Mrs. E. C. Shevlin was hostess on Friday at a bridge tea. Four tables were arranged in the drawing-room, which was attractively decorated with scarlet rambler. In the dining-room Dorothy Perkins rambler was artistically arranged and centered the tea table, at which Mrs. Florence Minot, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Ladd and Mrs. Charles Scadding presided. A profusion of yellow flowers were used in the hall. Mrs. Shevlin's guests were Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Frank Edward Hart, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Mrs. Le and Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Miss Mai Hirsch, Mrs. Florence Minot, Mrs. Robert Wilson Forbes, Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke, Mrs. Harry Nunn, Mrs. D. E. Farrell, Mrs. J. Andre Forthright, Mrs. W. H. Dunkley, Mrs. William McCrea and Mrs. Charles Scadding. A number of guests came in later for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de Schweinitz (Miss Gladys Weidner) are being showered with congratulations on the birth of a son, who made his advent on Wednesday. The baby will be named Edmund Alexander de Schweinitz, Jr.

Mrs. Alexander Angus McDonnell's tea given at her home on Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Horace Hills Irvine, was one of the prettiest of the week. A color scheme of pink was carried out in an attractive manner throughout the rooms. In the drawing-room, pink roses and carnations were used. The table in the dining-room was centered with a huge gold basket overflowing with sweet peas in the varying tones of pink. Seated at the table were: Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman and Miss Cornelia Cook, Miss Maida Hart and Miss Cully Cook served ices, assisted by Miss Katherine Hart and Miss Anita Burns. Mrs. Harry J. Litt and Mrs. C. A. McKenna presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. John M. Elliott and Miss Isabella Gaud went to Tacoma the early part of the week. Captain Elliott on his return from the southern cruise of the Maryland, and Captain returned to her home Friday, and Captain and Mrs. Elliott arrived in Portland last evening to pass the week end with Mr. and Mrs. James G. Gaud. Captain Elliott will take the Maryland on a two months' cruise to Alaska in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Litt complimented Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hills Irvine, the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDonnell, with a dinner last evening. The table was centered with a basket of Cecil Brunner roses, and places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Angus McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Griffin Murphy (Miss Anne Kinney), Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Philip Fry and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson entertained informally at dinner last evening at the Waverly Golf Club. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Shevlin and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Greene entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weyerhaeuser, who are house guests of C. Harry Davis, Jr. Seated around the table were Mr. and Mrs. Weyerhaeuser, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, C. Harry Davis, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weyerhaeuser will leave Portland on Wednesday for their home in St. Paul.

OUTFITTING COMPANY

THE STORE WITH TWENTY-TWO SHOW WINDOWS

WITNESS of Portland's social life, there is little time for social diversion, except among the younger contingent, and many informal affairs have centered about the attractive girls who have recently returned from finishing schools in the East or in Paris. Out-of-town visitors, who always add to the gaiety of the Summer season in Portland, have also been the inspiration for a round of entertaining of an informal nature.

Conspicuous on the week's social calendar was the breakfast for Miss Claire Wilcox on Wednesday, at which Mrs. L. Allen Lewis presided, and the tea given on Monday by Mrs. Rhoda Felling and Florence Knowlton in honor of Mrs. Edward J. Felling (Marjorie Holcomb) and the Misses Alice and Bertha Bidwell. Other events of interest to society were Mrs. Charles F. Beebe's luncheon on Tuesday for Mrs. D. H. Roland, of Springfield, N. J., the tea given on Friday by Mrs. A. A. McDonnell, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Horace Hills Irvine, of St. Paul, and the debutante tea on Wednesday at which Miss Jean Morrison was hostess.

The most important affair in the sub-debutante set was the dance given Friday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Tucker at the Tucker residence, on Hoyt street. Another event which claimed the interest of the younger set was the large Fourth of July house party at the Honeyman farm given by Miss Mildred Honeyman.

The most important events thus far scheduled for the week now entered Mrs. Beebe's to be given by Mrs. C. H. Lewis at the Lewis residence for her granddaughter, Miss Ellen Lowe Mills, who has recently returned from school in the East, and the tea on Wednesday for which Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs has sent out cards.

