NEWCOMERS LIVE NEWPORT

Yaquina Bay Resorts Gay With Arrivals From Many Points.

NEWPORT, Or., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—With the coming of the school days many people find it necessary to return to their homes in the cities, and a number of cottages are being closed for the winter. However, many other people are coming in to enjoy the delightful September weather for which Newport is famous.

Numerous bonfires, outing parties and dinners have been given here during the past week, and the excursion crowd on Sunday of 500 compared favorably with those earlier in the month.

Among the pleasant events of the week was a Dutch housewarming, given Saturday evening at Agate Beach by Colonel H. H. Storer in honor of the completion of his new cottage there. After a big bonfire on the beach, where the guests partook of toast and "meats," the party was invited to the new house, where a big fire was built in the new fireplace. After this ceremony an old-fashioned fiddler appeared and everyone danced to his lively music until the hour demanded they bid their good night.

Trips of some length are becoming quite a fad here and everyone who can indulge in fancy outfitting is getting into the woods for two or three days, if not longer. Some prefer to arrange regular stops for the night at a ranch-house or claimant's place, while others prefer to camp out in the open by a big campfire.

A recent "hiking" party was composed of Dr. and Mrs. Griffith and son, Miss Helen Pearce, of Salem; O. E. Krause and Miss Helen Krause and Miss Evelyn Bigger, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Yerex, of Portland. Their "hike" extended about 15 miles up the coast, where the road winds through the hills and where the scenery is magnificent.

They passed the night at the Otter Crest Inn, which is situated on a point that rises 500 feet straight out of the ocean.

S. P. Mackey, S. G. Irvin, Mr. Parker and his son, Dr. Parker, Gilbert Mackey and Brice Effinger made a trip through the hills recently, recently, fishing and camping out along the way. They started from Newport and were absent about five days. They tried the experiment of floating down the Siletz River on a raft, which proved quite exciting when they passed the rapids. They were not lonesome, as they met several Portland parties who were taking a similar trip, among them were R. R. Dunaway and his two sons and G. K. Clark and family.

Ben W. O'Leary, Secretary of State, passed a few days last week.

S. B. Vincent, with his family, passed through Newport last week on his way to his home in Portland.

L. C. Thompson, of Portland, accompanied by his wife and daughter, returned from Newport last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland F. Holman, of The Dalles, who were married last week, motored over here to spend their honeymoon.

Melvin Ogden and Lloyd Barzee are passing a few days at a walk from Philomath to Florence and from there up the coast to Newport.

Mrs. Harold Eldridge, of Munich, Germany; Mrs. E. E. Eldridge, of Portland, and Miss Lucy Van Colt, of Salt Lake City, make up a party who are registered at the Abbey.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck, of Dallas, passed a few days at the beach.

Misses Mollie and Kathleen Clancy, of Vancouver, returned home this week after a pleasant vacation at the Agate Beach Inn.

A pleasant dinner party was given Saturday evening by Miss Flora Mason, of Albany, at her cottage here in honor of Mrs. Adna Smith Flo. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Yates, Mrs. Fred Dawson, Miss Helen Corlette, of Tacoma, Mrs. E. E. Eldridge, of Portland, B. Winn and son, Mrs. J. B. Horner, Miss Vera Horner, Mrs. Woodson and Mrs. Bridgford.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, who have a cottage here for the summer, returned to their home in Seattle during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jennings, of Eugene, are registered at the Nicolai.

Mr. George Hoyt, cashier of the Merchant's National Bank of Portland, and his wife, are registered at the Nicolai.

Professor W. Weniger, of Corvallis, came over last week on his motorcycle, and reports a very pleasant trip.

Mr. J. M. French, of Albany, has opened a cottage here for a few weeks.

Rose City Beach Hotel

Beach Home of Long Ago

Three Little Girls

Hill, will break camp September 6, after which they will take several trips before their return to regular school work a week later. It is very amusing to see their mascot, a small black bear, when his master takes him for his bath in the surf. The cub seems to enjoy this as much as the boys, and will jump to meet the waves and let them break over him. He always comes out as playful as possible and keen for a frolic on the beach a few days ago the boys had the excitement of a real bear hunt, when their mascot escaped to the woods, and it took the whole encampment several days before he was recaptured.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Grier and Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, of Falls City, are registered at the Nicolai.

