

DOUGLAS COUNTY TROUT STREAMS OFFER INDUCEMENTS TO CAMPERS

Rock Creek Surrounded by Picturesque Country, Is Reached by Good Roads—The Streams Are Well Stocked With Trout and the Country Is Free From Insects and Reptiles.

The Narrows One of the Attractive Points on the River

Roseburg Women Enjoy The Fishing

Fishing from A Rocky Bluff A Beautiful Spot on the North Umpqua River

A Beautiful Spot on the North Umpqua River

BY W. A. PETTIT.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—With the advent of the usual Summer vacation season, Roseburg, like many other Southern Oregon cities, is losing hundreds of its residents bent on passing the warm months at the various resorts, both far and near.

While there are many residents of Roseburg who look ahead to their annual outing at Newport, Seaside, and other coast resorts of statewide prominence, there are others who this year contemplate passing their vacations along the picturesque trout streams of Douglas County, Douglas County. It is believed, affords the summer resorts equal to those found in distant parts of the state, and with proper advertising would soon become the mecca of the Southern Oregon tourist.

The citizens of Roseburg are blessed with Summer resorts at their very door. Go in any direction that you may and you will soon parallel a trout stream which affords excellent entertainment for sportsmen. Especially is this true of the country north and east of Roseburg. While there are countless natural trout streams, the name of this picturesque stream and a natural target for the cameraman, this stream abounds in mountain trout.

Stream Easily Reached.

Rock Creek may be reached by a two hours' automobile ride from Roseburg, leaving Roseburg on the prospective wagon road for five miles to Dixonville, a hamlet which has for its chief support the trade of a thriving farming and logging community. Leaving this village, the road turns north and continues along a picturesque mountain road for six miles to Oak Creek. This hamlet, like Dixonville, is a trading center for farmers, who enjoy the same conveniences as are found in the larger and more thickly populated communities. Leaving Oak Creek, the country is rugged to the state fish hatchery. This institution, although little advertised, is well worth the attention of the camper.

The main building is comparatively new and attractive. Here thousands of trout and salmon are hatched annually, and upon reaching the maturing stage are distributed among the various streams. The hatchery is located on the bank of the North Umpqua.

SUMMER RESORT NEWS

(Continued From Page 5)

Wash.; C. E. Johnson and wife, Portland.

The guests registered at the Abbey are: O. C. Wolfe, Albany; Copeland Grant, Walla Walla, Wash.; Mrs. Kingston, Toledo; J. M. Richards, Portland; C. M. Hunter, Portland; D. Webster, Portland; E. Williams and family, Portland; Mrs. A. Reagle, Spokane; Mrs. A. Klotzman, Spokane; Mrs. M. S. Bartow, Portland; E. F. Bowers, Miss Frankie Bowers and maid, Portland; John F. Cahill, Spokane, Wash.; A. E. Green, Springfield; J. M. Stone, Taft; Jerome Fuleer, Portland; A. G. Fraser and wife and daughter, Boise, Idaho; F. W. Welden, Portland; C. D. Alderman, Portland; Mr. Brayton, Salem; Mrs. O. C. Locke, Salem; Mrs. E. L. Baker, Salem; Ralph Burroughs, Salem; P. C. Sperry, Portland; Winnie Fuxell, Portland; Mr. Metzger, Corvallis; C. A. Lewis, Corvallis; Nat Stewart, Eva Stewart, Santa Barbara, Cal.; Mrs. M. E. Teal, Portland; Mrs. F. A. Halm, Corvallis; Fred Dawson, Albany; A. B. Cordill; Albany; H. S. Gallagher, Hood River; C. I. Lewis, Corvallis; J. G. Kelsey, Harrisburg; A. Jackson, Portland; J. F. McLean and wife, Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Henderson, son and daughter, Portland; M. H. Savage, wife

Miss Helen Littlejohn, Portland; S. E. Dorris, St. Louis; S. E. Kirkwood, Salem; George W. Lutz, Eugene, Mr. H. Hamaker, Toledo.

Those registered at the Osburn are: J. H. Baker, Salem; H. D. Baker, Tacoma, Wash.; Ellis Colley, Salem; L. Stollhammer, Salem; Mrs. George Hedges, Walla Walla, Wash.; Alfred Shefind, Macoy; F. R. Crandare, Port Valley; F. D. Shepard, Portland; Anna Hanson, George Irons, Portland; B. J. Moore, I. B. Metcalf, Spokane; Mrs. Etta W. Boylan and Ruth Boylan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Norris, Portland; Frederic Norris, Portland.

