

JURY IN DARROW CASE IN STREETS

Court Held on Corners, in Saloon and in Rooming-House.

SCENE OF ARREST VISITED

Judge, Prisoner, Jurors, Bailiffs and Attorneys Go by Auto to Points Mentioned in Connection With Bribe.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—In the bribery case of Clarence S. Darrow, a session of the court was held on three corners in the business section of the city, inside of a saloon and on the third floor of a rooming house. Shortly after court opened, the jury was conveyed in automobiles to the scene of the alleged bribery of George N. Lockwood, salesman, and at Third and Los Angeles streets, the place where the bribe money was said to have been passed, Judge Hutton reconvened court, in the presence of hundreds of curious spectators attracted to the spot by the unusual scene.

Judge Alone Addresses Jury.

By stipulation of opposing counsel, Judge Hutton alone addressed the jury as it visited the various points in the vicinity mentioned in the evidence, the court reporter standing at the elbow recording his remarks, as well as the frequent suggestions of counsel. A half dozen bailiffs guarded the jury as the itinerant session of court was held and at each stop newspaper photographers mounted wagons and automobiles to take pictures. The saloon in which detectives waited for the appearance of Bert H. Franklin, the confessed briber, was visited and the patrons ejected while a brief session was held, the bartender removing the evidence of recently served refreshments.

Jurors Visit Scene of Arrest.

After a visit to the rooming-house a block distant, from the window of which Detective Samuel Brown, so he testified, watched the meeting between Lockwood and C. E. White, the "stakeholder" of the alleged bribe money, the jury was taken to the scene of Franklin's arrest, after which court officials, jurors, counsel and reporters returned to the courtroom where court was adjourned until Monday morning. Judge Hutton's failure today to rule on the question of extending the scope of Darrow's cross-examination to the Harrington conversations, said to have been recorded by means of a telephonic device, destroyed whatever hope was entertained that the trial could be ended next week. Although it is believed that the defense will close Monday, it is believed that the case finally will go to the jury not before late in the following week.

Ohio Taft Man Says T. R. Demanded He Support Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—L. C. Laylin, an Ohio Taft leader, just appointed Assistant Secretary of the Interior, made public at the White House a letter from Judge E. D. Dillon, who recently declined the republican nomination for Governor of Ohio. Judge Dillon wrote he had received from Colonel Roosevelt a letter demanding that he declare for him (Colonel Roosevelt) or face the opposition of a second candidate. Judge Dillon wrote in part: "I have not desired to continue discussion of the affair, and was surprised that there was any question as to the attitude of Mr. Roosevelt, as represented here in Ohio and other states. Everybody knows, or soon will know, his peremptory demand has been from the beginning, with respect to the regular nominee for Governor, that the nominee must declare for him, or he will nominate another candidate who will. This was true in my case, and I refused."

Salem Men Will Walk to Coos and Curry County Institutes.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—E. F. Carleton, Oregon Superintendent of Public Instruction, accompanied by Charles H. and Allan Jones, left for Coos and Curry counties, where they will attend teachers' institutes, and by way of recreation will do most of their traveling on foot after reaching West Fork. They intend to walk from West Fork over the mountains to Agness, a distance of 52 miles, and from there will go by boat to Gold Beach. After the institute at Gold Beach the pedestrians intend to hike from there to Bandon, a distance of 65 miles, along the beach, to attend the Coos County Institute. Mr. Carleton and Charles H. Jones will both take prominent parts in the two institutes.

BILL POSTER MEN SUED

Government Would Cause Dissolution of Organization.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Suit for dissolution of the Associated Bill Posters and Distributors of the United States and Canada, who have been successful in the Postage Advertising Association, was filed today in the United States District Court here. In a petition in equity Attorney-General Wickersham charged a conspiracy to destroy competition, fix prices and monopolize and dominate the bill-posting business of this country and Canada. In addition to the dissolution, the Government asks injunctions against practices and agreements said to be in violation of the Sherman law.

Many Want Offices in Pacific County, Washington.

RAYMOND, Wash., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Pacific County will have plenty of candidates for every office, from Coroner to State Representative. Filings of declarations are being made daily by those candidates who early in the day announced themselves for one office or another, and unless all sign their names by the eleventh-hour filings by men who cannot withstand the urging of their friends. For the non-partisan position of Superior Judge for Pacific and Waukegan counties, there are five filings. Judge Sol Smith, the present incumbent, former Judge N. H. Bloomfield, former Prosecuting Attorney J. I. Brumbaugh, Assistant Prosecutor Edward H. Wright and C. H. Fuqua, the latter an attorney of this city, are all willing to serve. For Representative, Charles A. Payne, of Chinook, a newspaperman, prominently in the order of names. It is only now so far to announce himself, although it is rumored he will have two and probably three opponents, one a Democrat, Captain A. T. Stream, of Klaskan Beach.

