

MOUNTAIN TUNNEL TO AID IRRIGATION

Teel Project Plan One Most Remarkable of Land Reclamation.

WATER TO BE CARRIED FAR

Over 23,000 Acres Will Be Fed South and West of Stanfield and Echo—Paradise Project, Too, Even Greater in Scope.

Tunneling 12,413 feet under the Blue Mountains, the incorporators in the Teel Irrigation Project plan to carry water from Canas Creek to Butter Creek and thence by irrigation canals to the 23,000 acres of land lying south and west of Stanfield and Echo, which their project comprises.

Petitions for the organization of this irrigation district, which is to be called the Teel district in honor of O. D. Teel, of Echo, Or., will be presented at the July session of the Umatilla County Court, according to G. L. Hurd, secretary of the Stanfield Commercial Club, who was in Portland yesterday.

The tunnel under the Blue Mountains is not the only unusual feature about the Teel project. After pouring through the mountains into the head of Butter Creek, the water will follow the channel of this stream for seven miles, saving the time and expense that would be necessary to construct an irrigation canal.

Paradise Project Big. An even greater project, although one in which the engineering features are not so unusual, is the 68,000 acre "Paradise" project east of Stanfield, which is soon to go under irrigation under the new law which permits bonding of the land to pay the costs of installing the system.

The cost of the project is estimated at $10 an acre, including the construction of reservoirs. This is a little more than one-third of the average cost of private or Government irrigation projects.

Seepage Twice Available. The Government has allowed the property holders in the Paradise project water at the rate of 1000 second feet for the higher lands. The seepage from the irrigation in this project will return to the Umatilla River and will be available again for the irrigation projects that cover the lower areas in the west extension project.

Mr. Hurd's visit to Portland yesterday was to arrange for a visit to Stanfield next October, by the business men en route for the Oregon Development League convention in La Grande.

Mr. Hurd is president of the Eastern Oregon fair, and secretary of the Portland Commercial Club. The fair is to be held at Pendleton this year during the week of the "Round-Up," and Mr. Hurd says that indications are favorable for a greater list of entries than ever before.

TILLAMOOK TRIP IS $12.50

Three Days of Ocean Entertainment Planned for Club Tour.

The rate for accommodations in the Commercial Club excursion to Tillamook beach, which will leave Portland Tuesday, has been reduced from $20 to $12.50, and the jaunt will be made an outing trip rather than an industrial and business men's excursion.

The excursion will leave Bayocean Tuesday evening and make their headquarters there throughout the stay. Those who desire to visit Tillamook or the Neahkahle mountains and beach will be organized into special parties and launches will be placed at their disposal.

The special feature of the trip is to be the deep sea fishing. The yacht Bayocean will be used in this trip and every member of the Portland party will be given an opportunity to take part in the sport.

The excursion will leave Bayocean early enough Thursday to reach Portland at 8 o'clock that night. Both men and women will be in the party, and in the reservations made up to the present time they are about equally divided.

The aim of the circles is the development of citizenship and the extension of full suffrage to every woman citizen of the state. At the present moment the energies of all members are being directed to furthering the cause of equal suffrage in the November elections.

Circles are organized in groups of ten members, each member of each group being requested to form another circle of ten. The original circles constitute the executive board, and officers are chosen from it. These officers conduct the business of the circles providing programmes, speakers and

TEXT OF BILL GIVEN

Three-Year Homestead Provision Amends Old Law.

