Mrs. Harry S. Sladen, who is the guest of her hostess, Mrs. Thomas Strong.

SOCIETY, like the Arab, has folded its tent and silently stolen away to the hills and seashore. Those who have delayed their departure from the city until later in the summer have sought the more comfortable and picturesque diversions of swimming and boating.

The acutely friendly attentions of "Old Sol" are never conducive to much exertion, and last week's social calendar suffered accordingly. Tennis was the principal diversion of the week, and many of our prominent matrons assisted by a number of charming debutantes presided at the refreshment booths during the week.

A pretty tea of the week was given on Friday by Mrs. Thomas N. Strong in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Sladen. Mrs. Jay J. Morrow entertained with a bridge-ten on Friday complimenting her sister, Miss Butler, who will visit her for about six weeks. Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver also entertained in honor of Miss Butler on Wednesday at a small bridge luncheon. Miss Genevieve Thompson presided at luncheon on Wednesday at the Waverly Golf Club in compliment to Mrs. Rufus B. von Kleinsmid (Miss Elizabeth Sawyer) of Greenacres, Ind. and Mrs. Helena Cochran, of Kansas City. Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox was hostess at an attractive luncheon on Monday complimenting Mrs. J. G. Woodworth, of St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis also entertained for Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Woodworth at dinner on Friday.

Miss Henrietta Fanning presided at an informal luncheon on Thursday, complimenting Mrs. D. H. Rowland, who is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Bowne. Seated around the table were Mrs. Rowland, Mrs. S. Wood, Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Marion F. Maus, of Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. James G. Woodworth, of St. Paul, Minn., Mrs. Walter Bowne, Miss May Fanning and the hostess.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox was a luncheon hostess on Monday at the Waverly Golf Club, complimenting Mrs. J. G. Woodworth, of St. Paul, who is visiting Miss Maude Alsworth. The morning was passed on the golf links. The guests were: Mrs. Woodworth, Miss Alsworth, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Richard Koehler and Mrs. Walter J. Burns.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained informally at tea on Monday in honor of Miss Helen Verick Boswell, of New York, and Miss Mary Wood, chairman of the public service committee of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Harry S. Sladen, of Wichita, Kansas, a person whom appears today, was the inspiration for the pretty tea given by her mother, Mrs. Thomas N. Strong, on Friday afternoon. The rooms were attractively decorated with roses and a profusion of sweet peas. A huge bowl of sweet peas centered the table in the dining-room, which was presided over by Mrs. Wells Gilbert and Miss Alice Strong. Mrs. Marion F. Dolph and Mrs. G. W. Helms (Miss Rachael Joseph) served tea. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. S. B. Chamberlain, Miss Jessie Murch, and Miss Margaret Catlin.

Mrs. Robert Lewis and son, Cleo H. Hunt II, left yesterday for Seaside to open their cottage, where they will pass the balance of the summer. Mrs. Lewis will be joined next week by her sister, Miss Martha Hoyt, and Master Robert Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis entertained informally at dinner Friday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Woodworth, of St. Paul. Additional guests were Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell. Mr. Woodworth is traffic manager of the Northern Pacific and is en route to his home. Mrs. Woodworth spent a few days as house guest of Miss Maude Alsworth.

Miss Genevieve Thompson presided at luncheon at the Waverly Golf Club on Wednesday, complimenting Mrs. Rufus B. von Kleinsmid (Miss Elizabeth Sawyer) of Greenacres, Ind., and Mrs. Helena Cochran, of Kansas City, who is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobs. Additional guests were Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. John E. Cronan, Mrs. Chester Griffin Murphy (Miss Angela Kinney), Miss Eleanor Gile, and the Misses Cornelia and Cully Cook. Mrs.