One of the delightful dances of the week was given on Friday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Tucker in honor of their daughter, Miss Esther, who will leave early in the Fall for Boston to enter Simmons' College. The attractive Tucker residence was elaborately decorated with garden flowers and ferns. In the dining-room, where the punch was served, shirley poppies and tiger lilies were massed and pink sweet peas and stock in the various shades of pink were effectively used in the drawing-room. Supper was served in the garden, which was brilliant with gaily colored Japanese lanterns. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. J. Weston Ladd, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. Arthur Moffatt, Miss Sallie Lewis and the Misses Carrie and Louise Flanders. The guests were:

Miss Grace Peters, Miss Harriet Cummings, Miss Lora Cummings, Miss Sarah McCully, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Mary Stuart Smith, Miss Rhoda Felling, Miss Nancy Zim, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Margaret Mackenzie, Miss Margaret Mearns, Miss Margaret Hewett, Miss Margaret Vossler, Miss Elsie, Miss Ellen Lowe Mills, Miss Katherine Graham, Miss Katherine Ladd, Miss Charlotte Ladd, Miss Alice Bidwell, Miss Sally Hart, Miss Claire Wilcox, Miss Grace Mackenzie, Miss Grace Honeyman, Miss Mildred Honeyman, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Virginia Burns, Miss Abbie Burns, Miss Margaret Ayer, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Mary Brown, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Miss Shirley Fiske, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Katherine Forest, Miss Clara Nickerson, Miss Dorothy Erttinger, Miss Rosalind Kingsley, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Polly Hewett, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Miss Genevieve Halley, Miss Ruth Daly, Miss Mariak Luhn, David Loring, Howell Jones, Gavin Dwyer, Bud Kraba, Hallett Maxwell, Everett Wortman, Archie Kingsley, William Ladd, Maxwell Mearns, Arthur Brownell, Robert Dean, Norman Matlack, Roscoe Anley, Herbert Whitton, Robert Mackenzie, Landon Mason, Richard Jones, Irving Webster, Gerald Barrett, Melvin Fell, Cabot Therkelsen, Harry Lytle, Alexander Morrison, Neil Malarky,

Mrs. Wilma Fiske who will become Mrs. Frederick Anthony Martin on Wednesday

Maurice Dooley, Harry Hewett, Joseph Minot, Henry Good, Lewis Mills, Dorland Smith, Spencer Biddle, Blake Robbins, Mr. MacConnack, Ronald Strong, Robert Livingstone, Reed Kummelin, John Burns, Philip Kamm, Walter Kamm, Allen Russell, Stuart Freeman, Joseph Lambert, Allen Maxwell, Ronald MacKenzie, Dunford Cass, Lester Hodson, John Barrett, Pat McCarthy, Thomas McArthur, Kurt Koehler, Hamilton Corbett, Frederick Forster and Henry Ladd.

Mrs. Henry W. Corbett, accompanied by her niece, Miss Emma Sanford, and Mrs. David Robertson, left yesterday to pass the Summer at Mrs. Corbett's cottage at Sea View.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell have leased the Frederick Wheeler residence on King's Court for a year. Henry Cabell, who has been at Woodbury Forest School, of Orange, Va., is home for the Summer.

Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis was hostess on Wednesday morning at breakfast complimenting Claire Wilcox, an attractive debutante of last week. Crystal bowls of sweet peas of the various shades of pink centered the table, and dainty French bisque favors marked places for Miss Wilcox, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Jean Morrison, the Misses Mildred and Grace Honeyman, Miss Dorothy Huber, Miss Katherine MacMaster, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Cully Cook, Miss Sally Hart, Miss Lora Cummings, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Ellen Lowe Mills, Miss Mary Brownell and the hostess.

A delightful affair of the week was the bridge luncheon on Tuesday given by Mrs. Charles F. Beebe to compliment Mrs. D. H. Roland, of Springfield, N. J., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Bowne, Jr.
