

Mrs. P. J. Cronin, Mrs. M. McNamara, Mrs. F. Zimmermann, Mrs. J. F. Shea, Mrs. F. G. Bailey, Miss Felling, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Mary Loan, Mrs. Roger B. Snodgrass and Mrs. P. J. Flynn.

Society turned out en masse for the opening performance of Maude Adams in "Chatterbox." The boxes were occupied by the smart set and several smaller parties of two and three dotted the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell entertained one of the largest parties. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shovin, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nixon. Later the guests were entertained at supper at the Hotel Multnomah.

With Dr. J. N. Coghlan were Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Frances Brady and Clarence Sewall.

Among prominent persons in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shovin, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nixon. Later the guests were entertained at supper at the Hotel Multnomah.

Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, who has been touring Europe with Mrs. John Lewis for several months, has returned home. Mrs. Lewis is at present in Paris and will travel in Europe for some time. White away Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. Lewis have been extensively entertained.

The Misses Flora and Marion Bauer arrived in Portland from New York on Wednesday. They will pass the summer with their mother, Mrs. John Bauer. Miss Emile Frances Bauer is at present in San Francisco. She expects to arrive in Portland in a fortnight.

A party composed of members of the sub-debating club met at the residence of J. Wesley Ladd, enjoyed a boating party on the Willamette on Sunday afternoon. In the party were Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Frances Brady, Miss Grace Peters, Miss Mary Brownlie, Miss Rhoda Rummel, William Wheeler, Bud Krebs, Gaylyn Dyott, Ferdinand Smith and Harry Ladd.

Mrs. Charles T. Whitney entertained with a small bridge on Monday afternoon, complimentary to the ladies. Mrs. Barrow, who is visiting here from California.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barron returned from Boston this week with their son and daughter. Master Robert has been attending the Volkman school preparatory for the summer. Miss Anna Barron graduated in May from the Sacred Heart College. Mr. Barron and his family will pass the summer in Alaska.

Mrs. Howard Holland returned last week from an extended visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clark are being felicitated on the arrival of a baby girl, born May 30. The baby will be called Elizabeth.

Miss Mary Scheller, of Wilmington, N. J., arrives in Portland today. She will be with Misses Ruth and Genevieve Church for the summer.

The athletic set are looking forward to the Spring Club meet which will be held at the Hunt Club grounds on Saturday, June 15. Among the participants are Mrs. William H. Warren, who will ride in the tandem with ladies from G. Buffum, Mrs. James Nicol, Miss Sallie Leadbetter, Miss Mabel Lawrence, Miss Emily Stearns, Frederick Leighton, Ralph Jenkins, William Walter, Walter Gruber, Eugene Oppenheimer, Henry Ladd Corbett, Dr. McDaniel, Dr. J. N. Coghlan and Joseph Cronin. This will be the first meet and steeplechase held at the new grounds.

A party of Portland residents attended the dance given by the Hill Club, of Salem, in the new Oregon Electric building at Salem Tuesday night. They traveled in a special car both to and from the dance. Those following were in the party: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Coledge, Dr. and Mrs. Sanford Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. B. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Wickstrom, George M. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber E. Coman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Gray, Jr., C. D. Schillip, W. P. Powers, Bert and Frank A. Moore.

A delightful affair of the week was the tea given by Mrs. Arthur C. Spencer at her Portland home. Pink roses were the decorations used in the living-room and hall. Receiving with the hostess were her mother, Mrs. M. A. Fenton, and Mrs. William D. Fenton. The tea table, which presided over by Mrs. J. D. Leonard, Mrs. Rufus Hoban, Mrs. F. L. Hall and Mrs. Dan J. Malachuk, was centered with a huge basket of yellow iris and roses. Assisting in the dining-room were Miss Margaret Hawkins and the Misses Charlie and Lucile Fenton. Floating about the room and serving punch were Miss Hazel Morris, Miss Mary Long, Mrs. Hicks C. Fenton and Mrs. George W. Boschee.

Mrs. Isaac Vanduy was hostess at a reception on Friday, complimenting her guest, Mrs. John Somerville, of Edmond, Oklahoma. Mrs. Vanduy was assisted in receiving by the honor guest and Mrs. Frank Vanduy. About 40 guests called during the afternoon. Decorations of La France and Caroline Post roses were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. Louis Burke and Mrs. Francis D. Chamberlin presided at the tea table, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Boyd and Miss Julia Fenton. Refreshments were served in the library by Mrs. J. J. Pantou and Miss Tina Von Bolton.

Dr. Eugene Rockey returned home Wednesday from the East. He will pass the summer with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Houser have returned from an extended European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Stanley and Miss Cornelia Stanley left Portland Thursday for the East. They expect to be in New York a month and will attend the graduation of George Stanley at Yale on June 19.

