Colonel New to Name Republiean Temporary Chairman.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The members of the subcommittee on arrangements for the Republican National committee adjourned here tonight without naming a temporary chairman for the conven-After adjournment, Secretary Hayward agnounced that the committer had decided to leave the selection of a temperary chairman to Harry S. New, chairman of the subcommittee.

New, chairman of the subcommittee, Mr. New said the selection of a tem-porary chairman might not take place for several days. He denied reports that the action of the committee was caused by the refusal of United States Senator Root, of New York, to accept the class.

Senator Root, of New York, to accept the place.

"The temporary chairmanship was not offered to anyone," said Mr. New. Several possible reasons for delay in the settlement of the chairmanship were advanced by interested politicians. Roosevelt leaders declared that the postponement indicates they had won in their contention that the temporary clairman should not be selected until the result of the Presidential preference primaries in Ohio on Tuesday is known.

Known.

The basis of apportionment of seats in the convention was left unsettled. The demand for seats in the convention exceeds that of any previous Republican National convention and the task of apportioning Niem will be difficult.

Under the call of the Republican National committee, however, both the Colonels will have to take their medicine, for the Congressional district conventions comply with the Republican call in every particular, the calls in Texas having been made by regular Congressional district organizations, most of which, up to the present contest, have been controlled by Lyon himself. That he lost control of them in this contest is the only excuse that can be offered at Chicago.

Ton the showing to date in Texas, President Taft is certain of 21 delegates from that state and Mr. Roosevelt of 4, and three Congressional districts in the state conventions are yet to be heard from. The state convention, the machinery of which Colonel Lyon hopes to control, will be held on May 28.

Spokane Lad Gets 50-Foot Pall, However, in First Flight.

SPOKANE, Wash. May 18.—(Special.)—Two Spokane boys, Martin A. Denine and Glen Hemingway, have completed a biplane which this week was given its first successful try out. An accident marred the initial flight, the machine going wrong after it had salled 50 feet, through the air at an average height of 15 feet.

The flight was made on the hill near Millwood, just east of the city and Denine, who was in the machine, was bruised by the fall.

The machine was built by Denine to try a pair of balancing wings on which he has secured a patent. Before the wings could be used in the initial flight, however, the machine dropped to the ground.
