See Our Windows Today.

C. M. Huggins and Mrs. Theodore Nic-

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kuester enter-tained with an informal musicale in honor of Mrs. Bertha Winslow Vaughn, of Los Angeles, who is the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. King. A delightful musical program was given by Mrs. Vaughn, a prominent singer of Los Angeles, Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapnan, and the hostess, professionally known as Edith Haines-Kuester, Mrs. Vaughn, who during her stay in Port-land has given great pleasure to many Vaughn, who during her stay in Portland has given great pleasure to many people who were fortunate in hearing her, sang an Aria from Madame Butterfly, and a number of English and French songs. She is the possessor of a high soprano voice of dramatic quality. Mrs. Chapman's lovely Mezzo Contraito voice was heard to excellent advantage in an Italian Aria and a number of English songs, and both artists sang songs composed by Mrs. Kuester, who also contributed piano compositions of her own, likewise singing several charming songs from a new set of children's songs which she recently finished. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Beals, Mrs. C. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mr. and Mrs. A. Merrism, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Matthes, Mr. and Mrs. A. Merrism, Mr. and Mrs. John Dougall, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Chapman, Dr. and Mrs. Sifton. Assisting Mrs. Kuester in receiving was Mrs. W. C. Northrop of New York, who is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kuester.

Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed returned last week from a trip to Alaska.

Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed returned last week from a trip to Alaska.

In honor of Mrs. John Frem, who will leave September 1 for her future home in North Yakima, Mrs. Smith, of Marietta, O., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Leen Peters, and Miss Jackson, house guest of her sister, Mrs. H. T. Burntrager, Mrs. W. C. McBride was a bridge hostess Saturday. Three tables made up the game. The rooms were attractively decorated with lavender and asters. Card honors fell to Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Bert M. Dennison.

Complimenting Miss Cathrine Countiss, Mrs. T. H. Edwards was hostess at luncheon and bridge on Thursday at her residence in Irvington. The rooms her residence in Irvington. The rooms were decorated with cosmos, and an attractive bowl of pink tiger Hiles centered the table, around which were seated Miss Countiss. Mrs. E. E. Merges, Mrs. F. H. Morgan, Mrs. Edward Jaeger, Mrs. J. P. Jaeger, Mrs. R. Dunmire, Mrs. James Kidwell, Mrs. Harry M. Cake, Miss Elizabeth Wills and the hostess.

Miss Minetta L. Warren, of Detroit, Mich., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morse, 493 Ainsworth avenue, for six weeks, left for home on

Mrs. Jesse R. Sharp, with her daughters. Misses Dorothy and Constance, who have been touring for the past three months in England, Ireland and Scotland, are now in Paris. They will remain in France for some time before William Wallace Graham, who has been spending his vacation at his old family farm on the Willamette, returned to the city Friday to play the offertory on his violin at both morning and evening services in the Westminster Presbyterian Church. East Tenth and Weidler streets. In the morning he will play aria, for G. String Bach.

The engagement of Miss Essie Tobriner, of San Francisco, to Paul Lebenbaum, of Portland, formerly of the Bay City, has just been announced.
The announcement came as a complete surprise to her many friends in both her home and this city, where she has been visiting her cousins, the Misses Lillian and Madeline Stone. During her seven weeks sojourn here she was extensively entertained by the younger set. The weeding will take place in San Francisco, for which city Miss Tobriner left a week ago Thursday. The young people expect to reside in Portland. Mr. Lebenbaum is interested in railroad circles.

Mrs. Emanuel Heller, of New York, daughter of Mrs. S. Lipman, will spend several weeks in Portland with her mother. A number of functions have been arranged in Mrs. Heller's honor, Mrs. Heller will return to New York about the end of September.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST

MEWS FROM THE ARMY POST Major and Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, who took 'a three weeks' automobile tour from here to Vancouver. B. C., and other Canadian cities, have returned to the post. They drove their car nearly 1100 miles and met with no serious mishap, though the road was so rough that they shipped it from Kalama to Vancouver on the return-Major Fleming has resumed his station as Adjutant-General of the Department of the Columbia.