One of the prettiest of June's cycle of weddings was that of Miss Eva Jenkins, daughter of Mrs. Addie Jenkins and Robert George Jenkins, which took place at Trinity Episcopal Chapel on Wednesday evening. Rev. A. A. Morrison officiated. Only relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony and there were no attendants. A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother. The popular shades of pink predominated in the decorating scheme of the Jenkins home. The bride was carried out with masses of roses. Receiving with the bride and bridegroom were Mrs. Addie Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McPherson. The bride wore a handsome creation of heavy white satin with an overdress of real white lace. Her tulle veil was fastened to her coiffure with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Jenkins appeared in a black chiffon dress with corresponding tones, made over foundation of blue charmeuse. Mrs. McPherson was in royal blue chiffon draped with black chiffon. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will pass their honeymoon at Meadow Lake. They will be at home after July 1, and will take an apartment until their handsome home on Aspen street, Willamette Heights, is completed.

Lieutenant F. D. Kilgore, United States Marine Corps, of Bremerton Navy-yard, will arrive in Portland today and will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. James T. Moylan, at the Moylan home on Willamette Heights, for several days. Lieutenant Kilgore is en route to Washington, D. C., where he will take his examinations for his captaincy.

Mrs. Frank Butler (Miss Inez Stockton) entertained with a tea on Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Frank Sullivan, of Seattle and Jerome Alexander, formerly Miss Albertine Dietrich, a popular society girl of Multnomah.

PORTLAND GIRL PRINCIPAL IN WEDDING AT PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Mrs. James B. Curran, Jr., and Miss Gertrude Dinners were married last Tuesday morning in St. Patrick's Church. The wedding was a quiet affair and only the immediate families of the young couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. Curran will be at home after July 1 at 525 East Everett street.

Mrs. Harry E. Northup and children are visiting Judge H. H. Northup at Portland Heights, after passing the winter in California.

Preparations are being made by the officers of department headquarters, and of the post, to go to the maneuvers to be held from July 29 to 30 in the Grays Harbor country, with Centralia as a base of operations. The Twenty-first Infantry, which returned in May from a three years' campaign in the Philippines, is being recruited up to normal strength, 964 men and about 35 officers. Just now the regiment, in command of Colonel Young, is 17 men short, but these are expected to arrive.

General Maus and his aide, Lieutenant Whitley, are now in the South country, near Seattle, looking over the proposed maneuver grounds.

Mrs. Young, wife of Colonel Young, left Thursday for Denver, to pass a month with a son.

Miss Katherine Dent, a sister of Captain Dent, of the Engineers Corps, left on Monday for New York and Philadelphia, for a visit.

Captain Tiffany, post adjutant, has gone to Newport, N. Y., and New York City, to visit his parents, whom he has not seen for nearly three years. He is expected to return with Mrs. Tiffany by July 2.

Two new officers have been assigned to the Twenty-first Infantry and the Second Field Artillery. Lieutenant Wheeler, of Peoria, Ill., who was appointed from civil life will be with the former, and Lieutenant Wilson with the latter.

Letters from officers of the First Infantry, now in Schofield Barracks, near Honolulu, indicate that it is not nearly so pleasant for them there as it was in Vancouver Barracks. A bad wind carries an unpleasant dust into the tents in which they are quartered, and this has caused many families to seek quarters in hotels, which is rather expensive. The trip over was delightful, good weather, being enjoyed on the Sherman.

Thirty officers of the post went to the smoker given by the National Guard in the Armory in Portland, Tuesday. All had a pleasant time and made many new acquaintances.

The officers' polo team is expected to have a game with a Portland team this afternoon on the polo field in the artillery drill grounds. The officers last Sunday defeated their visitors.

Mrs. McCreave entertained at bridge Tuesday night, Mrs. Marion P. Maus.

Mrs. Marie Hall arrived home the first of last week from Washington, D. C., where she has been attending the Mount Vernon Seminary, a finishing school for young women, during the past year. She was accompanied home by her father, H. M. Haller, who has been East on an extended business trip.

In honor of Mrs. J. D. Merceveau, of Pasadena, Cal., a visitor to Portland, Mrs. W. H. Merceveau was a hostess at the Orpheum last Thursday afternoon. Those who enjoyed the bill with the hostess and honor guest were Mrs. J. F. H. Webber, Mrs. Warren Keller, Mrs. L. Hammond, Mrs. W. H. Shore and Mrs. J. Aull, of Atlanta, Ga.