R. M. Jennings and wife, of Eugene, are registered at the Nicolai this week.

F. R. Pratt and wife, of Portland, are numbered among this week's visitors.

Miss Hortense Grefcos, of Portland, arrived last week to visit her mother, who is located here for the season.

J. A. Yerex, of Portland, is a late arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurlbert and R. C. Effinger make up an auto party, which during the past week has visited all the points of interest in the vicinity of Newport that could be reached by auto. They have made Agate Beach their headquarters.

Mr. L. C. Thompson and wife, of Portland, are at the Abbey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Walters, of Eugene, are located at the beach for a few weeks.

Miss Ruth Rockwood, of Portland, accompanied by her mother, has been passing her vacation at the Agate Beach Inn.

Miss Elma and Norma Hendricks, of Eugene, and Miss Merton Auton, of Portland, returned home Saturday, after having passed the greater part of the season with a party of girls in a cottage here at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Packard and Miss Lena Morse, all of Portland, are passing a few weeks at the beach. They are registered at the Nicolai.

J. B. Bean, Mrs. Hazel Bean Bristow and Estelle Bean are occupying a cottage at the beach.

Professor J. E. Smith is passing a few days here, after a "hike" up the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Buffum, of Portland, are located at the Abbey for the season.

Professor Frederick Berchtold, of Oregon Agricultural College, has been passing his vacation with W. B. Glafke and wife and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Glafke, of Portland; Colonel S. C. Spencer and wife, Miss Winifred Evans, of London, and Miss Helen Nesbitt, of Dublin, Ireland, are among those registered at the Abbey this week.

Fred Lockley, of Portland, is among the guests at the Osburne here.

Misses Olive and Barbara Nisley, of Portland.

CANNON BEACH CROWDS GAY

Beach Recreation Spot Continues to Attract Vacationists.

CANNON BEACH, Or., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—While there are many transients coming and going, there has been quite an exodus among the cottagers the past week. While September is generally conceded to be the balmy month of the year at the beach, the city has its call for many, especially those who have children to get ready for school.

More popular than ever is the walking trip from Nehalem to Seaside. Many parties have passed through here this week, and the Mazamas are expected daily.

Governor West spent the week-end with his family, which is staying at the Warren for several weeks. His summer home here is not yet completed, the construction of a log house being slow.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Collins returned to Portland the first of the week, after passing the summer near Haystack.

Mrs. Walter Honeyman and her mother, Mrs. W. S. Ward, closed their cottage and returned to Portland on Friday. Mrs. Honeyman's sister, Miss Maleta Ward, and little Miss Jane Honeyman will remain at the Elk Creek Hotel for another week.

Mrs. F. R. Strong was among the guests at the Arch Cape Hotel last week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sommer are spending a week at Sylvan Park Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr and their son, Stuart Kerr, were at the Warren for a few days' stay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Scheiber, who own the Villa Ida-Emma, near Elk Creek, celebrated their silver wedding on Tuesday by giving a large dinner party. Covers were laid for 25 guests.

Thomas Luke and Miss Eunice Holbrook have returned to Portland after having been entertained at the Luzz Cottage for a fortnight.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and her mother, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, returned to Portland on Thursday, leaving the children at the Elk Creek Hotel with their governess, Miss Willmann.

C. H. Fox and family have closed their handsome cottage and returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crain are visiting Mrs. Crain's parents, Captain and Mrs. Orrin Kellogg, in their cottage near Elk Creek.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, accompanied by his wife and four children, motored over from Gearhart on Thursday.

Dr. Newell E. Smith has returned to the city after spending a pleasant vacation at the Cannon Beach Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Emerson and H. W. Thompson have arrived at Cannon Beach, after making the trip down the Columbia in a canoe. They had several exciting experiences, but enjoyed their trip.

Mrs. J. A. Martin, Miss Jean Martin, Miss Stephenson and Leonard F. Buck motored over from Seaside and spent a couple of days at the Warren.

Among the visitors at Ecola, the summer home of the Lewis and Flinders families, are the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Miss M. L. Flinders, Rodney Gilsen, Miss C. C. Gilsen, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr, and Roderick Macleay.

Dr. Jenkins and family have returned to Hood River after spending a month on their property near Haystack.

James O'Donnell, who has been a guest at the Walter Honeyman cottage for a fortnight, returned to the city the first of the week.

Drs. Alfred, Albert and August Kinney, with their families, have returned to Astoria after spending a pleasant vacation at the Arch Cape Hotel.