PAVILION OPENING BRILLIANT

Dancing and Bathing by Moonlight Furnish Amusement.

BAR VIEW BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The opening of the new pavilion here tonight was an unusually brilliant affair, numerous visitors coming from the adjoining resorts along the Garibaldi beaches, from Bayoccean and the adjoining town. Music for the affair was furnished by the Tillamook concert band of 200 pieces. The presence of members of the Garibaldi lifesaving crew, from the station near by, furnished a touch of interest. Special excursions were carried out by the boats in the bay and by the yacht Henrietta, under Captain Jenkins.

Dancing in the pavilion, moonlight bathing, rowing on the lake and other diversions kept the guests busy every minute. The feature for Sunday will be the baseball game between the Tillamook Commercial club nine and the Winton Six nine from Portland.

This resort is the latest of those along Garibaldi beach to be opened. It occupies a portion of the famous Smith property just north of the Garibaldi railroad station. Attempts have been made to eliminate as far as possible "dress parade" attractions, as at many of the other beaches, and accommodations are furnished mainly by the tent city and the cottages along the shore.

Smith's Lake, just back of the seawall, provides excellent fresh-water fishing and boating. The surf drills of the Lifesaving Station are also an attractive feature on Tuesdays. The famous Tillamook bar is in plain view from the pavilion.

The place has added romantic interest from the fact that the Smith house, near by, was one of the few houses along the Oregon coast in early days and the first erected in this locality. Captain Smith has occupied the place for 23 years.

The place is provided with regular hotel accommodations, with advantages of living practically out of doors. A complete water system has been installed, and light is furnished from an acetylene plant installed by the company.

Among the visitors from the city tonight were the following from Tillamook: Mr. and Mrs. Webb Holmes, with Miss Rita Holmes, their daughter; the Misses Theresa and Ethel Gaylord, Miss Olive Case, Arthur Case, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Case, L. V. Eberhardt, Sidney Henderson, Mrs. E. B. Jones, Nellie, the Misses Gladys and Helen Beale, George Arnsperker, William Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cady and Eugene Jenkins. Members of the Tillamook baseball team, who were also guests, were: Howard Edmunds, T. B. Handley, Floyd Eberhart, Kent King, John Peterson, F. A. Rhodes, W. P. Tucker, Howard Mellis and William Herck.

MT. HOOD RESORTS ATTRACT

Bungalows and Cabins Are Being Built for Summer Use.

At the Western Mount Hood resorts many Portland people are planning to spend the summer. The Welch Hotel a number of bungalows are being built for Portland people—two at Deer Park, one at Saratoga and two near the Mountain Hotel on the Salmon River. William Welch has erected a new store building and Anderson Bros., of Portland, have built an addition to their cabin on the west side of Salmon River.

W. B. Steele is building a bungalow nearby on his acre tract, and work has been started on the home of Dr. J. M. Boyd on his acre tract. Several bungalows are being built near Rhododendron Tavern. M. A. Mann, of Portland, has erected a cabin on his land near Laurel Ridge. Mrs. Charles Keadler and her son are staying at their summer home at Welch's. Charles Gedecke and family are staying at their summer home, Mrs. Van der Vliet's cottage, a few days at her cottage at Laurel Lodge.

The summer homes all through the district are filling up for the season. The roads are in better condition than in years, outside of some muddy places near Cherryville. The road to Government Camp from the Toll Gate has been greatly improved and it is expected that many have already driven to Government Camp.

At Cherryville, on the Mount Hood automobile road, the Peabody Hotel has Summer homes. Rev. John H. Boyd, of Portland, has completed a Summer home here and his family are spending the season there. H. H. Boddy, of Mount Tabor, has erected a Summer home on his land near Cherryville. He also has erected a sanitarium. Rev. A. J. Thompson, of Graham, will lay out his home near here. At Brightwood a number of people have camped for the season. Two daily automobile stages from Portland run to these resorts.

MANY PERSONS AT TILLAMOOK

Vacationers Find Rest and Quiet From Gale of Beaches.

TILLAMOOK, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Visitors to this city for short vacations with friends or to find a quiet rest from the gale of the beaches have been numerous. The late week is making his headquarters here during his visit to the different beaches and numerous fishing trips through the mountains and along the Willson and Salmonberry rivers.

