"In This Sale No Thought Is Given to Cost"
Tailored and Novelty Suits to $60
Final Removal Price $25.00

—Foreign weavers have contributed the materials. Paris originated the styles. American designers have modified the styles to suit American women, and the best American tailors were employed in the building of these exclusive suits.

—They are fashioned of materials that are ideal for midsummer and early fall wear.

Two-tone whipcords, worsteds, homespuns, serge, diagonal, mixtures are the materials that are to be found in this great sale.

—Every shade that is appropriate for a Summer dress and that is dependable for severe service is here tomorrow in these tailored suits.

—The jackets are made in the latest length in close-fitting style, long revers, fasten at the side with large pearl buttons and silk frogs. Some with plain tailored collars, short revers and fasten with small buttons.

—Also many attractive cut-away models.

—The jackets and skirts are lined with soft satin, the skirts being made with a high waist line, straight panel back and front. Some with panels slightly rounded.

—For the woman who needs must make every dollar purchase its utmost, this sale means much. For it would be impossible, excepting for this removal sale, to make any such reductions as are to be found in this store tomorrow, when sale begins.

"In This Sale No Thought Is Given to Cost"
Silk Suits Selling to $65.00
Final Removal Price $25.00

—The popularity of stylish, attractive silk suits has steadily increased with the introduction of modish models that are at once distinctive, original and exclusive.

—The woman of fashion today seeks variety in her wardrobe. And certainly these silk suits have become favorites with women for calling, for bridge and card parties, and especially so for theater and hotel wear.

Chiffon taffeta and silk whipcord are the materials used in the models that we place on sale tomorrow.

—The colorings are exquisite in combinations, quiet in tone and blended in shadings that are peculiarly artistic. Blue and gold, blue and green, navy and black, emerald and cerise, emerald and tan, emerald and brown, all shades of green, wistaria, brown, tan, also plain navy and black.

—The jackets are made with straps across the back at the waist line, also plain backs. The front of the jackets are slightly cut away and fasten with large silk ornaments, and with small buttons. The sleeves are three-quarter length, trimmed with heavy lace. Has deep and round pointed lace collar.

—Other models have the long shawl collars, some trimmed with white Bengaline and others with lace.

—The skirts are made in many different styles.

Of All Petticoat Sales This Is the Greatest
A Series of Surprises—Great Price Concessions
Every Petticoat in This Sale Is Offered at Cost or Less

—This sale far exceeds any previous petticoat offering. In mere point of numbers, in the beauty and the variety of styles on sale, and in the extraordinary assortment offered, this event marks the climax of bargain-giving. In many cases the tailored petticoats are sold at less—much less—than the price of the silk by the yard.

—To acquaint you with the possibilities of this sale and to give you an exact idea of the reductions we chronicle the following:

$3.50 Silk Messaline $1.69
—2000 petticoats of extra quality all silk messaline in every color of the rainbow. Made with a deep tucked flounce with pleated ruffle attached.

—These petticoats are made in the new slim figure style, which insures a perfect fitting garment with no bulk over the hips.

$4.50 Messaline Silk $1.95
—Deep flounce, knife pleated and stitched bands. Messaline silk petticoats in an enormous variety of styles, embracing every color of the Spring shade card. Also many styles in Persians and in stripes. Every skirt has a plain or a pleated dust ruffle.

—These models sound the last note in petticoat fashion, and a woman can make her selection without the slightest bit of trouble, for the variety is immense.