Three attorneys want to serve as Prosecutor. They are John I. O'Phelan, who held the office one term; H. W. E. Hewen and P. D. Coudan, of South Bend. They are Republicans.

Five aspire to the office of Sheriff, four Republicans and one Democrat. They are: A. E. McDonald, former Sheriff; Deputy J. J. Clark, E. F. Wood, J. T. Stratton, T. H. Bell.

Two Republicans and a Democrat would be County Clerk. E. A. Seaborg, J. T. Dorrien, City Treasurer of Raymond, and G. G. Hicks, a South Bend Councilman.

Joe Glasbrook will probably have no opposition for Treasurer. While no filings have been made for the office of Auditor and Assessor, it is generally conceded that Walter Lovvick, Deputy Auditor, and K. Brown, present Assessor, will be likely to run without opposition.

Angus Jack, C. W. Borabeck and Mrs. Angela Murdock would serve as County Superintendent, while Dr. Edward R. Perry, Dr. J. T. Dalton and R. S. Henderson would like to be Coroners.

For County Commissioner of the Third District, there are already three or four who have filed declarations. They are: E. W. Lilly, F. C. Crawford, F. S. Wilson, all Republicans, and V. M. Bullard, a Democrat.

M. E. Halverson, County Engineer, is out for re-election. He will likely be opposed by City Engineer Hall, of South Bend.

In all, 24 candidates have filed declarations for county jobs, and the final date for filing is still more than a week distant.

WILSON VISITS GOTHAM

RUMORS OF FRICTION FOLLOW CONFERENCE WITH M'COMBS.

Governor's Trip Quiet and After It He Says Important Announcement May Be Made.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Governor Woodrow Wilson came tonight to New York for the first time since he became the Presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket, but scarcely a half dozen persons saw him.

Few persons recognized him on the way and when he reached the Pennsylvania station he walked inconspicuously to the luncheon, where he sat perched on a high stool and obtained over the counter a sandwich and a glass of buttermilk. He hurried away in a few minutes in a taxicab to a club, where he met William F. McCombs, chairman of the National Democratic committee, and conferred with him for several minutes.

The exact purpose of the Governor's informal visit was not divulged. He denied reports of friction, but admitted that important announcements of the campaign plans would follow his conference with Mr. McCombs. It is believed generally the problem before the candidate and his campaign manager, the appointment of a National treasurer, chairman of the National committee and vice-chairmen to preside at the various headquarters in Henry Street, of this city, probably will be either treasurer or head of the finance committee, while it virtually is assured that Senator Thomas Gore, of Oklahoma, will be in charge of the Western headquarters in Chicago.

ARCHBALD TRIAL IS SET

SENATE DELAYS OPENING UNTIL DECEMBER 3.

Postponement Comes After Long Fight for Immediate Hearing as Desired by House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The trial of Robert W. Archbald, Judge of the United States Commerce Court, on impeachment proceedings brought by the House of Representatives today was set by the Senate to open Tuesday, December 3, the second day of the next regular session of the Congress. The postponement of the case came after a long fight by a number of Senators to have an immediate trial as desired by the House. The House managers demanded that the trial open next Wednesday, August 7. Judge Archbald, through his attorney, J. S. Worthington, presented today to the Senate a formal request that it be deferred until October 15. He said his case could not be prepared before that time. After two hours passed in secret session, the Senate by a vote of 44 to 19 determined upon the postponement. Attorney Worthington told the Senate that the accused jurist would not participate in any work of the Commerce Court until the charges against him have been disposed of.

JOSEPH PARKE SUCCEUMS TO GASES IN WELL.

Fred Buskühl Is Rendered Unconscious in Trying to Make Rescue. Victim Is Wealthy.

DEFUR, Or., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Joseph L. Parke was killed and Fred Buskühl narrowly escaped death today as the result of an explosion in a well which Parke was digging on his ranch near Friend, Or. Parke placed a charge of black powder in the well and lighted the fuse at 10 o'clock. About 1 o'clock he returned and descended into the well, but was soon overcome with the smoke and gas. Buskühl went down after him and was overcome also, so that when they were taken out Parke was dead and Buskühl unconscious. He did not revive until evening. Parke was a well-to-do rancher, 53 years of age, and has relatives in Caldwell, Idaho, and Arlington, Wash., and had recently come to Oregon from Washington. Mr. Buskühl is a prominent merchant of Kingsley.

Anti-Trust Decree Is to Stop Possible Combine Influencing Thought.

DISSOLUTION IS UNSOUGHT

Government Will Allow Different Publishing Associations to Exist, but Will Not Permit Alleged Unfair Methods.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—With the filing of an agreed decree in a civil anti-trust suit against the Western Newspaper Union and the American Press Association, the Federal Government today took an advanced step under the Sherman law to prevent what the Department of Justice regarded as the possibility of a combination to influence the thought of 60,000,000 readers of rural newspapers.

