

DARROW ACQUITTED; TO BE TRIED AGAIN

Jury Reaches Verdict in 34 Minutes.

REMARKABLE SCENE FOLLOWS

Jurors Embrace Lawyer, Judge Congratulates Him.

THREE BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

Prosecutor Says He Will Insist on Trial Upon Indictment Involving Bain, Which Will Be Set Next Monday.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17.—Clarence S. Darrow was acquitted today of the charge of bribery by a jury, which was exactly 34 minutes considering the case.

Notwithstanding the verdict in this case, according to District Attorney Frederick, Mr. Darrow's ordeal is not over. Frederick declared he would insist upon the trial of the lawyer on a second indictment.

As he sat in a cafe a few blocks from the scene of his trial and acquittal this afternoon surrounded by a few intimate friends and finding more relief in the perusal of scores of congratulatory telegrams than in his luncheon, Darrow apparently was unconcerned in the statement of the prosecutor. Although declining to discuss the threatened second long ordeal, he said he was too happy to feel alarm at anything.

Congratulatory Telegrams Pour In. Mr. Darrow was showered with telegrams from all parts of the country, which began pouring in within an hour after the verdict was given to the world. They came from labor organizations, leaders of organized labor, intimate friends and many whom he does not know. Most of them came from Chicago, his home and the scene of most of his professional activities for a century.

The courtroom scene which followed the reading of the verdict, just 34 minutes after the jury had retired, this morning was one that had no parallel in the court annals of this city. Jurors whose phlegmatic countenances had given no hint of their feelings throughout the three months and more which elapsed since the trial began, embraced the man they had tried and with tears running down their cheeks declared it was the happiest day of their lives.

Jurors Stay for Reception. Court officials, including Judge Hutton and the half dozen bailiffs joined in the congratulations and Mrs. Darrow, to whom the trial was a continuous nervous strain, stood speechlessly happy with one hand in her husband's, and with the other wringing those of the jurors.

For two hours the courtroom scene virtually was unchanged except for the grouping about the erstwhile defendant and his wife. A half dozen of the jurors, forgetting their long weeks away from home, remained throughout to participate in the impromptu reception.

Stopped at every step by pedestrians who wanted to shake hands with him, Darrow required nearly half an hour to make his way two blocks to the cafe where he and a small group of friends went for luncheon.

Darrow's Attorneys Incredulous. Darrow's attorneys expressed incredulity when informed that there would be a trial on the Bain indictment. They pointed out that all of the evidence in the Bain case had been submitted in the trial just ended.

DOCTOR BILL FOR ASTOR BABY HUGE

$1000 A DAY BEING PAID TO DR. E. B. CRAGIN.

Physician to Widow and Little John Jacob Astor VI to Be in Attendance for Six Weeks.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—John Jacob Astor VI is one of the most expensive babies ever brought into the world. Gossip in the medical world is that Dr. Edwin Bradford Cragin, to whom credit is due for the safe advent of this baby, is receiving $1000 for each day he is in attendance on Mrs. Madeline Force Astor and her young son.

Dr. Cragin left his country place at Colchester, Conn., and took up his residence at the Astor mansion August 14. It is expected that Dr. Cragin will remain a member of the Astor household until early in September, for Mrs. Astor is so anxious that her son shall be correct, "bred on a healthy and hearty career," that she herself shall suffer no "ease. She wishes to be healthy, strong and normal, that she may rear the child, whom she must be both mother and father, and to whom she says she expects to devote her life.

Dr. Cragin may be in constant attendance six weeks. At the rate of $1000 a day his fee would total between $40,000 and $45,000.

LADY MOOSE OUT OF IT

"Women's Auxiliary to Party" at Spokane Meets Death.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The "women's auxiliary to the Bull Moose party" was officially killed at a meeting at Progressive headquarters Friday night, and Mrs. A. F. Fassett, who had been chosen temporary president of the new order, thereby lost her office.

Although the women were careful to bring no personalities into the debate, the fight generally was regarded as one engineered by the element favorable to Mrs. Phoebe Cox against Mrs. Fassett, who had gained the controlling position in the new organization. In future there will be no separate women's organization. The Progressives of the fair sex will work with the masculine members of the Roosevelt Republican League.

