COLONEL DEMANDS HEARING AT ONCE

Committee Sends Hurry Call to Members in Effort to Arrange Session.

SENATORS LEAVING TOWN

Presence of Democrat to Cross-Examine Witness Is Desired -- Jones of Washington May Postpone Return West.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt made it known tonight that he desires to testify at the earliest possible moment before the Senate committee investigating campaign contributions. He has directed his office in New York to telegraph Senator Clapp, chairman of the Senate committee, that he would like to appear before the committee on Monday.

Colonel Roosevelt telegraphed:

"As I am not willing that Mr. Archbold's statement about me should pass without immediate official contradiction, I request the privilege of appearing before your committee on Monday. My engagements are such that it will be the greatest inconvenience to me and many others if the hearing is deferred to a later date."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Chairman Clapp, of the special committee to investigate campaign contributions, as soon as he was notified of Colonel Roosevelt's desire to appear before the committee called a meeting of the members for 8:30 tonight to decide whether a hearing could be held Monday. He was able to reach only Senstor Lea.

In returning the mon-ey I wish it made clear to them that there is not the slightest feeling against them and that they may count against them and that they may count upon being treated exactly as well by the administration, exactly as fairly, as if we had accepted the contribution. They shall not suffer in any way because we have refused it, just as they would not have gained in any way if we had accepted it. But I am not willing that it be accepted and must ask Mr. Bliss to return it."

"My Dear Mr. Cortelyou: Supplemental to my letter of yesterday containing my request that any contribution which the Standard Oil people may the campaign be immetion which the Standard Oil people may have made to the campaign be immediately returned. I wish to say that my judgment as to the propriety of this action is confirmed because of the fact brought into special prominence by the Standard Oil Company's publication in the newspapers, which I saw after my letter was written and sent, that much importance seemed to be attached to the political attitude of this company. Furthermore, in view of the open and pronounced opposition from the Standard Oil Company to the establishment pronounced opposition from the Standard Oil Company to the establishment of the bureau of corporations—one of the most important establishments of my administration—I do not feel willing to accept its aid. I request, therefore, that the contribution be returned without further delay. Of course, I do not wish any public statement made about this matter or to take any steps that would seem as if I would cast any reflections upon the Standard Oil people or their motive in making the contribution."
