

BAIT CASTING ROD ANGLER'S DELIGHT

Runner Can Be Laid in Position 60, 80 or 100 Feet Away by Adept Fishermen.

LINE WEARS OUT QUICKLY

Salmon Trout Are Now Appearing in Coast Streams; First Catch Weighed Two Pounds—Fry Are Being Distributed.

BY WALTER F. BACKUS.

Have you ever stood on the edge of a fine large pool on some good trout stream, one of those broad stretches, measuring over 50 yards across, with a fishy-looking deep strike in center, and wished devoutly that you could run a big brass spinner through its depths?

Probably you have tried your fiercest, but the fish are not rising, and your best strip cast does not nearly reach the coveted spot.

This, then, is the time and place for a light bait-casting rod, rigged up especially for trout spoon fishing.

The ideal rod for this casting should be about seven feet long, fitted with a light double grip handle, and have a swing and action similar to a regular fly rod.

The reel should be a good one of the free running type, either double or quadruple multiplying. A closely braided silk line of small diameter, with no waterproof dressing is the best for this casting.

The swing of the seven-foot rod is a great help in casting the small spinners, as you can get along with a light sinker. This flexible rod will make casts with an eight-ounce sinker that would be impossible with a stiff five-foot rod.

In using this rod, the side cast is the only practical one, as it is too long for overhead work. When you cast it set up ready for use, let your spoon hang down two or three feet below the rod tip.

It takes some time to get your thumb trained to this work, but later on you'll be able to cast with your eyes shut. The best way to learn is to put the brake on last, and let the spoon check every cast by keeping on a steady pressure all the time.

Good camping ground can be found anywhere along the river, and with the excursion rate now in effect on the coast, it is sure to be a popular trip.

By time this is printed, the first installation of young trout will be in the stream. Frank Espenhandt took 50 cans, containing almost 40,000 fish, to the middle portion of Clear Creek, near Viola.

Batteries—Melvor and King; Etchandy, Augustus and Pembroke, Wilson, Leonard, the elongated twirler released by Spokane, failed to puzzle Boise yesterday and the Bears would have lost had not Bridger gone in and saved the day at Boise.

They found the fishing good, so this little incident was soon forgotten. The fish were rising well, the Gray Drake and the Bucky being the best killers, and they brought out 75 trout, many of which averaged a pound in weight.

The advance guard of the salmon trout have made their appearance in the coast streams. I. N. Fleischner has the honor of catching the first one of the Salmonberry. Four big ones were caught there a week ago, and it is reported that they are the first of the season.

PORTLAND ROWING CLUB CREWS ENTERED IN NORTH PACIFIC AMATEUR REGATTA AT LAKE SHAWNIGAN, NEAR VICTORIA, B. C., JULY 20 AND 27.

1. D. Cooper, Stroke; J. Gill, 3; A. Llewellyn, 2, and D. Cooper, Bow, Junior Four—2, Arthur Allen and A. Pfander, Senior Doubles—3, A. Pfander, Senior Single Entry—4, C. Spooner, Stroke; C. Drylund, 3; O. Jensen, 2, and R. Z. Myers, Bow, Junior Four—5, J. Havley, Junior Single—6, Dick Hart, Coach.

7. The Wigwam II, the Astoria motorboat which caused favorable comment at a regatta at Davenport, Ia., is back on the coast and will race at the Bellingham events, July 23, 24 and 25, in the Pacific Coast championship races.

8. The Portland Motorboat Club has a really unpopular visitor Thursday, Deputy Assessor Walker making the rounds of the boathouses that day.

9. William M. Ladd and his son Charles Thornton, are among the latest to join the club. Mr. Ladd has a new boat, 20 feet, equipped with a 24-horsepower Scripps' engine.

Portland's delegation to the Victoria regatta on Lake Shawnigan, July 20 and 27, will leave tomorrow night by special car, about 25 rowers and 40 helpers, declared their intention of witnessing the events.

Captain Arthur Allen is optimistic but not overconfident of the outcome in competition with the Victoria and Vancouver Rowing Clubs. The Portland crew, consisting of Arthur Allen, bow; E. A. Hansen, No. 2; W. Resing, No. 3, and J. Helwig, stroke, is a very husky bunch, and although the four has not been raced over an accurately measured course, the time compares favorably with that of former championship winners.

The men placed in the four-oared shell are all local products, developing as members of the Portland Rowing Club. Arthur Allen is the oldest rower in experience, having been on the first team of the club since 1907.

Helwig was the first to make the crew for the first time in 1910, and is being made himself a berth for the first time last year. Hansen is a junior but a man of powerful build who has done a good deal of rowing.

The senior double entry will consist of Arthur Allen, stroke, and A. Pfander, bow. Pfander is also the entry for the single senior events. He has been clipping the mile and a half off record time, and if he can do so good on the strange waters of the north as he has been doing here in practice, he looks like a post-winner for sure.

