Awaits the Home-Maker Down at

COLUMBIA ACRES

Put our statement to the test when we say that every advantage that any land ever afforded a family awaits the home-maker down at Columbia Acres. The richest of soil, the finest water, an abundance of fuel, good roads, ideally located homesteads, easily cleared, on-and-off transportation facilities, school and church, progressive neighbors. After you have investigated all other possibilities, we invite you to visit this beautiful development. Here you will find a community where your labor will be rewarded, your home will prosper, your children will develop under the influences of the best. If you desire a family place, Columbia Acres is the place for you.

$40 to $60 an Acre
are the present low prices. It will cost you very little to get a few acres here. Any number of homesites are available, prices reasonable, and you can get prices and terms. We strongly urge you to take advantage of the present limited opportunity. Mr. Kerr, editor of the Oregonian, who has written a series of research articles for Home-Maker's Association, is president of the Board of Directors of Columbia Acres, and the management is well equipped with capable men.