A merry party of eight which motored over from Seaside and lunched at the Elk Creek Hotel was composed of Gwilym Jones and son Melvin, Miss Florence George, John H. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kern and daughter, Miss Louise Stevenson, and Anna Lattenslager.

Miss Addison Naylor and Mrs. Pearl Davis, who have had Red Rock cottage for the summer, have been entertain-

BAYOCEAN IS STILL ACTIVE

Summer's Waning Does Not Stop Gayety at Popular Resort.

BAYOCEAN, Or., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Despite the departure of a number of the summer colony from Bayocean, social activity has been but little damaged and bids fair to hold the center of the stage for at least two more weeks. The weather has been ideal and many who planned on leaving during the latter part of August have postponed their departure until early September.

Strange sight has been quite frequent during the past week—whales, sea lions, seals and sea birds being more frequent than of late.

Monday two large whales appeared off the coast, close to the shore line and delighted the spectators by blowing high streams of water into the air. The marine monsters were visible to the naked eye for over an hour before they disappeared in the distance farther up the coast.

Tuesday another strange sight was witnessed when thousands of sea birds appeared in the early morning, flying in pursuit of schools of sardines. The surface of the ocean was covered for quarter of a mile in length and width by the birds and appeared as if a huge heavy black blanket had been laid upon the surface of the water. Schools of sea lions and seals have also been seen, but these seldom appear except in the early morning.

Dr. Hicks C. Fenton and family, of Portland, motored to Tillamook last Monday, then ferried to Bayocean, where they now domiciled at the Bayocean Hotel.

A. L. DuPuy, of Portland, also motored in Friday. Mr. DuPuy is the contractor for the handsome new cottage which is being erected by Johan Poulsen, of Portland.

Mrs. J. Fred Larson, Mrs. Thomas Dowdell, Dorothy Dowdell, Mrs. George R. Boehm and Fern Boehm were the members of a picnic party to Cape Mearns lighthouse on Wednesday.

After spending two weeks as the guest of Mrs. George M. Hyland, Miss Lola Owens returned to her Portland home last Monday.

Among the week-end guests who motored down from Portland were W. J. Clemens, Miss Lucille Clemens, A. O'Brien and Miss Swenny, all of Portland. They made the return trip on Monday morning.

Mrs. W. G. Hendricks and small son, of Portland, who were the guests of Mrs. T. Irving Potter for the summer, departed for their Portland home last Monday.

Mrs. George W. Bates, of Portland, and Mrs. A. N. Simpson, of Vancouver, were guests during the first of the week.

Among the past week-end visitors to Bayocean were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Letter, of Portland.

Bayocean has been the gathering place, during the past week of many officials of the Warren Construction Company, which will lay $200,000 worth of pavement here during the coming year. Active work will be started within the next six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams, of Seattle, visited their daughter, Mrs. H. J. O'Donnell, of Bayocean, last week in her mother's honor. Mrs. O'Donnell entertained with a card party on Tuesday.

RANDON SEASON IS CLOSED

Guests Leave With Promise to Return Next Year.

BANDON, Or., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Bandon's summer season has practically closed after one of the most popular seasons since "Bandon by the Sea" has become noted as a resort for a summer outing or vacation.

Underneath the firs and pines on the high bluff which skirts the sea more than 100 tents have been stretched during the months of July and August, and for six miles along the beach on any bright day a continuous procession of care-free people may have been seen—some fishing, some digging clams, some crabbing, some searching for Bandon agates, some in the surf and others watching the fun and enjoying the ocean view and the salt air.

From Medford, Roseburg, Grants Pass and many other interior points came the campers, and now upon leaving they say next summer will see them here again.

Bandon citizens gave much attention toward entertaining the pleasure seekers when they tired of the sea, and by band concerts, public dances, baseball, carnival and theater added much to the pleasure of the summer.

HOTEL IN SEQUESTERED NOOK

Four Summer Cottages Built Nearby by Portland People.

ROSE CITY BEACH, Or., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Visitors along the Garibaldi-Nehalem beach will be attracted by a pretty little hotel, about three miles north of Garibaldi station, set back in the midst of a pleasant grove, surrounded by pretty cedar carpeted walls and set off by two wide streets of white tents. The place spells comfort and quiet. Just in front is a little lake, covered with broad leaves and fragrant water lilies. A fountain plays merrily nearby. One hears the drowsy hum of bees a little distance away in the thick woods. The odor of pine fills the air. The spirit of "dolce far niente" pervades everything. One feels