In honor of James H. Morrison, author of "The Miracle," in which Florence Roberts appeared at the Orpheum recently, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Powell were dinner hosts last Tuesday evening. The guests with the actor-playwright honored were Mr. and Mrs. W. Harvill, Mrs. Harvey is Mr. Morrison's sister. Mr. Morrison was again honored Friday night when Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were hosts at dinner at the Portland Hotel. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Powell, Mrs. and Mr. Sherman A. O'Gorman.

Mrs. S. B. Schwab announces the engagement of her daughter, Marguerite, to Walter Raleigh Anderson. No definite plans have yet been made for the wedding.

Bachelors of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club held their first monthly dinner at the Oregon Grill Friday night, and after the spread of the members went to the Orpheum. The bachelors decided at the table to give a series of monthly dinners, each of which is to be followed by a theater party. The bachelors who attended the Orpheum after the dinner were S. E. Kramer, W. W. Henny, R. M. Chisagott, A. T. Clavell, Leo Paron, Dr. J. W. McCollum, Edward M. Duffy, C. T. Haas, A. A. Courtney, Jr., Robert MacCall, Harold Chamberlin, L. O. Gibson, C. O. Hjertstad and W. C. Francis.

Mrs. Harry E. Northup and children are visiting Judge H. H. Northup at Portland Heights, after passing the winter in California.

Preparations are being made by the officers of department headquarters, and of the post, to go to the maneuvers to be held from July 29 to 30 in the Grays Harbor country, with Centralia as a base of operations. The Twenty-first Infantry, which returned in May from a three years' campaign in the Philippines, is being recruited up to normal strength, 964 men and about 35 officers. Just now the regiment, in command of Colonel Young, is 17 men short, but these are expected to arrive.

General Maus and his aide, Lieutenant Whitley, are now in the South country, near Seattle, looking over the proposed maneuver grounds.

Mrs. Young, wife of Colonel Young, left Thursday for Denver, to pass a month with a son.

Miss Katherine Dent, a sister of Captain Dent, of the Engineers Corps, left on Monday for New York and Philadelphia, for a visit.

Captain Tiffany, post adjutant, has gone to Newport, N. Y., and New York City, to visit his parents, whom he has not seen for nearly three years. He is expected to return with Mrs. Tiffany by July 2.

Two new officers have been assigned to the Twenty-first Infantry and the Second Field Artillery. Lieutenant Wheeler, of Peoria, Ill., who was appointed from civil life will be with the former, and Lieutenant Wilson with the latter.

Letters from officers of the First Infantry, now in Schofield Barracks, near Honolulu, indicate that it is not nearly so pleasant for them there as it was in Vancouver Barracks. A bad wind carries an unpleasant dust into the tents in which they are quartered, and this has caused many families to seek quarters in hotels, which is rather expensive. The trip over was delightful, good weather, being enjoyed on the Sherman.

Thirty officers of the post went to the smoker given by the National Guard in the Armory in Portland, Tuesday. All had a pleasant time and made many new acquaintances.

The officers' polo team is expected to have a game with a Portland team this afternoon on the polo field in the artillery drill grounds. The officers last Sunday defeated their visitors.

Mrs. McCreave entertained at bridge Tuesday night, Mrs. Marion P. Maus.

Mrs. Marie Hall arrived home the first of last week from Washington, D. C., where she has been attending the Mount Vernon Seminary, a finishing school for young women, during the

F. P. YOUNG CO. LADIES' HATTERS. 323 Morrison Street, Opposite Hotel Portland.

Forced to Move AT ONCE. Every Article Reduced. Only Contract Goods Excepted.

All Waists reduced. Collar and Cuff Sets reduced. Coat Sets reduced. All Corsets and Underwear reduced. Neckwear and Gloves reduced. Embroideries, Half Price.

GOSSIP FROM THE ARMY POST. Preparations are being made by the officers of department headquarters, and of the post, to go to the maneuvers to be held from July 29 to 30 in the Grays Harbor country, with Centralia as a base of operations.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. At the home of Dr. E. A. Sommer, overlooking the banks of the Willamette at Oregon City, Mrs. Sommer entertained a number of friends at a bridge Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock.

MONDAY OPENS A SALE OF Finely Tailored Suits AT $14.95 Actual Worth $24.75 to $30.00

Such Values Are Bound to Create a Sensation and the Shrewd Woman Is Quick to Take Advantage. You can select your ideal from this lot; every suit beautifully tailored in the season's most accepted styles and materials of the newest and most desired weaves—Pretty grays, tans, browns, navy or black, all sizes.

