

BEACHES ARE STILL THROUGH DESPITE RAINY WEATHER

Crowds Undaunted by Showers and Round of Gayety Continues Unabated at Various Oregon and Washington Resorts.

Polsom Tallness, of Vancouver, are among the guests registered at the Abbey.

Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, was a visitor here during the week.

Mrs. N. P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem, passed a few days here before going to their summer cottage at Seaside.

A. C. Low and wife, of Portland, are among the late arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hull, of St. Joseph, Mo., and R. L. Lihura, of Omaha, arrived here last week in their auto, which attracted considerable attention, as it carried a Nebraska license. They were enthusiastic over Astoria and the summer vacation here.

John Scott, of Salem, is passing his summer vacation here.

Mr. Huffman, Mr. Lewis Montgomery's private secretary, has been passing a few days here.

Dr. W. E. Smith, of Portland, has his new cottage on Pine Hill nearly completed. It is an attractive cottage, and from neighboring hills has the appearance of being built in the tree tops, but on closer inspection proves to have a solid foundation of rough gray stone and a magnificent view of the coast.

A. J. Goodman and wife are visitors at the beach now.

J. B. Eddy, of Portland, is here with his wife and daughter. Walla Walla are registered here this week. They are: Louise D. Walker, May Thomas, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Anna Fitzgerald, Anna Pauly and Stanley Pauly. They have been making a tour of the Pacific Coast.

Mrs. A. J. Wolf, from Tacoma, is here with her son, Irwin. They are registered at the Nicolai.

Dinner or luncheon parties at Agate Beach Inn as a mode of entertainment are quite popular. Miss Elma and Norma Hendricks, of Eugene, were the hostesses of a delightful dinner party Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. F. Parkes and Mrs. George Sanford, who have had a cottage here, returned to their home in Roseburg the early part of the week.

Mrs. Lottie Pelton, of Ashland, with her son and daughter are at the Abbey.

Miss Nan Cochran, of Oregon City, is enjoying the pleasures of the beach.

Miss Hoff, Mrs. Hurford and Miss A. W. Kutache make up a party who are enjoying an outing at the Agate Beach Inn.

Miss Molly Clancy and her sister are registered at the Agate Beach Inn.

Peter D'Arcy, an attorney from Salem, is taking a vacation at the beach.

Miss Dix and T. W. Bacon, of the Northwestern School of Music, are the guests of Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Smith, Mrs. Carheart and Mr. Hamilton, of Eugene, arrived here Wednesday after a walking trip from Eugene to Florence and from there up the coast to Newport. They were ten days on the way and had a number of interesting experiences, as the trail in some places is very dangerous.

The week has been a quiet but pleasant one at the Oceanhill Hotel. Registered there are: Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Rapp, of Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Grace McDonough, Miss Virginia McDonough, Master Harold McDonough, and Mrs. Hall, of Portland; Dr. Professor A. D. Froula, principal of Lincoln High School, Seattle, Wash., has been with his wife and four children, enjoying the quiet at the same hotel. Miss Stewart, of Kansas; Miss Ross, of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Bowen and daughter, of Portland; Mrs. A. E. Graham, Mrs. M. Williams, Mrs. Eugene R. T. Brown, of Portland, and Miss Averill and Mrs. Robb are all registered at the same hotel.

The following party recently motored from Portland to the Oceanhill Hotel for a week-end stay: Amadee M. Smith, Mrs. A. M. Smith, Arthur C. Emmons, Mrs. A. C. Emmons, Miss Katherine Emmons and Master Harold Emmons.

A party consisting of Dr. J. W. Hill, Mrs. Hill, Master J. C. Hill, Miss Hill and Mrs. McDonough had a pleasant excursion to Devil's Punchbowl and from there made a hurried side trip to Depoe Bay, returning to the Oceanhill in time for dinner.

MANY AUTOS AT NESKOWIN
Governor's Wife and Daughter Are Among Visitors to Beach of Late.

