GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST

With the Rose Festival on in Portland during the past week, and all of the officers and women attending, besides the preparations for the maneuvers in July, there has been little time for the pretentious social functions. General and Mrs. Marion F. Maus were entertained by the commander of the Maryland in the Portland Harbor, and several of the officers of the Post visited the battleship during the week.

Mrs. Reasener, wife of Captain Mathew A. Reasener, of the Medical Corps, with her infant daughter, Miss Grace Lanforth, and Mrs. Wiley E. Dawson, will leave the Post for the East tomorrow. Mrs. Reasener will visit her parents in Illinois; Miss Lanforth will return to her home in Charleston, Mo., and Mrs. Dawson goes to Salt Lake City for six weeks.

Lieutenant Fales will be in B Company, with Lieutenant John M. True.

Major Gray, of Division Headquarters at San Francisco, made his annual inspection of the Post yesterday. The Twenty-first Infantry, which has been here just a month from the Philippines, has been recruited up to nearly normal strength, and the new men, as well as the old, are being drilled so that they can take part in the maneuvers near Centralia in July.

Captain William F. Morrison, of the Second Field Artillery, who is now at Fort Sill, Okla., attending the school of fire, has been ordered to the Philippines, and he will sail about August 5, from San Francisco.

Captain Elmer W. Clark, of the Twenty-first Infantry, has been visiting Centralia, and points near there, in relation to the maneuvers. He is looking for the line of march, seeking where he may secure forage, and making arrangements for the troops.

Mrs. Fairfax, with her mother and sister, arrived Tuesday from the East. Mrs. Fairfax is the wife of Lieutenant Fairfax.