The women met Friday night for the purpose of perfecting their organization, but Mrs. Cox explained to them that since they had the suffrage, the feminine Moose should herd with the Bull Moose in the central organization instead of by themselves. A motion was made to make the temporary organization of the "women's auxiliary to the Bull Moose party" permanent, but it lost.

SEATTLE SESSION STORMY ONE

State Convention Given Power Regardless of Primary.

SPOKANE FACTION CONTENT

East Side Satisfied It Can Name Successful Progressive Candidates. Seattle Gets September 10 Gathering.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—After sparring all the afternoon and three times reversing themselves, members of the Progressive party campaign committee tonight compromised with the Spokane delegation, decided to make it optional with each county organization whether or not local tickets are to be named; granted authority to the state convention, which will be called to meet in Seattle September 10, to seat county delegations irrespective of whether or not preferential primaries are held, but still adhered to the requirement that a preferential primary vote should be binding upon the delegates from the voting unit.

The preferential primary situation and all that is said about it is rather difficult for readers of the convention call to understand. Theoretically a primary vote is to control the state convention in all matters to come before it, but as O. C. Moore and A. W. Davis of the Spokane delegation pointed out after it was all over, the state convention recognized the authority of the convention to do as its own sweet will dictated. It may determine when returns are in whether or not a sufficient number of counties have held primaries and whether or not the result represents the popular sentiment.

East Side Satisfied. In all probability the Spokane men who led a fight against the primary vote will not attempt to upset the result in the advisory voting called for on September 19, but Moore and Davis are going home determined to advise progressives to withdraw from the Republican primaries and enter a progressive fight. They insisted when the committee light ended tonight that it had been made possible for Eastern Washington progressive ticket from top to bottom. But both pointed out the fact that if any east side counties desired to name its own local ticket and support a Progressive party state ticket, the way has been left open to do so.

Now that it is all over, neither Moore nor Davis desires to offer criticism, but half an hour before the final decision both agreed that they would have won the fight against a primary for state officers and a compulsory county ticket had the King County proxy holders obeyed instructions from their committee.

There were ten counties represented in today's meeting by committeemen and 16 others who were present by proxy. Eight Seattle men held East side proxies and after the first skirmish the Seattle proxy holders began voting against the sentiment of the committeemen they represented. This circumstance really is responsible for the decision in favor of a state-wide preferential primary, which Spokane leaders insisted was impracticable and which many West Side county representatives held would degenerate into a scapbox affair.

HORRORS! FATHER OF COUNTRY SWORE

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS' DIARY PRODUCED AS PROOF.

George Washington Quoted as Emphatically Stating His Aversion for Senate Chamber.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—George Washington actually swore. It must be true because Senator Lodge told the Senate so today and produced the documents to prove it.

Senator Lodge was discussing a proposition by Senator Newlands to send a committee to the President to confer on the tariff. Precedents had been cited.

"Yes," Senator Lodge said, "President Washington once did visit the Senate and confer about a pending Indian treaty. But the discussion on the floor was hardly satisfactory to him. John Quincy Adams in his diary says: 'As the president left, the Senate chambers he said: "I'll be damned if I'll ever go there again," and he never did.'"

Senator Lodge produced Adams' diary to prove the incident.

TAFT SIGNS PENSION BILL

$160,000,000 Appropriation Approved—Payment Begins.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—President Taft's first official act today was to sign the $160,000,000 pension appropriation bill. The Pension Office was immediately notified and telegraph orders were sent to the 18 outlying agencies to start payment at once of the money so long held up by the delay in Congress. Each pensioner in the United States will be paid by Tuesday at the latest. Paymaster-General Smith of the Army today authorized payment to enlisted men of the regular Army for the month of July, leaving the June pay to be distributed later. The officers already have received their pay for June. The pay of the regulars has been held up in the general deficiency bill.

WAR SCARE IS RIDICULED

British Lawmaker Thinks Gunmakers Financed Agitation.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 17.—The inflated fears and the absurd theories regarding the Anglo-German war scare have no foundation except in the imagination of a lot of jingo jackasses. The above was the characteristic and picturesque description of Joseph Martin, member of parliament for East St. Pancras, London, and former Premier of British Columbia, when asked for his views on the question which is at present engaging the serious attention of British and Canadian statesmen. Mr. Martin was inclined to subscribe to the theory of Henri Bourassa, that the present war scare was organized and financed by the Vickers of England and Krupp of Germany.