NESKOWIN, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Neskwim might almost be named the Auto resort from the number of machines which arrived here during the week, many containing parties intending to stay for a period of several days. Among those arriving recently were Mrs. Oswald West and Miss Helen West, family of Governor West, who came into the resort in automobile and stayed for a period of four days. Others in the party were Miss Lewis Hutton and Mrs. Frank K. Lovell, of Salem.

Miss Maude Durbin and Miss Nancy Skaffe, of Salem, who have been guests of the Steiner family, returned here for home early in the week by automobile.

Peter Kurze and wife, parents of Claude A. Kurze, postmaster of Neskwim, have been visiting their son for several days. They have with them as guests, James and Mrs. Alerson, of Independence.

Roy Ward, recently a resident of the Dalles, has sold his business there and will take up his residence at Neskwim. Mr. Ward is delighted with the improvements which have been made here and is enthusiastic about the future of the place.

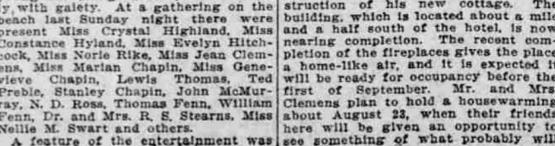

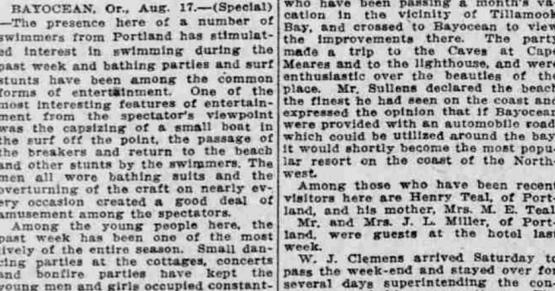

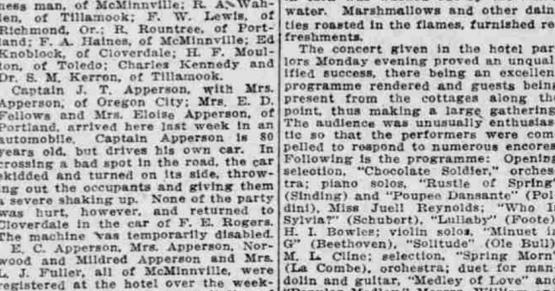

Recent arrivals at the beach include: E. D. Nelwander, wife and family, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Meene and family, of Albany; George Morback, of Sherwood; Adel Hagey, of Newberg; William Derwin, of Independence; Mr. and Mrs. Venson, Robert Slesch and Mrs. Slesch, all of Salem, in an automobile party; Lloyd Heffley, of Salem, the Misses Maude and Mrs. F. E. Rogers, of Heffley, of Salem, and Miss Maude Good, of Monmouth; J. L. Tustin, Wayne Moe, Mrs. Kate Moe, Thelma, Alice and Ernest Moe, Marie Voegel, A. C. Lewis, Bertha Lewis, Le Verne Lewis and Eldon Lewis, all of McMinnville.

Recent automobile parties, which have arrived here, include the following: Mr. and Mrs. L. Derby and Floris Derby, of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, Leona, Naomi and Florence Brown, of Independence; Mr. and Mrs. William Gosner, Homer Himes and Mrs. Holmes and Effie Baker, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Newton, F. W. Newton and Mrs. R. O. Cornelius, of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. E. Rogers and Miss Zonia Rogers, of McMinnville. Mr. Rogers is one of the leading druggists of that place.

Guests arriving here last week include the following: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thurman and Beatrice Thurman and Lucile Gibbs, of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whitlock, of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Porter, Nellie and Allen Porter of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gabriel, Ennis, Ina and Rita Gabriel, Justine Wood and Claude Hayes, of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. James Derby, Golda and Gladys Derby and Grant Barnum, of McMinnville.

Frank Holmes, a prominent attorney of Salem, with his wife and family, arrived during the week to spend a few days at the resort.