Lieutenant William R Scott, of the Twenty-first Infantry, has been grant-ed a leave of absence for two months, beginning today.

Captain Henry L. Kinnison, who has been in the Quartermaster's Department for four years, which term ended Friday, has been granted a leave of absence. With his wife and daughter. Miss Grace Kinnison, Captain Kinnison started to California Wednesday on the steamer, but when they reached Astoria a telegraphic order revoked his order to join the Twelfth Infantry at Monterey, Cal. All returned and are now guests of Captain and Mrs. A. B. Warfield, awaiting further orders. It is probable that Captain Kinnison will be attached to some infantry regiment, as his four years' tour of the Quartermaster's Department has been completed.

Harry Lockheart, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George C. Rockwell, during the Summer months, went to Seattle Thursday for a month's visit. He will return here for a short visit before going to California to continue his course in mining engineering in Berkeley.

Lieutenant George C. Rockwell, of the Twenty-first Infantry, returned on Tuesday night from Leavenworth, Kan, where he was detailed to take 25 priswhere he was detailed to take 25 pris-oners. On the trip he was able to visit his father in Kansas and his mother in Colorado, who happens to be visiting there, for short periods. This is the first time he has seen his parents since he went to the Philip-pines, more than three years ago.

Major and Mrs. Joseph T. Clarke en-teriained for Captain and Mrs. Henry

OF THE GODS' MARRIED
IN LOS ANGELES.

Mrs. Lee Leonard Keedick.

Miss Mabel Alice Ferris, daugh-ter of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Ferris, of 1815 Lenox avenue, and Lee Leonard Keedick, of New York City, were married at the home of City, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Tuesday evening. August 27. Dr. Charles Edward Locke, of the First Methodist Church, officiated. The wedding march was played by Miss Myrtle LaTouche. The bride was given into the keeping of the bridegroom by her father, and her only attendant was little Miss Clara Shugars, who carried the ring in a white lily. The bride's gown was white charmeuse, with trimmings of pearls and Bohemia lace. She carried a shower of illies of the valley. The Ferris residence was attractively decorated with carnations and ferns.

Miss Ferris is the dramatist

Miss Ferris is the dramatist of "The Bridge of the Gods," which play created such a profound sensation at the Astoria Centennial, and which is now being made into grand opera. Miss Ferris is well known as a reader. Mr. Keedrick is known through-out the country as a manager of distinguished lecturers, having managed the American tours of such famous people as Sir Ernest Shackleton, Lieutenant - General Sir Baden-Powell, Alfred Tenny-son Dickens, and many other lec-turers of international impor-

In addition to his managerial In addition to his manageriat duties, Mr. Keedick also is secre-tary of the International Peace Forum, of which organization Dr. John Wesley Hill is president and Hon. Henry Clews, the Wall-street banker, is treasurer.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Keedick left for a three months' wedding trip, and will visit various points of interest in the United States and Canada. They will make their home at 400 Riverside drive, New York City.

L. Kinnison and their daughter, Miss Grace Kinnison, Sunday evening. At the dinner served covers were laid for Captain and Mrs. Fred W. Bugbee, Lieutenant and Mrs. Tarleton, Miss Brambilla, Miss Loughborough and Lieutenant Harry R. McKellar.

Lieutenant Walter Boswell, who has been aide-de-camp to General John J. Pershing, in command of the Depart-ment of Mindanao, Manila, Philippine Islands, has rejoined the Twenty-first Infantry, with station at this post. His family in the East will come here later.

An informal hop was given in the

A POPULAR PORTLAND GIRL WEDS AT OREGON CITY.