ASSAY OFFICES OMITTED

Senate Expected to Restore Appropriation Left Out by House.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 17.—The House today, in passing the legislative bill in lieu of the bill vetoed by the President, made no provision for maintaining assay offices during the present year at Boise, Helena, Salt Lake City, Deadwood and Charlotte, N. C., or mints at New Orleans and Carson City. It is believed the Senate appropriations committee will restore the appropriations to continue operating these assay offices and mints and that the Senate will adopt them.

PIER FALLS, SHIP SINKS

PANAMA, Aug. 17.—A portion of the old French pier of Balboa, about 160 yards in length, collapsed early today and two heavy electric cranes fell on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer Newport, causing it to sink. No lives were lost. The steamer Newport, which left San Francisco on July 31 for Balboa, was of 2735 gross tonnage and was built in 1880.

CROOK SHERIFF PROBE ON

State Executive Discovers Section of Code Which Gives Him Full Power to Act—Mayor Jones Refuses to Leave Position.

MAYOR JONES REFUSES TO RESIGN POST AT REDMOND. REDMOND, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Mayor Jones refuses to resign from his office as Mayor of the City of Redmond upon the demand of Governor Oswald West this afternoon. On being asked what he would do, the Mayor replied, "I am not going to do anything."

SALEM, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Governor West and Adjutant-General Finzer, at the head of a squad of the Oregon National Guard, will invade Redmond early next week and the executive will declare that town under martial law unless Mayor Jones and the City Marshal submit their resignations immediately.

This was the declaration made by Governor West today and along with the declaration he sent notice to Adjutant-General Finzer to be in readiness next Monday with a selected squad of men to leave for Crook County.

The executive received word today that Mayor Jones has been convicted of gambling and that five others have pleaded guilty. Immediately upon receipt of this news the Governor telegraphed to Redmond, to Jones and to the City Marshal, demanding their immediate resignations.

The Governor late tonight received a telegram from the Mayor that a mass meeting of Redmond citizens would be held, and he would telegraph at the close of the conference his action on the Governor's order.

Governor May Take Personal Charge. Sunday the Governor intends to be in Hood River and will go over the work on the Shillock road. If he finds that Jones and the Marshal have not resigned by Monday he intends to accompany the militia in person from Portland and will take charge of the conditions of affairs at Redmond.

In response to statements made by Balfour that the "Sheriff has found the grand jury would fail to return indictments against disorderly houses, and others of a similar nature," the executive declared that the Sheriff needs no grand jury indictments to do his duty in this respect, that the law is ample enough to give him authority to make raids and that the Sheriff should have gone ahead on his own initiative if the grand jury was not with him.

Too Many Would Blame Others. "Too many of these officers are endeavoring to shoulder the blame off onto somebody else," he declared. "Like 'Bob' Stevens, of Multnomah County who wanted to come to the next Legislature and ask for the passage of a lot of laws to put the roadhouses out of business. He has enough laws to put them out of business and Sheriff Balfour has enough laws to put disorderly houses out of business (Continued on Page 7)

FOG BLOCKS PLAN TO CATCH GUNMEN

WATCHER CAN'T SEE IF "GIP THE BLOOD" LIFTS SKIRTS.

Newspaperman Thinks Man is on Ship Disguised as Woman but Mist Prevents View.

DULUTH, Aug. 17.—If "Gip the Blood," and "Lefty Louie," the former dressed as a woman, were aboard the steamer Tonesta when she docked here this morning, the alleged gunmen implicated in the shooting of Herman Rosenthal were not molested by the police. Only one man was present in the rain and fog to "discover" them.

The correspondent's line of reasoning appeared perfect. If "Gip the Blood," dressed as a female, followed the usual tactics of ladies on rainy days, he would lift his skirts through the drippy dock approach. If he did not he would betray himself by not doing so. The correspondent's cue was to look for big feet under a skirt.

The steamer grated into her berth and the passengers started picking their way over the slippery dock, the ladies most beautifully carrying out the correspondent's theory.

But just then one of old Lake Superior's fogs settled upon the scene and all feet looked alike. The correspondent returned to his office and hung his wet coat on a cold radiator.

BANKER ASTRIDE SALMON

Easterner Catches Fish With Feet and Hands in Rogue River.