John Shetterly, a prominent business man and captain of Williamson, with Kenneth, Hull and John Shetterly, and Miss Grace Fernum, of Williamson, recently arrived here in his automobile. C. W. Risley, a prominent business man of Oregon City, with his wife and be the handsomest and most commodious cottage on the point. Charles James Muckle, of Portland, Charles Muckle, of St. Helens; Robert Muckle, of McConnell, Tenn.; Agnes Muckle, of Portland, and Miss Amy George, of St. Helens, composed a party which arrived Saturday night to pass the weekend.

George A. Edmunds and wife, of Tillamook manager of the Tillamook Mercantile Company, with his brother, H. L. Edmunds, of the Dalles, and with Mrs. H. L. Edmunds, passed the day here recently.

Last arrivals of the "hiking" parties include H. B. Walker and wife and C. J. Brockman and wife, of Portland, who came in on the Henrietta Saturday afternoon and went out that afternoon bound up the coast. The party came from Seaside along the beach and over the Neah-kah-nie trail, stopping over night at the new tavern there, walked down the Ga. oddi-Neahalem beach, through Tillamook to Netarts and to Point Lookout. Finding the trail covered by mountain snow to their hiking, they turned back and returned along the old Indian trail to Bayocan. The romance of the trip along the coast appears to appeal strongly to walkers, so that it is a popular diversion.

Salmon trollers have been having fine sport in the bay during the past week and report excellent catches. A party, including E. C. Lockwood and wife, H. H. Dickey and wife, Miss Dickey, P. D. Hance and Mr. Burkhardt, of Portland, and Mrs. H. H. Hance, recently returned with some large chinooks and several steelheads.

Mrs. T. Irving Potter was hostess at an enjoyable bonfire party the last of the week, when about 17 guests were present on the beach near the Potter cottage. Various games and stunts gave entertainment to the guests and refreshments were served by the fire.

Work has been started on the Paulsen cottage, just north of the hotel, the ground having been leveled so that preliminary work on the foundation could be put under way. The site is unusually attractive, as the new structure will command a view of the ocean in front and the bay at the rear.

GARIBALDI BEACHES POPULAR
Portland Residents Go There In Increasing Numbers Each Year.

GARIBALDI, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The Garibaldi beaches are proving a most popular with Portland residents. They are distant from Portland in time only five or six hours, and the full hotels and numerous camps, as well as the cozy cottages which are constantly increasing in number, attest to the fact that Tillamook County is no longer a "terra incognita" to the state at large, and Portland in particular. The Garibaldi beaches lie between the mouths of Nahalem Bay on the north and Tillamook Bay on the south and cover a beautiful stretch of sand about nine miles in length. Beginning on the north, the names of the beaches are as follows: Manhattan Beach, Lake Lytle, Seaview, Rockaway, Elmore Park, Tillamook Beach, Midway, Twin Rocks, Rocky Beach, Ocean Lake Park and Bayview.

One of the things which make these beaches so attractive is the chain of small water lakes which lie a few hundred feet back from the ocean. Some of these lakes cover several acres and furnish excellent fishing and delightful bathing.

The cottage of Mrs. Edith M. Alderman at Midway is nearing completion and is now occupied by Mrs. Alderman and her son, Master Henry Alderman.

Mrs. H. J. Riesland is visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Riesland, at Midway.

Frank S. Fields, county clerk of Multnomah County, is camping with his family at the Oceanhill Hotel, at Seaside. Mr. Fields motored into Tillamook from Portland and enjoyed fine fishing by the way.

One of the most indefatigable fishermen on the beach is James S. McCord, of Portland, who is passing his vacation with his family at Tillamook Beach. Mr. McCord makes two or three fishing trips to the beach each week and the various smaller streams, and in the meantime fishes in the lakes. One evening last week he drew a salmon weighing 14 1/2 pounds, the other 16 1/2 inches.

Miss Genevieve Kirkpatrick, a teacher at the school here, is passing a fortnight with Miss Pauline Alderman at Midway.

The family of Herbert Thorne, of Portland, is camping at Tillamook Beach. Mr. Thorne passes each week-end with them.