Miss Irene Albee was married and the Alexander of the Alexander of the Bruce Donald Stewart at Oregon City on Friday, August 16. They are now domiciled at the Stewart residence, 341 East Seventeenth atreet North.

post Friday evening by the officers and ladies of the post. Music was fur-nished by the Twenty-first Infantry, and an enjoyable evening passed. Danc-ing was enjoyed from 8:30 until 11 o'clock.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Reifenrath celebrated their crystal wedding Sunday, August 25, at their home "Lone Oak," near Patton. The event was a double celebration, as it was also tife thirty-ninth anniversary of the wedding of Mrs. Reifenrath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lahae, of Forest Grove. Dinner was served following the services in the chapel at Gaston. The afternoon was passed listening to music and singing furnished by Rev. Father Buck, Miss Hattle Spurrier and Miss Frances Reifenrath. The following guests attended: Rev. Father Buck, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lahae, Miss Bella Lahae, Amos Lahae, Oscar Lahae, Mrs. H. S. Davis and son Norman, Mrs. J. H. Davis and son Arthur, Mrs. Helena Reifenrath, Mrs. F. W. Reifenrath, Stephen N. Reifenrath, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wenning, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Grant and children, Walter and Helen, Miss Hattle Spurrier, Miss Minnie Venderveiden, Lawrence Vandehey, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson and little son Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reifenrath, Miss Frances Reifenrath, Theodore and Helen Reifenrath, Mrs. W. E. Lee and children.

One of the delightful events of the week was the party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Kate Hanley at her attractive country home near La Grande, in compliment to Mrs. Carrie P. Wellman, of Paio Alto, formerly of La Grande, and Miss DeWitt, of Portland. The rooms were decorated with sweet peas and great clusters of goldenrod. Refreshments were served on the spacious lawn under massive walnut trees. The guests were: Mrs. Carrie Whirter, Mrs. J. L. Curtis, Mrs. J. C. Henry, Mrs. B. F. Grandy, Mrs. B. Newlin, Mrs. M. Mason, Mrs. A. E. Jones, Mrs. Max. Block, Mrs. Emma Harding, Mrs. J. F. Williamson, Mrs. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. J. D. Slater, Mrs. J. H. Stevens, Mrs. J. D. Slater, Mrs. N. Neal, Mrs. George H. Curry, Mrs. E. L. Eckley, Mrs. Ella Rynearson, Mrs. L. Hays, Mrs. Henry Young, Mrs. J. M. McCall, Mrs. Suilivan, Mrs. Zuber, Mrs. W. E. Oesterling, Mrs. H. R. McDonald, Mrs. L. Childs, Mrs. J. H. Russell, Mrs. A. B. Cherry, Mrs. F. Clevenger, Mrs. H. Anson and the Misses Hattle Young, Neil Young, Olive Slater, Mary Warnick, Neile Stevens, of Portland, Naoma Williamson.

Captain and Mrs. George M. Shaver were hosts at a launch party and picnic One of the delightful events of the Captain and Mrs. George M. Shaver were hosts at a launch party and picnic on Tuesday in honor of their son Homer's twenty-first birthday. The Shaver Company's gas tug Echo and the pleasure launch Dix conveyed the party to Oswero beach.

the pleasure launch Dix conveyed the party to Oswego beach.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dosberg and son John Henry, Mr. A. L. Keenan and son William, Mrs. W. Stiger and sons Leonard and George, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ward and daughter, Miss Dorethy, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson, Captain and Mrs. G. M. Shaver, the Misses Johanna George, Ruth Keis, Margaret Thomas, Florence George, Esther Spillman, Elizabeth Lewis, Anne McMicken, Ellen O'Donell, Esther Chalmers, Ellen Borquist, Lester Keenan, Bothwell Avison, Ray Stiger, Arthur Lewis, Clair McDougal, Frank Keenan, Lewis Thomas, Haskell Ferrin and Homer Shaver.

A delightful farewell party was given to Miss Helen Kelly, of Jollet, Ill., by M. E. Thompson's Sunday school class, of which Miss Hazel Kelly, her Selection of the Perhalmon Control of Perhalmon Control of the Secondary Control of Cont

Colonel George K. McGunnegle, of the First and Second Infantry.

Colonel George K. McGunnegle, of the First Infantry, in command of the post during his stay of three years here, is now in command of Schofield Barracks, a brigade post, about 16 miles from Honolulu, He succeeds in command Colonel Francis W. Mansfield, who has already left for the United States for a four months' leave, prior to his retirement from the service.

