CARD GAME CAUSE DEATH TO FOUR MEN

Saloon Proprietor Slaps Player, Two Officials Shot, Then Suicide.

PORTLAND LABORER VICTIM

After Opening Fire on Deputy Sheriff, He and Marshal in Toket, Wash., Fatally Wounded, Another Dying, Tonka Dies.

Toket, Wash., Aug. 22—A saloonkeeper and two officials were killed here today when a saloonkeeper opened fire on a deputy sheriff and the marshal of the town.

Two other men were wounded in the attack and were rushed to the hospital. One of the wounded men, a deputy sheriff, is critically ill, while the other, the marshal, has a chance of recovery, according to Dr. W. W. McCready, who is in charge of the hospital.

The incident occurred at the Golden Rule saloon, where the deputy sheriff and the marshal had gone to arrest the saloonkeeper. The saloonkeeper had been warned to close the saloon by the officials for violation of the law, but continued to operate.

The deputies entered the saloon, drew their revolvers and asked the saloonkeeper to shut down. The saloonkeeper refused.

When the deputies turned to leave, the saloonkeeper fired a shot at the deputy sheriff and the marshal. The two officials returned fire and killed the saloonkeeper.

The deputies were wounded in the attack but are expected to recover.

DEATH CAUSES ODD MIXUP

Saline B. Ahsayom Has Remarkable Instantary Cures

Saline B. Ahsayom, 84 year old Mennonite, of Toledo, Oregon, died last week of natural causes.

The body was taken to the home of the deceased's daughter, Lillian Ahsayom, who lives in Portland. The daughter was surprised to find the body lying on the floor with a gun in its hand.

"I don't know what to do with this," she said. "I thought he had died of natural causes, but now I see he was killed by his own gun."