Republican Elector and Bull Moose Organizer Says He Will Not Withdraw.

OLCOTT'S ACTION AWAITED

Portland Politician Declares Name Will Go Under Taft and T. R., Too, on Ballot Even if He

W. H. Taft.

This is the declaration of leaders of the Bull Moose party in Oregon, including among the others L. M. Lepper. secretary of the Progressive Party Club. This is the information also which has been received by members of the Republican committee recently appointed to ask Mr. Kellaher to withdraw from the ticket. While the committee as a whole has not visited Mr. Kellaher as yet, individual members have called upon him and asked him to withdraw. He has answered that he can see no reason why he should he can see no reason way he should withdraw, inasmuch as he was nomi-nated by the Republican voters at the same time that they went on record as favoring Colonel Roosevelt for the Re-publican Presidential candidate.

Secretary's Move Awaited.

"I was nominated by the people as an elector on the Republican ticket," he said yesterday, "and I accepted. My name was written in the primary ballot by the people and I made no declaration of principles. The people went on record as favoring Roosevelt. I cannot see why I should not abide by the wishes of the voters. It seems to me to be up to the Secretary of State. Now the question is, what will he do?"

Lepper said yesterday that the puzzle involves legal points of an interesting and complicated nature.

Party's Standing Doubted.

"The question," he said, "is whether a party has any standing in law. Roosevelt was the choice of the Republicans in Oregon, as shown by the primary election returns. A primary election has a legal standing, but a party convention has not. Will the Secretary of State recognize the Republican convention or the Oregon primary election? Opinion is divided among Bull Moose followers, but it is the belief of a good part of them that Keilaher will be right in demanding his name beling placed on the ballot under that of Roosevelt."

WOMAN IS WIFE OF TWO

Sarah Jane Ruiter Will Now Ask for Annulment and Maiden Name.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 17 .- (Speak) -- With two hysbands on her cial.)—With two husbands on her hands, one of which she did not know existed, Mrs. Sarah Jane Ruiter has started proceedings which practically the overthrowing of both spouses, as in her petition for annulment of marriage to her second and illegal husband, she has asked for the restoration of her maiden name. For 35 years Mrs. Ruiter, who was

Sarah Jane Matthews before her first marriage, which was to Nathaniel marriage, which was to Nathanie Tibbetts in Nebraska, lived in the be lief that her first mate, Mr. Tibbetts was killed in an Indian massacre in the Black Hills of South Dakota, where he went to dig for gold. Such reports were carried to her at any rate, and after several years she became the wife of Ruiter, to all intents and purposes

However, recently some reletives of her first husband learned of his existence and his wife's subsequent mar-riage, and imparted this intelligence to Mrs. Ruiter, asking her to return. This Prohibition Candidate for Senator gave rise to the suit for annulment of the second marriage. As Miss Matthews, Mrs. Ruiter be-came Tibbett's wife in 1875 in Dawson County, Nebraska. She mourned her husband's death for a time, and in 1884 became Malcom Ruiter's wife. On their honeymoon they came to the Pacific Coast, where they settled. Now, after 35 years, relatives of the first husband have asked her to return and live with her first love. He is in Minnesota, the petition says. Tibbetts-Rulter has not declared whether she will return to the original husband,