Lieutenant Walter Boswell, who has been aide-de-camp to General John J. Pershing, in command of the Department of Mindanao, Manila, Philipping Islands, has rejoined the Twenty-first Infantry, with station at this post His Donald Patton, Philip Phillips, Harry Montag, Otto Laasch and Earl Paul-

Complimenting Miss Lottle Hamilton, a number of her friends gave her a surprise party on Monday evening at her residence, 59 East Skidmore street. her residence, 59 East Skidmore street. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. Earl Miller sang and recitations were given by 0. Hollingsworth, after which games were played. The guests were: Misses Mable, Effie and Hazel Drobaugh, Misses Mable Robinson, Fay Robinson, Misses Mable Robinson, Fay Robinson, Misses Laura Woodworth, Misse Emma Worth, Edna Stopper, Misses June and Ruth Peterson, Frank Winfort, Jack Niles, O. Nollingsworth, Earl Miller, Adam Webber, Frank Homes, Riley Wakley, Jake Webber, Walter Stopper, Albert Seigle, George Erwin, A Walling, L. Bantz.

Miss Etta Wheeler was hostess at a lawn party at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wheeler, Thursday evening. The lawn was decorated with Chinese lanterns, under which many games were enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated with asters. After retreshments the young people enjoyed dancing. Those present were Misses Ruth Brady, Nellie Cahili, Mabel Rhodes, Bertha Lind, May Thayer, Catherine Francy, Addle Thayer, Marguerite Synott and Ellen Francy, William Park Roger O'Marg Will McCorliam Ryan, Roger O'Mara, Will McCor-mack, James Ryan, William Wheeler, Jack Brady, Walter Grenfall and Thomas Ryan.

Miss Arita Morton and Miss Beryl Camp were hostesses at the first of a series of dances to be given by Fidelity Lodge, No. 14, Degree of Honor, Thursday evening, at Logus Hall, 91½ Grand avenue. The hostesses were asisted by Miss Grace Smith, Miss Mattie Schaffner, Miss Effic Kerby, Miss Edith Camp and Miss Marian Ide, The

See Our Windows

See Our Windows

Today.

ANNIVERSARY

Tuesday, September 3d Wednesday, September 4th

OPENING

Our Third Grand

To the Ladies of Portland and Vicinity-We cordially invite you to our mammoth display of Millinery, Furs, Cloaks and Suits-a sight to behold. A mass of novelties only to be found at

PORTLAND'S

EMPORIUM

Portland's Popular Store - The Store of Class The Store With the Lowest Prices

Having spent 10 weeks in the Eastern and European markets for a collection of all the latest styles, we want you to know that we are exclusive in all our models and all others shown are merely copies. Always first. To see is to believe.

Don't Miss This Rare Treat at

124-126-128 Sixth Street

See Our Windows Today. Don't Miss Our Window Display.

Don't Miss Our Window

Display.

Remodeling and repair work at reduced Summer prices for a limited time only.

LIEBES QUALITY FURS Make your selections now, while prices are less.

Stored free until needed.

H. LIEBES & CO.

J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.

Manufacturing Furriers Corbett Building, 288 Morrison St

Our Fall and Winter stock of "Aquas cutum," "Burberry" and "Toga" Rain-coats for MEN and WOMEN have just arrived from London. Models for all occasions, in various weights.

K. S. ERVIN CO., Ltd., Selling Bidg.,

An Unequaled Opportunity to purchase your Fall Suit, exquisitely tailored, at a saving of $15 to $20.

The most beautiful array of imported Fall suit ings that has ever been my good fortune to present, is now assembled for your selection-everything and anything that is new and fashionable.

As a special inducement to start the season, until September 10 you may choose unreservedly from these suitings and have your Fall Suit tailored in superb style for only.....

NOTE—My rigid test of quality is applied to all linings and materials used and I personally cut, fit and supervise every detail in the making of all

COME EARLY FOR BEST SELECTION

RUSCH, the Tailor 325 STARK STREET.

Maker of Ladies' Tailored Garments of All Descriptions.