The club juniors will be represented by two fours, one consisting of C. Spooner, stroke; C. Drylund, No. 3; O. Jensen, No. 2, and R. Z. Myers, bow. All have been working with the club for the past year, and Allen has faith in their ability to get away with the race.

The other four-oared junior boat will be filled with Dave Cooper, stroke; J. Gill, No. 3; A. Llewellyn, No. 2, and V. L. Stone, bow. The two crews are on a par and in practice races they have shown remarkable breaks of speed.

The younger double will be J. Havley, stroke, and Fred R. Newell, bow. Havley will also row the junior narrow boat.

The Portland Motorboat Club has a really unpopular visitor Thursday, Deputy Assessor Walker making the rounds of the boathouses that day.

William M. Ladd and his son Charles Thornton, are among the latest to join the club. Mr. Ladd has a new boat, 20 feet, equipped with a 24-horsepower Scripps' engine.

After the other mariners of the Portland Motorboat Club leave St. Helens for Portland this afternoon, C. W. Boost will turn the nose of his Artisan up the Lewis River with the intention of spending four or five days fishing and resting along its banks. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Boost and family.

A regular feature of the bathers' afternoon at the Windemutht river coves is the 5 o'clock swim across the Williams-ette to the west bank and back. A hundred bathers-sometimes join in this event and the water is dotted with heads bobbing up and down like corks on a busy fishline.

Beach Warmer Jackson offered his services to a girl bathed a few days ago, he is being mistaken for the swimming instructor. Because of his timidity he hated to refuse the pleas of assistant, and he is now booked for a regular job as an amateur instructor at the swimming resort.

The "Spanish Ham." Strand. Leveson-Gower tells how the representative of Spain at the Court of St. James' dined with his family on one occasion, and how a servant then said there had been records in the art of replacing the letter "h" flinging the door open, he announced:

"The Spanish Ham"—making a perceptible pause before he added, "has-sador." "Edmund Yates and Corney Graln, who were of the party and talking together at the moment, bolted into the small dining-room and behaved certainly as well as the circumstances permitted. My wife had the profoundest difficulty to control her laughter and accord a proper reception to our guest, who was, of course, innocent of the abuse of his distinction."

GOOD HORSES ARE ENTERED FOR SALEM RACES

Purses of $5000 Offered for Portland Day and Salem Day at Fair.

GOOD HORSES ARE ENTERED

Many Fine Trotters From Canada, California, Idaho and Washington to Compete—Names of Old Favorites Missing in List.

SALEM, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Early closing entries which have been filed for the races at the Oregon State Fair, September 2 to 7, while not as complete as in some of the past years, show quality.

In the long list of entries are many new names. Many of the older horses, which have been favorites for a number of meets at the Lone Oak track, are now doing stunts on the Grand Circuit in the East, while many of them have been sent back to the pasture.

This year shows a marked collection of Canadian horses, which is rather infrequent. Many California horses are also entered, with sprinklings from Idaho, Washington and Eastern states. Oregon also has a rare share of fast horses in the showing.

Two $5000 Purses Provided. The two big $5000 purses will be on Wednesday, Salem day, and Thursday, Portland day. The Greater Oregon pace for 2:08 pacers will be Wednesday, and the 2:12 Lewis and Clark trot on Portland day.

Two new trotting events are also included, this being the innovation race and Woodman of the World purse.

The main race of the $5000 purse for 2:12 trotters—the Lewis and Clark purse—will be for $4000, with a handicap entrance fee on this amount as follows: Horses with records of 2:14, $200; 2:15 to 2:18, $150; no record or slower than 2:18, $120.

The main race of the $5000 purse for 2:08 pacers will be for $4000, with a handicap entrance fee on this amount as follows: Horses with records of 2:05 1/2 to 2:12, $200; 2:12 1/2 to 2:17, $150; no record, or slower than 2:17, $120.

A consolation purse of $1000, free entrance, will be offered in each of the $5000 stakes for non-winning starters, provided there are eight or more starters in each of the main events.

Each Heat to Be Race. The main entrance in both the 2:24 trot innovation purse, and 2:25 pace. Woodmen of the World purse, will be 5 per cent of purse. These races will be in three heats each, and each heat a race, money divided after each heat as follows: First money, $400; second money, $200; third money, $120; fourth money, $80; $40 will be deducted from money winners in each and every heat.

The early closing entries with pedigrees and owners are as follows: 2:12 pace, Capital City purse, $500—Ella Pearson, b. m., Oregon, Roscoe, J. C. Moore, Winnipig, Minn.; Captain Apperson, b. g. Zombro by Altamont, Ed Reckner, Oregon City; Harold Wel-Kinney, b. g., Welcoming, Oregon; Red Seal-Mildred, E. C. Keyt, Forest Grove; Bonnie Antrim, b. g., Bonnie McK-Vantram, C. W.
