

FAMOUS FRENCH ARTIST PAINTS NOTED ACTRESS

Latest Portrait of Margaret Illington at Heilig This Week is by Pierre Tartoue, Who Attained Fame Suddenly at Paris Salon.

Portrait of Margaret Illington.

PIERRE TARTOUE, a young French artist, who recently arrived in New York, is winning great prominence in the metropolis by his wonderful work.

Pierre Tartoue.

An exceptional kind. His pastels give the impression at first view of being oil paintings, so masterful is their treatment, and in each of his portraits, it is said, the individuality of the sitter is shown cleverly.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS

EDITED BY LEONE CASS BAER.

Trixie Ferguson is in Atlanta, Ga., this week in her first week of vaudeville. Her act consists of some of the songs that have become identified with her career.

to do. Edgar is finishing his new play, "Partners," which Mrs. Selwyn (Margaret Mayo) has two manuscripts under way.

Although not unexpected, the news that Frederic Thompson has gone into bankruptcy somewhat shocked his friends. It was hoped that he would be able to ward off the proceedings.

Charles K. Harris, the music publisher and song writer, has adopted a novel method of starting off a new ballad. He is going to "import" an American song.

Mr. Thompson, in association with his partner, the late Elmer Dundy, built Luna Park and made Coney Island.

Edna Goodrich and her mother sailed for London last week to remain all summer, returning in September for the opening of Edna's vaudeville debut.

Mary Boland, who long time ago was one of the far-spreading bands of Mr. Baker players, has since visited us as leading woman with John Drew.

Priscilla Knowles isn't going to have any vacation this summer and she has been playing every night and at two main performances each week for nearly three years.

Marion Fairfax and her husband, Tully Marshall, are neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Channing Pollock at Shoreham, L. I.

Klaw & Erlanger have renewed their contract with Robert Hilliard, by which he will continue to be starred under their management for a term of years.

will take its place beside the best of Conan Doyle's detective stories. It is full of thrills and incidents in contemporary human interest.

E. D. Price, who is to manage the Heilig stock season this summer, has been Mr. Hilliard's advance manager for several years.

Lillian Russell has visions of social leadership in Pittsburg. As Mrs. Alexander P. Morse she will take possession of one of that city's oldest and most famous mansions, where three years ago the dazzling society favorite, Virginia Knox, and the bogus Count Di Montecole solemnized their tragic wedding.

Freddie McKay has sailed for Europe on a series of missions. He will confer with the widow of Alexandre Bisson over a play which he secured a year ago; then a trip will be made from Paris to Berlin to look over the musical market for new songs for his wife, Blanche Ring, to be used in "The Wall Street Girl."

Of Ray Samuels, who made an individual triumph here this season at the Orpheum, and helped to make the second link of the Press Club a success, the Morning Telegraph, New York, has to say: "Dramatic editors of this city will experience a sense of relief to learn that Ray Samuels will soon be in their midst as an exhibit A."

DE GARROS FAMILY WILL APPEAR AT THE OAKS

Agent for Special Days at Amusement Park Reports Many Picnics Planned by Various Organizations.

LOVERS of the spectacular will find that the Five Flying De Garros at the Oaks this week will prove no disappointment. On lofty aerial bars and rings the members of the De Garro family, five in number, will offer the most sensational performance in its line ever seen in this city.

Gracie De Garro, One of Five Flying De Garros at the Oaks.

The De Garros stand as the perfection of American manhood and womanhood," said Mr. Cordray. "In New York physical culturists thronged around them. I am pretty busy myself in the amusement line, but I can assure you that the De Garros kept me biting my lips and gripping my seat every minute I was in the Hippodrome. Then I went twice more to see them."

Every possible daring aerial performance will be made by the De Garros, while there will be muscular feats on the rings and hazardous performances on the Roman bar, well as comic apparatus work. The De Garros promise to make a hit at the Oaks.

The Frank Rich Musical Comedy Company will open with a new and attractive bill, the large chorus and augmented orchestra making the auditorium more popular than it has ever been.

But for the intervening wet weather, last week would have proved a record-breaker at the Oaks, immense throngs traveling by car and launch to "cool off."

Members of the College Equal Suffrage League, under whose auspices the luncheon is being given, yesterday mailed 500 letters of invitation and made arrangements to secure speakers.

Invitations to 500 Sent Out for Function to Miss Whitney.

That the banquet to be given to Miss Anita Whitney at the Imperial Hotel, Thursday, will be a big affair is evidenced by the large number of invitations issued yesterday.
