THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, JULY 21, 1912.

Two Cases of Paralysis Knowa. Two cases of paralysis under re-markable circumstances are reported. Friday evenins, in front of the police station, John Woods, a lineman, be-came partially paralyzed while work-ing at the top of a 40-foot pole. Two policemen had to climb the pole to rescue him. The other case is that of W. H. Jones, manager of several con-cessions at the Ouks, who was sud-denly paralyzed from the shoulders downward while swimming in the nat-atorium at the amusement resort Mon-day night. He has shown little im-provement since.

Automobile accidents have been in-creasing at an alarming rate lately. This seems to be due to the utter apathy with which the police have been viewing violators of traffic regulations. Violations of these regulations are now seen at very turn on the street. The number of such accidents hap-pening during the first three months of 1912. CHEAP LIVING FIGURED OUT

Thanks for Sulphurro Georgetown, Wash. The C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Co., 71 Columbia St., Seattle, Wash. Gentlemen-When I commenced to take Sulphurro I had been to take Suppure 1 had been iroubled for a long time with rheu-matism. This was so bad at times that I could hardly dress myself. But after taking it for two weeks I was much better, and at the end of four weeks was cured, and have not been troubled since. I sincerely thank you for what it has done for me

(Signed) M. WILBUR.
