tion with the international.

The Oregonian has made arrangements for an extended report on each day's play of the international; in fact, all the victories and losses of the Portland players will be recorded in detail, so far as space will permit. This work will be covered by Mr. Andrews, former president of the association, and who undoubtedly will be a candidate for secretary at the coming election, as it is rumored that Secretary Cave-Browne-Cave, of Vancouver, will resign at the Victoria meeting.

Daily Letter to Supplement.

Mr. Andrews will supplement his daily telegraphic stories with a daily letter on the showing of the Portland players. Owing to Mr. Andrews' ability as a tennis expert and his standing with the association members he will be in a position to give the readers of The Oregonian the best at command.

Five May Make Trip.

Among those who have signified their intention of going north are Miss Frene Campbell, state champion; Miss Stella Fording, former state champion; Miss Schaefer, Miss Fox and probably

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—(Special.)
-What with the Federal Government prohibiting the transportation of moving fight pictures between states and he people of Southern California agitating the signing of petitions to have an anti-fight bill placed on the ballot for next November, it can't be said that the boxing game in this section is in good shape. The action of Congress in prohibiting interstate traffic will, to all intents and purposes, kill off the picture end of the sport.

Pictures can be taken of the fight and exhibited in that particular state. for all the Government cares, but that will not amount to much. For instance, while Premoter McCarey and Tom Jones made considerable money from the Wolgast-Rivers fight pictures, they GOOD SCHEDULE ARRANGED sold the California state rights for the promoter something like $1000, it can readily be seen that the profits amount to little or nothing.

The move for an anti-prizefight bill to go before the people at the general election in November originated in Southern California. There seems to be no doubt but that the question will go before the voters, and when it goes that far it is almost a foregone conclusion that professional exhibits will be