The proceedings in this anti-trust suit were terminated in record time. United States District Judge Kenesaw Landis entering the agreed decree immediately following the filing of the Government's petition and the answer of the defendants. The suit was directed against the following corporate and individual publishers: Central West Publishing Company (holding company of the Western Newspaper Union); Western Newspaper Union; Western Newspaper Union of New York; George A. Joslyn, of Omaha, Neb.; John F. Cramer, Milwaukee; H. H. Fish, Omaha; M. H. Miller, Chicago; American Press Association, organized in New York; American Press Association, organized in West Virginia; Cortland Smith; W. G. Brogan, and Maurice F. Germond.

Unfair Methods Barred.

The decree is designed to end a bitter trade war between these corporations, which furnish "boilerplate" and "ready-plate" to thousands of country newspapers. The defendants are restrained from beginning or continuing alleged unfair methods in competition which would result in destroying one or the other and a complete monopoly for the survivor, with all its potential power of influencing sentiment on economic and other important questions of the readers of the 16,000 small newspapers of the United States, which, it is estimated, fall into the hands of two-thirds of the people of the country.

Pointing out that an attempt was made in 1909 to bring about a consolidation of these interests, the Government petition says: "The expectation was that in view of the great power thus acquired in disseminating information, the united property could be used for the great profit to those interested in instilling certain economic ideas in the minds of the public and it was the design that such a disposition should be made."

Defendants Agree to Decree.

"If all plate and ready-print were supplied by one concern," the petition adds, "then the news thus distributed and the discussion of economic and other important questions thus supplied would all be designed to mold the sentiments of the readers to one particular view."

United States Attorney William T. Chandler said the defendants had agreed to the decree on being shown copies of the Government's petition. The Government did not seek the dissolution of either corporation.

While it is charged that the Central West Publishing Company, incorporated in Maine, with a capital of $8,500,000, acquired from 1906 to 1910 at a cost of $2,500,000 the business of competitors for the purpose of monopolizing trade, the Government holds that the absorbed plants have become so identified with the Central West as to be a legal impossibility.

Larger Agencies Held Best.

As another reason against dissolution, the petition says that news gathering and important questions thus supplied by the larger agencies, "if there still remains between the larger agencies fair, genuine and substantial competition."

The central West Publishing Company, it was added had an arrangement for furnishing paper matrices to the Pacific Newspaper Association, which is the ready print department of the American Type Founders' Association, with offices at Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland and Spokane.

As a result it is said there is no competition between the defendants and the Pacific Newspaper Union.

The defendants as a whole together with the associations with which they have trade agreements supply, it is stated, number more than 95 per cent of all the newspapers in the United States, using plate or ready print. The American Press Association, according to the Government, furnished until recently, four-fifths of all the plate material used in this country, while the Western Newspaper Union supplies 80 per cent of the ready print service.

Fight Begun in 1911.

The smaller independent agencies, the Government adds, supply less than 500 newspapers with either stereotyped plate or ready print.

As the result of the failure of negotiations to effect consolidation in 1909, the petition charges that the defendants began a campaign of destructive competition in 1911 and sets forth the alleged methods pursued by each corporation. The decree forbids the continuance of these alleged practices. Ex-

BIG DAY HERE AT LAST

AT 9 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING PRESS EXCURSION LEAVES.

Great Crowd Is Assured and Bonneville Will Be Scene of One Hillarious Good Time.

Nine o'clock this morning is the hour. Portland's Press Club, with as many hundreds, or thousands, of the citizens of Portland as are able to join them, will leave from the Union Station at that time, over the O.-W. R. & N., for the annual excursion and picnic at Bonneville. The latter proportion of the attendance, namely the general public, bids fair to be enormous, according to the announcement of the advance sale of tickets.

As for the members of the Press Club, the officials have announced that every man of them who fails to attend will be hailed before Judge Morrow in the near future and fined to the very limit of the law. Therefore, even if there were one or two who might not be inclined to attend, they will certainly hesitate long before they will attempt to join the small minority that will stay behind.

The excursion will reach Bonneville at about 10 o'clock and an hour will be spent at the fish hatcheries. The list of amusements that has been provided for the remainder of the day is practically limitless. The Ad Club baseball team and the Press Club men will meet on the diamond in a struggle for the championship, and will incidentally give an exhibition of baseball such as has not been seen in the Northwest for many a year. Fat men will race; there will be three-legged races, potato races, barrel races—more different kinds of races than one can find tabulated in the combined records of the Athletic Union.

An orchestra will furnish music in the pavilion for those who wish to dance, and refreshments will be served on the grounds.

Many of the members of the Press Club, according to reports, didn't go home at all last night, for fear they might overlook the summons of the alarm clock this morning and fall to be "in" on the festivities that have been planned.