MEDFORD, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—S. H. Moorehead, president of the Buffalo Savings Bank of Buffalo, N. Y., visiting friends in this city, has made what he believes is a world's record when he landed a 12-pound salmon from Rogue River yesterday with his hands and feet.

Mr. Moorehead was casting for steelhead in midstream when he saw a large salmon just beneath the surface of the water. He jumped astride the fish, and holding him with his feet thrust his fingers in his gills and after a hard struggle flung him high and dry on the bank.

VANDIVIERS HOLD REUNION

More Than 200 Descendants of Holland Colonists at Meeting.

DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 17.—The second National biennial reunion of the Vandivier family is being held in Graham Springs, near this city, and is being attended by more than 200 descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vandivier. There were 55 present from Franklin County, Indiana, which was the largest number from any one county.

Peter Vandivier and his wife came to America from Holland in the early colonial days. Their graves are being decorated at Graham Springs, where the reunion is being held.

WILD BUFFALO FLOURISH

Number in Yellowstone Park Reported Greatest in Years.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Lieutenant-Colonel Brett, commanding Yellowstone National Park, has reported to Secretary of the Interior Fisher that his men have seen more buffalo in the wild herd in the park recently than for ten years. They counted 48 buffalo, he said, all of which appeared to be in fine condition. The tame herd which is kept in an enclosure in the park, said Colonel Brett, now numbers 114.

Nearly one-half the buffaloes in the United States are in the Yellowstone Park.

ANCIENT DRESS REVIVED

Canadian Mayor to Wear Robe and Chain for Duke of Connaught.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 17.—It is more than likely that on the occasion of the forthcoming visit of the Duke of Connaught, Mayor Findlay will adopt a handsome robe and gold chain of elaborate design as an insignia of his office.

It is believed this will be the first time in the history of Canada that the ancient formal dress has been worn by (Continued on Page 2)

BOARD RAISES VEIL OF ASYLUM SECRECY

Dr. J. F. Calbreath May Succeed Dr. Hall.

OLD CONTROVERSY RECALLED

Governor Regrets "Sore" Revealed by Resignation.

LETTER HITS CONDITIONS

"I Am Unwilling to Be Connected With Failure, if I Can Avoid It," Asserts Man Who Quits Pendleton Institution.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The veil of secrecy which the State Board has thrown about the letter of resignation from Dr. M. K. Hall, of Pendleton, as superintendent of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital, was raised by the Board today and the contents of the letter were made public.

Regardless of a statement of many months ago that the light of publicity would shine brightly on all of their deeds, whether good or bad, the Board saw fit to conceal the contents of the letter and in some cases even to deny its receipt at the state capitol, although the letter was written under date of August 14.

Governor West explains this by saying that he wished to keep the contents of the letter secret, return it to its author and thus destroy evidence of its existence.

Old Controversy Not Wanted. "I did not want the old controversy over the Eastern Oregon asylum brought up again," was his statement in giving his explanation.

Dr. J. F. Calbreath, who, on Thursday night at a star chamber session of the State Board, was appointed to succeed Dr. Hall, telephoned to State Treasurer Kay tonight that he probably will accept the appointment but will be unable to give a definite answer for a few days. Dr. Calbreath was formerly superintendent of the asylum here, just prior to Superintendent Steiner's incumbency.

Dr. Hall, in his letter of resignation, bitterly scores the location of the new institution and declares among other things that the water is bad and that the conditions are such as to require a much larger outlay for maintenance at the new hospital than at the Salem institution.

"I am unwilling to be connected with a failure," is one of the startling declarations which he makes in the light of prophecy as to the future of the institution which has had troublous times practically since its inception.

Bowman Governor Then. The institution was created under a bill passed by a vote of the people in 1910. Jay Bowman was acting Governor at the time. Bowman selected the site of the institution and it was responsible for one of the biggest legislative fights ever seen in the halls of Salem.

An investigation of the site was made by physicians headed by Dr. Harry Lane and another by a legislative committee. The physicians' committee condemned the site while the legislative committee approved it. As a result the Board went ahead and started construction work on the building.

Already $544,000 has been expended on and about the buildings and grounds. In his letter tendering his resignation and scoring the site as well as the arrangement of superintendent's quarters Dr. Hall says:

"To the best of my ability, I have gone over the history of the establishment of this institution by its promoters, through the instrumentality of the (Continued on Page 2)
