A FITTING speculum of the industrial, the manufacturing and the agricultural advancement and prosperity of our land is The Meier & Frank Store's Third Great Annual Harvest and Manufacturers' Sale, now in progress. The bountiful yield of the harvest, the thrift and progress of industry—each contribute to the great onward march of the manufacturing world until today, this 1912th year stands for "ACHIEVEMENT," marvelously attained. Dear to the heart of every loyal Westerner is the growth and wonderful progress of our own glorious State. To look back a half century ago—the population of Portland totaled 2,874, and of Oregon 52,465. Today our city's population mounts approximately 207,214, and our State's 672,765. And in 1912 the Harvest yield shows a greater percentage of increase than any previous year. Keeping pace with the wondrous progress of Portland and Oregon, The Meier & Frank Store shows a development as great in contrast as marks the progress of our city and State this half a century back.