ABSENCE IS PERMITTED

Entryman Can Be Away Five Months Continuously, but Must Give Notice — Six Months Enough to Forfeit Claim.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 22.—Following is the text of the Borah-Jones three-year homestead bill as it was signed by President Taft on June 6. The law takes the form of an amendment to Sections 2281 and 2287 of the Revised Statutes. Under the terms of the new law, a copy will be sent to each homestead entryman by the Secretary of the Interior. The three-year law follows:

"Section 2281. No certificate, however, shall be given or patent issued therefor until the expiration of three years from the date of such entry; and if at the expiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the persons making such entry, or if he be dead his widow, or in case of her death his heirs or devisee, or in case of a widow making such entry her heirs or devisee, in case of her death, proved by himself and by two credible witnesses that he, she, or they have a habitable house upon the land and have actually resided upon and cultivated the same for a term of three years succeeding the time of filing the affidavit, and makes affidavit that no part of such land has been alienated, except as provided in section 2285, and that he, she, or they will bear true allegiance to the Government of the United States, then in such case, he, she, or they, if at that time citizens of the United States, shall be entitled to patent, as in other cases provided by law.

"Provided, that upon filing in the local land office notice of the beginning of such absence, the entryman shall be entitled to a continuous leave of absence from the land for a period not exceeding five months in each year after establishing residence, and upon the termination of such absence the entryman shall file a notice of such termination in the local land office, but in case of commutation the 14 months actual residence as now required by law must be shown, and the person commencing must be at the time a citizen of the United States. Provided, that if the person making entry dies before the offer of final proof, those succeeding to the entry must show that the entryman had complied with the law in all respects to the date of his death and that they have complied with the law in all respects, as would have been required of the entryman had he lived, excepting that they are relieved from any requirement of residence upon the land; and in order to comply with the requirements of cultivation herein provided for, cultivate not less than one-sixteenth of the area of his entry, beginning with the second year of the entry, and not less than one-eighth thereof until the third year of the entry; and until final proof, except that in the case of entries under section six of the enlarged-homestead law double shall be required, but the Secretary of the Interior may, upon a satisfactory showing, under rules and regulations prescribed by him, reduce the required area of cultivation.

"Provided, that the above provision as to cultivation shall not apply to entries under the act of April 28, 1904, commonly known as the Kinkaid Act, or entries under the act of June 17, 1902, commonly known as the Reclamation Act, and that the provisions of this section relative to the homestead period shall apply to all unperfected entries as well as entries hereafter made upon which residence is required; Provided, that the Secretary of the Interior shall, within 60 days after the passage of this act, send a copy of the same to each homestead entryman of record who may be affected thereby, by ordinary mail to his last known address, and any such entryman may, by giving notice within 120 days after the passage of this act, by registered letter to the register and receiver of the local land office, elect to make proof upon his entry under the law under which the same was made without regard to the provisions of this act.

"Section 2287. If, at any time after the filing of the affidavit as required in section 2280 and before the expiration of the three years mentioned in section 2281, it is proved, after due notice to the settler, to the satisfaction of the register of the land office that the person having filed such affidavit has failed to establish residence within six months after the date of entry, or abandoned the land for more than six months at any time, then and in that event the land so entered shall revert to the Government; Provided, that the three years' period of residence herein fixed shall date from the time of establishing actual permanent residence upon the land; And provided further, that where there may be climatic reasons, sickness, or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may, in his discretion, allow the settler 12 months from the date of filing in which to commence his residence on said land under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe."

Ejected Pair Sues Hotel. Charging that, in the face of their emphatic protests and offers to prove that they are husband and wife, they were ejected from the Multnomah Hotel about midnight on Saturday, June 15, Elizabeth Sullivan, his wife, have filed suits for damages in Circuit Court against the Multnomah Hotel Company. Each demands judgment for $10,000. H. C. Bowers, manager of the Multnomah Hotel, said last night that he knew nothing about the hotel company being sued by the Sullivans.

Mr. Losa attributes a considerable part of the long length of his life to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which has been consistently used by him whenever he felt the need of a tonic stimulant. In a recent letter, which he wrote without the aid of glasses, he said, in part: "I take pleasure in writing to tell you how much good Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has done me. I have used this valuable medicine for a great many years, and now, at 91 years of age, am in full enjoyment of all my faculties. I am a Volunteer Veteran of the Mexican and Civil wars and have lived in Harrison for a long time and am very well known."