Judge and Mrs. P. B. Bird, of McMinnville, are camping at Tillamook Beach. Mr. Bird is accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Cummins, and her small son, also of McMinnville, and Miss Etta Cary, of La Fayette.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Whitney, principal of the Peninsula school of Portland, is camping at Barview. Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Whitney's mother, visited her daughter recently, and Mr. Whitney is expected to arrive for the week-end.

Mrs. E. H. Stanley, of Tillamook, spent the day with Mrs. Alderman at Midway recently. Enjoying Mrs. Alderman's hospitality also are her father, J. M. Kelly, of Portland, and her nephew, Eugene Kelly, the son of Paul Kelly, of the Oregonian.

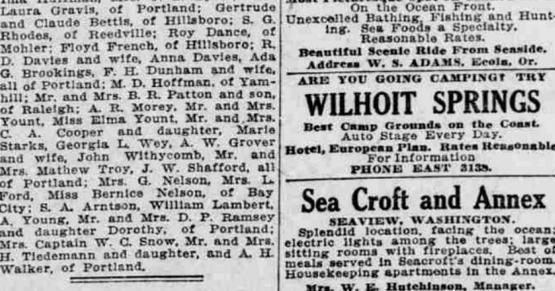

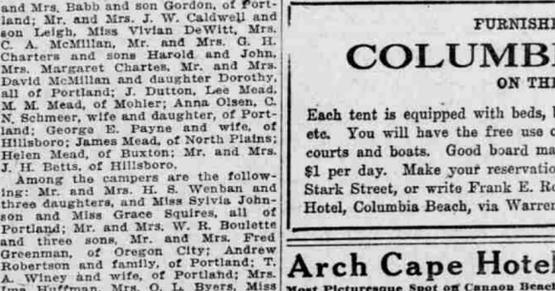

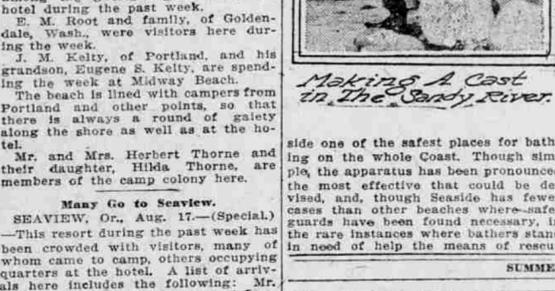

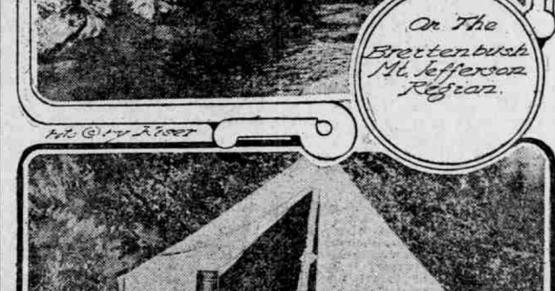

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Gaudy and their little girl, Rose, who are residents of Irvington, are encamped at Midway. Camping with them is Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Rose Omatess, of Forest Grove, with her three children, Mary, Franklin and Frederick.

A large bonfire was built on the beach at Midway last night, and the special train Saturday night. Marshmallows were toasted and songs sung by the company, which comprised Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Omatess, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCord, Sterling McCord, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thorne, Miss Hilda Thorne, Mrs. H. H. Hance, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Riesland and Carl Riesland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hartman and sons, Lawrence and Paul, spent a week at the Tillamook Beach Hotel recently. An effort was made at high tide Sunday night to float the schooner C. T. Hill, which recently landed high and dry at the mouth of the Nahalem River. A donkey engine was used in the attempt, which was made by the insurance underwriters, but in spite of the effort the schooner was unable to be floated. The vessel was finally towed to the beach and excursions are made in that direction as frequently as they are to the life-saving station.

TILLAMOOK BEACH THROTTLED
Hotel Forced to Turn Away Guests and Campers Are Numerous.