William Wiley and niece, Miss Cletha Wiley, of The Dalles, are visiting the former's brother, C. B. Wiley, this trip being the first one to Tillamook in the 50 years he has lived in Oregon. County Judge Homer Mason made a short trip to Bayoccean with friends this week on business connected with the new highway from Tillamook to that place.

Mrs. Fred C. Baker, with a party of friends, including Mrs. W. K. Slater and children, and Miss Sadie Banfield, of Portland, composed a picnic party to Bayoccean during the week. The resort is especially popular among visitors here on account of the pleasant diversions carried on there.

SEASON OPENS AT NETARTS

Fishing and Clamming Parties Are Diversions of Visitors.

NETARTS BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The season opened here in earnest this week and many visitors arrived for short outings at the hotel and on the camping grounds. The list includes Mrs. F. A. Brown and daughter, Naomi, Mrs. William E. Ruppell, Lewis Ruppell, Elma Ruppell, Alice Brown, Mrs. E. S. Brown, all of Portland; J. H. DeFord, of Oregon City; Mrs. Lucy F. Wier, of Portland; Hans E. Rudolph and Ray Padcock, of Oregon City; and W. A. Branch, Frances Branch, Christian W. B. Kurd, of Medford; Frank Wymer, Medford; Edgar E. Suro, San Francisco; C. E. Hoop, Portland; H. P. Oleson and wife, Miss Littlejohn and

The Purchase of a STEINWAY Piano Closes the Avenue to Future Regret

Home of the Steinway Sherman, May & Co. Home of the Steinway

OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE PORTLAND, OR. MORRISON AT SIXTH

ROCKAWAY BEACH, Or., July 20.—

(Special.)—Work on the big hotel has been delayed on account of difficulty in securing lumber, but it is expected to be opened for business by August 1. A. R. Cumpston, of Portland, has just completed his new cottage and will occupy it immediately with his family.

The new cottage being erected here by G. A. Boldrick, of Forest Grove, is now completed and the family has opened it for the Summer.

Joe Campbell, of Hillsboro, has opened his cottage and moved his family here to pass the Summer.

DIFFICULTY IN SECURING LUMBER

ROCKAWAY BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Work on the big hotel has been delayed on account of difficulty in securing lumber, but it is expected to be opened for business by August 1. A. R. Cumpston, of Portland, has just completed his new cottage and will occupy it immediately with his family.

The new cottage being erected here by G. A. Boldrick, of Forest Grove, is now completed and the family has opened it for the Summer.

Joe Campbell, of Hillsboro, has opened his cottage and moved his family here to pass the Summer.

PENDLETON LETS PAVING CONTRACT.

PENDLETON, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The Council of Pendleton yesterday allowed the bid of the Warren Construction Company, Portland, and a contract was let to pave West Court street from Main to Ash streets, with bituminous pavement, the amount involved being approximately $25,000. Work on laying the pavement will commence within ten days and will be completed before the Round-Up opens. Court street is one of the main thoroughfares leading to Round-Up Park and its improvement is of great importance, owing to the crowds expected here in September.

PASTOR TO LIVE ON RANCH

Rev. Herbert G. Crocker Leaves Atkinson Memorial Church.

Rev. Herbert G. Crocker has resigned the pastorate of Atkinson Memorial Congregational Church, East Twenty-ninth and East Everett streets, and with his wife and little son will leave shortly for Newberg, Or., where he has bought 50 acres of land for a fruit ranch.

Mr. Crocker was the first pastor of Atkinson Church, and built it up nicely. He has had much success in his ministerial work. He decided to live on a ranch at Newberg because life, out of doors has been recommended for his wife and son.

FARMERS TALK CANINERY.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—To determine what steps to take in erecting a canery in the heart of the fruit section of the county, members of the Clark County Fruit Growers' Association will meet tomorrow afternoon. The first issue of the "Clark County Farmer and Fruit Grower," the official organ of the association, edited by Will Delk and George Schuele, will be in the hands of the farmers the first of the week. The magazine, which is to be published monthly, will contain information regarding Western farming and marketing.

Switzerland consumes about 5,000,000 bottles of mineral waters each year.

MANHATTAN BEACH IS POPULAR

MANHATTAN BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The hotel recently opened here is now receiving many visitors, although the cold weather during June has kept back Summer traffic considerably.