New Ratine Peplum Waists. A new and attractive waist made of cotton voile with Dutch collar and Peplum of ratine in lavender, tan or white. Regular $2.50 waists, special $1.95

Portland's Emporium. C' oak and Suit Department Second Floor. 126 Sixth Street Near Washington

What Are You Going to Give the Bride? A common question asked by everybody for June is the Month of Brides and when you are thinking of gifts think of Woodard, Clarke & Co., for here you will find gifts that are in good taste and always acceptable, abounding by the thousands at removal prices that are attractive from an economical standpoint.

Take Pictures of Honey-moon Days. You Will Cherish and Delight in Them As the Years Roll By. SPECIAL CAMERA HANDS. A complete 4-A Film Kodak, fitted with Tessar 2-Blens. Volume shutter, plate adapted for trip and carrying case. Regular price $12.50, special $6.00

Always in Good Taste and Perfectly Proper—Our Engraving Ideas for Calling Cards, Reception, Wedding Invitations, Announcements at Homes and Stationery, Memoranda, Paper, Paperettes, Tablets, Initial Papers and all that represents taste and refinement in polite correspondence. Ask for our new Lunch-on and Place cards. First time shown.

A Fountain Pen is a Personal Gift. We have the largest assortment of fully guaranteed Fountain Pens in the city. $1 to $28. WATERMAN'S REGULAR SAFETY FILLER. Conklin's Self-Filling, Non-Leakable, We Repair, Clean and Fill While You Wait.

Perfumery is Always Acceptable. "Mildens" Toilet Water, 75c. The new Toilet Water, Have your handkerchief perfumed free. Rose City Perfumery, 50c. Gifts in Cut Glass. Water Pitchers, heavy, sharp cut sunburst pattern, regular $4.50, special $2.75. Creamer and Sugar Set, extra heavy, sharp cut, star pattern, special $3.32. Creamer and Sugar Set, sunburst pattern, reg. $2.50, special $1.78.

Do You Like the Harrison Fisher Girl? 100 Harrison Fisher Girl studies, all framed in suitable colors and designs. Just the thing for graduation 98c. Handmade Pottery in America, Shell-masher, as well as Bronze and Gold basketry.

Belts Are Popular Now. Note These: Men's Belts for hot-weather wear, 49c. New Enamelled Patent Leather Belts for women, new tailored buckles, 96c. New White and Pinkish "Crash" Belts, new and popular for hot-weather wear, reg. $1.00, special 64c.

Fancy Hand Bags. White Fancy Hand-Bags, Corset-deller handles, silk lined, $1.36.

Woodard, Clarke & Co. Canadian Money at Full Value. Open a Monthly Account. Phone Exchanges for Your Convenience. Free Delivery to All Parts of City. Accurate and Convenient—Our Prescription Department.

NEEDLECRAFT SHOP 388 YAMHILL STREET CLOSING OUT $10,000 of High Grade Stamped and Hand-Made Articles being sold regardless of cost or former value—Nothing reserved. Everything goes. Come early for the pretty things. Sale Starts Monday 9 A.M.

Ladies' High-grade Shirtwaists, trimmed with hand embroidery and real laces; values to $10.00, at $4.50. Hand-made Guest Towels, embroidered in colors; regular $2 values, at $1.39. Stamped Guest Towels, best grade huck; regular 50c and 60c values, at 29c.

Embroidery Cotton, suitable for towels, shirtwaists, etc.; regular 5s, special, skein 1c. New Punch-work Doilies, 27-inch; regular $1 values, at 69c. 18-in., reg. 35c vals. 15c. Novelties, very suitable for Christmas gifts, Necktie Racks, Handbags, Calendars, Pin Cushions; regular 50c values, at 19c.

Night Gowns, best quality nainsook; cut long and full; completely made; regular $2.00 values, at $1.19. Stamped Shirtwaist Patterns, best grade lawn; regular $1.25 values, at 79c. Hand-embroidered Chemise and Corset Covers; values to $7.00. $3.50. Burlap, colors red and green; regular 35c values, yard 9c. Oval Library Scarfs, conventional design; reg. $1.00 values. 33c. White Linen Doilies, 18-inch size; regular 25c values, at 9c. Tan Linen Centers and Pillow Tops, complete with cotton to embroider; regular 75c to $1.00 values, at 33c.

WOMEN'S SUITS AT HALF-PRICE NAVY BLUES AND MIXTURES. Our special offering for Rose Carnival week is a large assortment of women's suits in Navy Blues and Mixtures; plain tailored or fancy models at One-Half Price. $28.00 Suits now $14.00. $32.00 Suits now $16.00. $38.00 Suits now $19.00. $40.00 Suits now $20.00. $50.00 Suits now $25.00. $60.00 Suits now $30.00. $68.00 Suits now $34.00.

The Bartholomew Co. WASHINGTON AT TENTH STREET