class registry was 93, that banner number having graduated in 1911. These 173 degrees are distributed as follows: masters, 7; liberal arts, 87; engineering, 21. In addition to the graduates in the local department, which number 115, the schools of law and medicine, at Portland, will this year confer degrees upon 16 and 43, respectively, making a grand total of 173 University of Oregon graduates for the college year 1911-1912. Acting upon the recommendation of the Board of Regents in a recent report the graduating class of the School of Medicine will this year receive their degrees at Eugene during the regular commencement. It is thought by the administration that the law department will have accepted this precedent by the time of the 1912 ceremonies.

One Woman Is Married.

Among the 115 seniors in the regular departments at Eugene, 32 are registered from Portland. Only one married woman is included in the group, Mrs. Edna Prescott Danson, of Eugene. In all 34 are women. Those to receive degrees, according to the registrar's books are as follows: Masters Degrees—Master of arts—Miss Ruth Dunsen, of Portland; B. S. Williams, of Eugene, Master of science, Paul Bond, of Eugene. Civil engineering, Chester C. Fisher, of Boise, Idaho; W. McArthur, of Eugene, and Carl A. McClain, of Eugene. Liberal Arts—Miss Grace M. Adams, Eugene; Miss Jean K. Ainslie, Portland; Miss J. N. Applegate, Klamath Falls; Norman B. Ashcraft, Ashland; Miss Mildred Bagley, Salem; Miss Rita Bannell, Portland; Herbert L. Barber, Portland; Wendell C. Barber, Eugene; Miss Nevia Bartlett, Portland; Miss Maud Beale, Eugene; Harold Bean, Portland; Miss Ethel Beebe, Miss Pansy Beebe, Eugene; Miss Jessie M. Bibeck, Portland; Miss Hazel H. Bradley, Portland; Miss Alberta Campbell, Miss Lucia Campbell, Eugene; Earl Childers, Hillton; Miss Cora Chase, Eugene; Miss Clementine Cutler, Portland; Mrs. Edna P. Danson, Eugene; William G. Dunlap, Portland; Forrest E. Dunton, Molalla; Miss Ethel L. Evans, Eugene; Walter S. Fisher, Roseburg; Roy O. Fitch, Sherwood; Harry W. Frederickson, Eugene; Miss Eva Frazier, Eugene; Miss Ella B.

The Men's Dormitory of Reed College, in East Portland, W. B. Completed in 1907. Occupied this Year.

Any Sellwood Car Transfer at Bybee. The charm of a home near a big college is found in the magnificence of the grounds, which are usually prettier than a public park; and in the fact that social surroundings are considerably in advance of other sections of the same city. Reed College will contribute the same conditions to Eastmoreland.

F. N. CLARK Selling Agent 818-23 Spalding Bldg. Portland

STOCKMEN FIGHT MILL. CATTLE RAISERS WOULD FORCE REMOVAL OF DAMS. Land for Which Company Now Ask Water Obtained Under Laws Regulating Swamps.

BURNS, Or., May 18.—(Special.)—An injunction suit was filed in the Circuit Court of Harney County this week that has aroused bitterness and will be sternly contested. The Pacific Livestock Company is plaintiff and the action is directed against the Burns Flour Mill Company. The plaintiff alleges that the dam on the bank of Slivies River, a mile north of the city. The livestock concern, which is a $200,000 corporation, with headquarters in California, owns large tracts of land in Grant, Malheur and Harney counties as well as in Nevada and California. The plaintiff alleges that the dam at the flour mill causes the water to be backed up so as to run out through several sloughs into the valley, thus depriving the company's lands fully below to them for irrigation and stock purposes. It is said that much of the land for which this company now claims the right to the waters of Slivies River was obtained as swamp land under the laws relating thereto.

COUNTY JUDGE RESIGNS

W. L. Clark Expected to Succeed George D. Culbertson.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—Efforts of those who have been engaged in the preparation of a petition to invoke the recall against George D. Culbertson, County Judge of Hood River County, have all been to no purpose, for Judge Culbertson's resignation, although unknown to but a few citizens here, has been in the hands of Governor West for the past three weeks. It is declared here today that an appointment of a successor may be expected at any moment. In all probability W. L. Clark, vice-president of the Hood River Commercial Club and for a number of years one of Hood River County's road viewers, will be the next County Judge. W. E. King, an orchardist, and Leslie Butler, president of the Butler Banking Company, have been mentioned as appointees. However, it is understood that both have refused to consider the position.

LAURELHURST IMPROVEMENTS.

Visiting Shriners, who were taken out by local committees to see "Laurelhurst," were much surprised and pleased when informed that but two years ago the great tract of "Laurelhurst" was the Ladd farm. They were amazed to see that the 26 miles of asphalt pavement, 62 miles of concrete sidewalks, besides the cluster lights, shade trees and hundreds of beautiful homes, were put in within that time. There is no addition on the Coast like "Laurelhurst." Build your home in "Laurelhurst."

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement in the loss of our father.

C. E. GOODSPEED AND FAMILY.

Advertisement for National Wine Company, featuring a list of various wines and their prices, such as Claret Red Wine, 3-year-old Red Claret, etc. Includes a coupon for a free sample and contact information for the company.

Advertisement for Warner's Safe Remedies, listing various ailments like kidney and liver health, and providing a coupon for a free sample. Includes a testimonial and contact information for the company.

Advertisement for Seelye's Spermatic Shield Truss, describing its benefits for treating ruptures and providing a coupon for a free sample. Includes a testimonial and contact information for the company.

Advertisement for Laue-Davis Drug Co., located at Third and Yamhill, Portland, OR. Truss Experts and Exclusive Agents for Seelye's Spermatic Shield Truss.