Idaho. Not in a long time have the streets about the Armoty and the Union Depot presented such warlike scenes, and not in years have the Guardsmen been so confident of having a real enjoyable and interesting campaign and outing as during the seven hours yeaterday morning when they were hurrying about completing arrangements for the departure. departure.

Soldiers Report Early.

Soldiers Report Early. The day had hardly broken before the Guardsmen began to report at the Armory and select their field equip-ment. From then until 19:30 o'clock, when the last special train departed, the Armory and the depot were crowded with the soldiers making final prepa-rations for the trip and the 10 days of rations for the trip and the 10 days of fighting. The first train departed at 9 A. M. with all the troops from Portland, in-cluding Companies H. H. F. C. head-quarters, sanitary troops and the am-bulance company. The second soction left at 12:30 with the troops from out in the state, which arrived on various trains during the morning. As each train pulled out the air re-sounded with cheering, and hats were waved from every car window. The demonstration continued until the trains had left the city. Hundreds of persons were at the depoi to see the grains loave, and they joined in the cheering.
