The Best Low-Priced Land

Possessing Those Advantages and Facilities That Mean Most to the Home-Maker

Bear in Mind These—

Accessibility—This fertile section is but two and one-half miles from the railroad and another half mile to the Sea. In and one-half miles from the Golden, Arkansas, and the latter running from the Columbia River to the Seaboard.

Small Boats—From Goble to Columbia Acre is a new meander road of high quality, with a paved highway in Portland.

Small Hops—They possess every requisite—best of soil—plenty of springs and streams—abundance of full-dressed scenery—school—church—railroad delivery, and last, but not least, intelligent and therefore progressive neighbors.

The Prices—Compare them with those of acre age and acre value and you'll come to the conclusion that Columbia Acre is a genuinely good proposition.

$40 to $60 an Acre

are the present low prices and the terms are most advantageous to the tenant of small acreage who is looking for a place to live and farm and collect his rent. Come in and see for yourself what a wonderful farm you can take advantage of while these desirable tracts are being offered at these present low prices—it will cost you more for a few new acres.
