LEWIS MEN CONVENTION

Chehalis Rendezvous for Executive Committee.

PARTY MEMBERS RETURN

Rank and File of Republicans Back to Fold After Being Induced to Walk Out at Aberdeen Convention.

CHEHALIS, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—The executive committee of the Lewis County Republican Central Committee met today in Chehalis to consider matters of interest in connection with the coming campaign.

Despite the fact that at the recent convention of Lewis County Republicans to choose delegates to the Aberdeen convention there was a bolt of the Roosevelt and La Follette followers, resulting in the sending there of a contesting delegation, members of the party generally in this county are sure of naming a winning ticket again at the September primaries.

At the same time James Stevenson, a retired lumberman of Puyallup, expects to take up research from the direction of Shelton. Stevenson believes Tornow made away with his brother, John, who has been missing since last October. When last heard of he was going into the Oxbow district as a log scaler. The Bauer murders were committed in September last year. No one has been seen since, unless Volmer and McKenzie saw him before they died. That is considered doubtful, as every evidence shows that the two were killed from an ambush. Search for him, under the direction of the county authorities, was given up about a month ago.

WOMAN'S ANKLE BROKEN

Accident at Cottage Grove Lays Up Mrs. VanValin.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Alice VanValin suffered a severe fracture of the right ankle Thursday morning when she jumped out of a buggy, fearing that the horse was going to overturn the rig.

EDITOR'S WIFE IS HURT

LEBANON, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. H. Y. Kirkpatrick, wife of Editor Kirkpatrick of the Lebanon Express, was severely hurt last night when she stumbled over a lawn mower. She had started across the street and while crossing the yard fell over the mower and was severely cut and bruised.

AGED ELK IN PARADE

G. R. H. Miller, 80, Tramped Hot Route in Big Pageant.

FATIGUE HARDLY KNOWN

Pioneer Resident of Oregon City Says He Thoroughly Enjoyed Festivities in Portland During Lodge Convention.

OREGON CITY, July 20.—(Special.)—G. R. H. Miller, one of the prominent residents of Oregon City, and a member of the Order of Elks, was probably the oldest member of the lodge marching in the big parade held in Portland last Thursday during the Elks' convention. He is more than 80 years.

TORNOW IS HUNTED AGAIN

Independent Posse Starts Out to Find Alleged Murderer.

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Headed by Otto Schumack, a posse of three woodmen left here this morning to take up search for John Tornow, alleged slayer of his twin nephews, John and Will Bauer, and Deputy Sheriff Colin McKenzie and A. Volmer, who were shot down while hunting Tornow for the Bauer murders. Schumack is acting independently of the county authorities. His companions are picked men. They know the woods thoroughly. Schumack will go into the Oxbow country, the Wynoochee Valley, where Tornow is supposed to be.

FALCONER IN RACE

Everett Citizen Seeks Congressional Nomination.

PUBLIC RECORD IS KNOWN

Candidate Has Served in Both Houses of Washington Legislature and Is an Open Supporter of Theodore Roosevelt.

EVERETT, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Senator J. A. Falconer today formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination as Representative at large in Congress. While for some time he has been regarded as a tentative candidate and, in consideration of Congressional possibilities, has played a prominent part, not until now has he definitely announced his candidacy for that he will enter the race.

BANK DIRECTOR WINS CASE

Receiver of Seaside Institution Fails to Recoup From One Official.

ASTORIA, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The Circuit Court jury in the case of Frank S. Godfrey, receiver of the Bank of Seaside, against R. P. Baruch, one of the directors of the defunct institution, returned a verdict this evening for the defendant.