C. L. McEwen, of Portland, will open his cottage here the first of the week and will make his place an open house for the entertainment of friends during the season.

Mr. McGilvery, of McGilvery & Seely, of Portland, have been camping here for the past ten days. His family will remain here for several weeks.

LAKE LITTLE BEACH ATTRACTS.

LAKE LITTLE BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The end of the Elk's con-

VENTION AND THE SUDDEN WAVE OF HOT WEATHER

have brought visitors here in large numbers, many of whom passed the week-end and others passed a night at the tent city on their way along the Garibaldi beaches. Among those who have arrived for a short stay are Miss Augusta Miller, with her niece, Miss Edith and Mildred, of Portland, who arrived early in the week for a stay of two weeks. The opening of the Bar View Summer resort, a few miles down the coast, attracted a good deal of attention and a large party went there Saturday night to stay until Sunday morning.

ROCKAWAY HOTEL IS DELAYED

ROCKAWAY BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Work on the big hotel has been delayed on account of difficulty in securing lumber, but it is expected to be opened for business by August 1. A. R. Cumpston, of Portland, has just completed his new cottage and will occupy it immediately with his family.

The new cottage being erected here by G. A. Boldrick, of Forest Grove, is now completed and the family has opened it for the Summer.

Joe Campbell, of Hillsboro, has opened his cottage and moved his family here to pass the Summer.

PENDLETON LETS PAVING CONTRACT.

PENDLETON, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The Council of Pendleton yesterday allowed the bid of the Warren Construction Company, Portland, and a contract was let to pave West Court street from Main to Ash streets, with bituminous pavement, the amount involved being approximately $25,000. Work on laying the pavement will commence within ten days and will be completed before the Round-Up opens. Court street is one of the main thoroughfares leading to Round-Up Park and its improvement is of great importance, owing to the crowds expected here in September.

PASTOR TO LIVE ON RANCH

Rev. Herbert G. Crocker Leaves Atkinson Memorial Church.

Rev. Herbert G. Crocker has resigned the pastorate of Atkinson Memorial Congregational Church, East Twenty-ninth and East Everett streets, and with his wife and little son will leave shortly for Newberg, Or., where he has bought 50 acres of land for a fruit ranch.

Mr. Crocker was the first pastor of Atkinson Church, and built it up nicely. He has had much success in his ministerial work. He decided to live on a ranch at Newberg because life, out of doors has been recommended for his wife and son.

FARMERS TALK CANINERY.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—To determine what steps to take in erecting a canery in the heart of the fruit section of the county, members of the Clark County Fruit Growers' Association will meet tomorrow afternoon. The first issue of the "Clark County Farmer and Fruit Grower," the official organ of the association, edited by Will Delk and George Schuele, will be in the hands of the farmers the first of the week. The magazine, which is to be published monthly, will contain information regarding Western farming and marketing.

Switzerland consumes about 5,000,000 bottles of mineral waters each year.

MANHATTAN BEACH IS POPULAR

MANHATTAN BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The hotel recently opened here is now receiving many visitors, although the cold weather during June has kept back Summer traffic considerably.

C. L. McEwen, of Portland, will open his cottage here the first of the week and will make his place an open house for the entertainment of friends during the season.

Mr. McGilvery, of McGilvery & Seely, of Portland, have been camping here for the past ten days. His family will remain here for several weeks.

LAKE LITTLE BEACH ATTRACTS.

LAKE LITTLE BEACH, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The end of the Elk's con-

Bayoccean The Playground of the Pacific Northwest

THE BAY SHORE AND OCEAN BEACHES are admirable for bathing, which is enjoyed during the entire Summer by practically every visitor to this, the leading Summer resort of the Pacific.

Manzanita Beach

THE ED LANE PLACE

Those desiring to purchase a lot on the Ocean Beach cannot afford to buy before seeing this new tract, for a better offering has not presented itself along this line heretofore. Near the railroad, near Nehalem Bay, facing on the ocean, near Necarney Mountain—mean ocean breeze, fishing and hunting, sailing on the bay, or if you want, climb a mountain. Your lot all cleared. Water brought into the tract, streets graded, and other things will be done to make this an exceedingly enjoyable place. Don't think of buying until you have seen Manzanita Beach. Write or call on us for full information. Prices run from $75.00 up. Easy terms.

Manzanita Selling Agency, Room 601 Board of Trade Building