BY ROSCOE PAWCETT.

The University of Oregon performed even better than was expected in the first annual college conference track meet yesterday on Multnoman Field, which was featured by the defeat of Ira J. Courtney, of the American Olympic team, in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Oregon scored 10 or 15 first places for a total of 57 points. Washington ranking second with 23, Whitman 21, Oregon Agricultural College 18, Washington State 11 and Idea University State 11 and Idea University. Washington State 11 and Idaho University 5. Courtney, the Washington sprinter. a fortnight ago in the trials at Stanford, negotiated 100 meters in 104-5 seconds, or close to 94-5 for the 100-yard dash. Yesterday he won his trial heat over Baker, of the Oregon Aggles, in 101-5, but in the finals Baker sur-prised everybody by beating him to the tape by three yards in 10 flat and against a fresh breeze.

Baker Beats Gun Triffe.

The Seattle lad complained that Baker beat the gun badly, but the photographs of the start show only one step. Starter Pete Grant admitted that the ex-Lincoln High crack had out-generaled him a little, but not so much generaled him a little, but not so much as to belittle his victory.

Couriney was also defeated in the 220-yard dash in a hairline finish in which Baker did not even place. Cooke, of Washington State, who won, was smothered by Courtney a couple of weeks ago in 212-5 seconds, whereas yesterday's time was only 222-5. Courtney apparently was not quite right, and it is not thought the poor showing will militate against his opportunity to represent America at Stockholm in July.

No Northwestern college records were shattered during the afternoon, but several performances proved highly meritorious. For instance, Bowman, of Washington, negotiated 6 feet 1/2 inch in the high jump, tying the collegiate resord of Dave Grant, of Washington, made several years ago, Powellington, made several years ago, Powellington, made several years ago, Powellington, ington, made several years ago. Powell, of Corvallis, made $ feet 11% inches before succumbing to competition.

Neill Near Javelin Record.

Neill, of Oregon, hurled the javelin 164 feet 2 inches, which closely crowds his new Northwestern record of 165.4

his new Northwestern record of 165.4 feet made in Seattle last Saturday. The American title is held by Snedigar, of the Olympic Ciub, San Francisco, who hurled the spear 166 feet 1 inch in October, 1911, so Neill's work will be closely watched another season.

The finish of the two-mile run, usually a tame event, proved the sensation of the day. McClure, of Oregon, one of America's Olympic stars, breasted the tape first, but only after a lively sprint in which Barrett, of Whitman College, collapsed just as he reached the finish. Fortunately for Barrett, he unconsciously stepped across the chalk just as Williams, of O. A. C., thundered past. The time was 10 minutes $2.5

Huggins did not place in this event, running himself out in capturing the mile-run, when McClure laid back and took third, as there were only three entries. Both Huggins and McClure have done better than 10 minutes. The latter, as expected, was returned winin the 880-yard run in 2 minutes

Oregon gobbled the first and second oregon gobbled the first and second in both hurdle events, with Hawkins and Latourette up. Hawkins' time in the 120-yard flights, 152-5 seconds, equals the mark set by Kelly, of Southern California, at the recent Olympic trials, when Hawkins ran second and Smithson third, and will be used as an argument to have the lemon-yellow high-timber man honored on the Olympic squad.

Bloomquist, of Whitman, ran a pretty race in the 440, leading all the way ever Walters, of O. A. C. and Whitten, of Idaho. The time was 50 3-5, which

Williams, the Oregon vaulter, holder f the Northwestern mark of 12 feet inches, won this event, clearing 11 feet 8 inches, with Williams, of Washington, second. Sam Bellah, the Multnomah star, essayed to make a new world's record when the college lads has finished. Holdman, of Multnomah, also vaulted and cleared the bar at 12 feet 4 inches. Sam had reached 12 feet thes when a bulletin was mega-ed telling of Gardner shattering the world's mark in the Eastern college

Bellah Tries for Record

The Yale crack raised the limit from 12 feet 10.7-8 inches to 13 feet 1 inch. so Bellah applied to his work more determinedly than ever. After clearing 12 feet 8 inches the bar was placed at 18 feet 2 inches, but Bellah missed it three times once by a marrin sed it three times, once by a margin so narrow that the 1000 spectators gasped wonderment.