TILLAMOOK BEACH, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Week-end parties crowded the hotel here to its utmost capacity and many have been turned away. Bonfires on the beach and card parties in the hotel parlors have proved pleasant diversions for the guests. Among those registered here during the week were the following: M. Readings and son, of Portland; James Bybee and wife, of Vancouver, Wash.; D. H. Calkins, of Los Angeles; M. G. Cameron, Miss Myrtle Lockwood, of Port-provided is considered the best. At the bathing hour a sturdy life-guard stationed in front of the Hotel Moore is ready to respond at an instant's notice to any summons, however distant, and by means of drums, wound with a great length of rope placed in a trench along the beach, go to the assistance of any unfortunate bather without the slightest danger.

A means of signalling for help has been provided by posting danger flags at all of the lifelines along the beach, so that in case of distress the life-guard may be summoned by waving one of these flags.

By these means, Seaside's hope to abolish drowning on Clatsop Beach, and prevent foolhardy bathers from spoiling an enviable record for safety by taking unnecessary risks, which sometimes end in fatalities and create a damaging impression with those unacquainted with Clatsop Beach. By not allowing bathers to risk their lives deliberately in places which would be unsafe at any beach, it will be shown that safe bathing at Seaside is absolutely safe.

TOLEDO READY FOR FAIR
Lincoln County Show This Year to Surpass Previous Events.

WALDFORD, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The fourth annual Lincoln County Fair and Festival will be held at Toledo August 20, 21, 22 and 23. Competition will be open to the 13 districts of Lincoln County and to all individuals residing in the county.

A large number of cash awards will be made and the Oregon Agricultural College has appointed competent judges to pass on the exhibits.

The Fairgrounds are adjacent to the C. & E. Railroad depot and the stock sheds provide ample accommodation for livestock exhibits.

The Fair Association provides full feed for all stock exhibited, and caretakers will be provided for stock unaccompanied by owners.

A number of special cash prizes are offered by the Lincoln County Bank as follows:

For the best individual agricultural exhibit, $25; best pedigreed bull, $25; best flock of sheep, $25; best flock of goats, $25.

Seasonal individual tickets to the fair will be sold for $1; children, 50 cents.

Special attention will be given school exhibits and those of household and handicraft.

The officers of the Fair Association are: President, C. S. Davis; first vice-president, William W. Scheldt; second vice-president, W. M. Berry; secretary, C. B. Crono; and treasurer, C. O. Hawkins.

The various committees are representative of all portions of Lincoln County. Good music, clean sports and amusements will be arranged and every effort is being made to make the fair the success it has previously been.

AMERICANS FAVOR BATH
Famous English Resort Breaks All Records of Attendance.

BATH, England, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—There seem to be more American and Canadian visitors at Bath than ever before, even the records of coronation year having exceeded this summer.

The Roman Baths are perhaps the greatest attraction, although few leave without inspecting the extensive modern bathing establishment with its many forms of baths and douches for administering the healing waters. Of course everyone has a glass of the hot radio-active water, and notices the amber stained glasses, a coloration due to the large quantity of radium in the water.

The development in the Port of Bristol, only 12 miles away, has brought more Canadians and Americans to Bath. Many now spend a night or two at the historic Spa before going on to London.

To tour the charming west country, Bath is the most convenient center. Cheddar, with its wonderful cliffs and caves, its old cathedral city of Wells, Glastonbury, with its magnificent abbey ruins and a wealth of legend, and the prehistoric temple of Stonehenge are but a few of the many delightful runs to be made from Bath.

Polk County Fair October 3-5.
DALLAS, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Advertising for the coming Polk County Harvest Festival, to be held in this city October 3, 4 and 5, has been started. One of the methods adopted is to print the description and dates on the windshield of automobiles. All automobile owners here are being urged to do this, and many already had their cars decorated. It is planned to make this more general by taking the matter up with the Falls City, Independence and Monmouth Commercial Clubs and getting all auto owners in their vicinity to co-operate.
