Millage Tax Measure Has 3193 Names More Than Required by Law.

SUFFRAGE FIRST ON BALLOT

Commission Chairman Newell Believes University and Agricultural College Bill Will Be Approved Heartily by People.

SALEM, Or., June 29.—(Special).—Initiative petitions began to pile into the office of Secretary of State today with numerous promises of other measures to be filed early in the week.

The bill providing for a millage tax for the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College was filed by W. K. Newell, of Gaston, with 13,910 signatures, or 3193 more signatures than are required by the constitution.

The amendment providing for woman's suffrage will have the first location, and this will be followed by the measures referred to by the Legislature, after which will come the referendum measures referred to by the people.

The millage tax petitions were signed in all of the counties of the state except Columbia, Curry and Grant.

Portland Lawyers Active. The measure was drafted by Judge R. S. Dean, president of the Board of Regents of the University of Oregon and J. K. Weatherford, president of the Board of Regents of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Mr. Newell is chairman of the commission recently appointed by the Governor to study the higher educational conditions in Oregon and to make a report on the question of consolidation and joint management.

Argument in Support Given. Mr. Newell also filed with the Secretary of State a brief argument in support of the measure, which argument will be printed in the official pamphlet which will be mailed to the voters of the state.

"Blue Sky" Bill "Is Clear." Corporation Clerk Babcock also announced that the "blue sky" bill is "in the clear," and will be filed early next week, probably Monday.

News was also received from Portland by Secretary Olcott that the proposed constitutional amendment which provides for a majority of all votes cast to pass a measure going before the people, has received a sufficient number of signers, and will be brought to Salem the first of the week.

The influx of names is certain from the news which was received today, and although circulators have been given the scare of their life by reluctance of people to sign petitions, it is possible now that the ballot of 1912 will still be one of considerable length.

EQUITIES MUST PAY TAX. Washington Governor Directs State Board to Take Action.
