STORM TAKES TOLL

Wind Blows 40 Miles an Hour at Night in Chicago.

3 DEAD, 5 SERIOUSLY HURT

One Man, Blinded by Rain, Walks Into Coal Hole; Another Steps in Front of Train—Many Windows Shattered.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—When Chicago took count of its injuries today, following a 40-mile gale in the night, it was found that three persons had been killed, five seriously injured, and many thousands of dollars damage done.

The dead are Charles J. Mitchell, Valentine P. Fleming and Tony Gereka. The injured are George Faber, Edward O'Brien, Jr., William Corcoran, Leon Kreshman and an unidentified man.

Two horses were electrocuted by grounded wires, portions of the city were thrown into absolute darkness for several hours, and heavy damage was done throughout the city, especially on the Northwest Side.

Woman Runs Down Aged Man.

Charles J. Mitchell, 84 years old, was struck by an electric automobile, driven by Miss Clara Black. Both Miss Black and the police declare the accident unavoidable. Valentine P. Fleming was blinded by the rain and, holding an umbrella in front of him, stepped on the chains of a coal hole in front of the Medina building. The heavy gates were released and he was caught under the arms. His chest was crushed. He died in an ambulance. Gereka also was blinded by the rain and walked in front of a train.

Victim Arrested Seeking Doctor.

Sign boards and awnings went whirling through the streets, and there were plate-glass windows shattered in all parts of the city.

Daniel Thurns, 42 years old, was blown against a store window and smashed the pane. He suffered severe cuts about the face and hands, and while running for a doctor's office was chased and arrested by a watchman.

RAYMOND LODGE STARTS

500 ELKS FROM OUTSIDE ATTEND INSTITUTION.

Town in Gala Attire—66 Old Members and 115 New Will Take Pledge—Banquet to Follow.

RAYMOND, Wash., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—Elks from all over the Northwest have been arriving yesterday and today to take part in the institution of Raymond Lodge No. 1292 tonight. It is estimated that 500 out-of-town members are gathered here for this occasion. Major Bates, of Tacoma, past district deputy, under whose administration a dispensation was granted this city and who will have charge of the installation of the new lodge, together with E. R. Ingersoll, of Seattle, representing the grand lodge as chairman of the charter committee, arrived early and have been busily engaged in getting every detail in shape for this purpose. On the afternoon train delegations from Olympia with their band, Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma and Centralia arrived in large numbers.

At 6 P. M. the big delegation from Grays Harbor, 250 strong, arrived on a special train. Aberdeen lodge will put on initiatory work by reason of its being the parent lodge of this district. F. H. Lamb, district deputy, arrived with the Grays Harbor delegation.

The city is attired in a dress of purple and white and business practically was suspended during the entire day. Beautiful weather greeted the visitors.

Raymond lodge No. 1292 will start out with 60 old members and 115 baby Elks. An elaborate banquet will follow the initiation, which will be held on the second floor of the Raymond Cold Storage building.

JOHNSON WILL BATTLE

CHAMPION TO FIGHT LANGFORD AND M'VEY IN AUSTRALIA.

Negro Says Clash With First Man Will Take Place December 26 and Second Soon After.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Jack Johnson announced tonight that he had accepted the offer of $50,000 to fight Sam Langford and Sam McVey in Australia, made by Hugh D. McIntosh. He will leave Chicago October 25 for Australia and will train there. He will fight Langford December 26 and McVey a few days later.

The formal contract, it is said, will be signed Monday, although the details of the arrangements were agreed upon today.

The deal was closed after several hours' conference between Jack Johnson and his manager, Al Tearney and W. C. Kelly, representative of Hugh D. McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter.

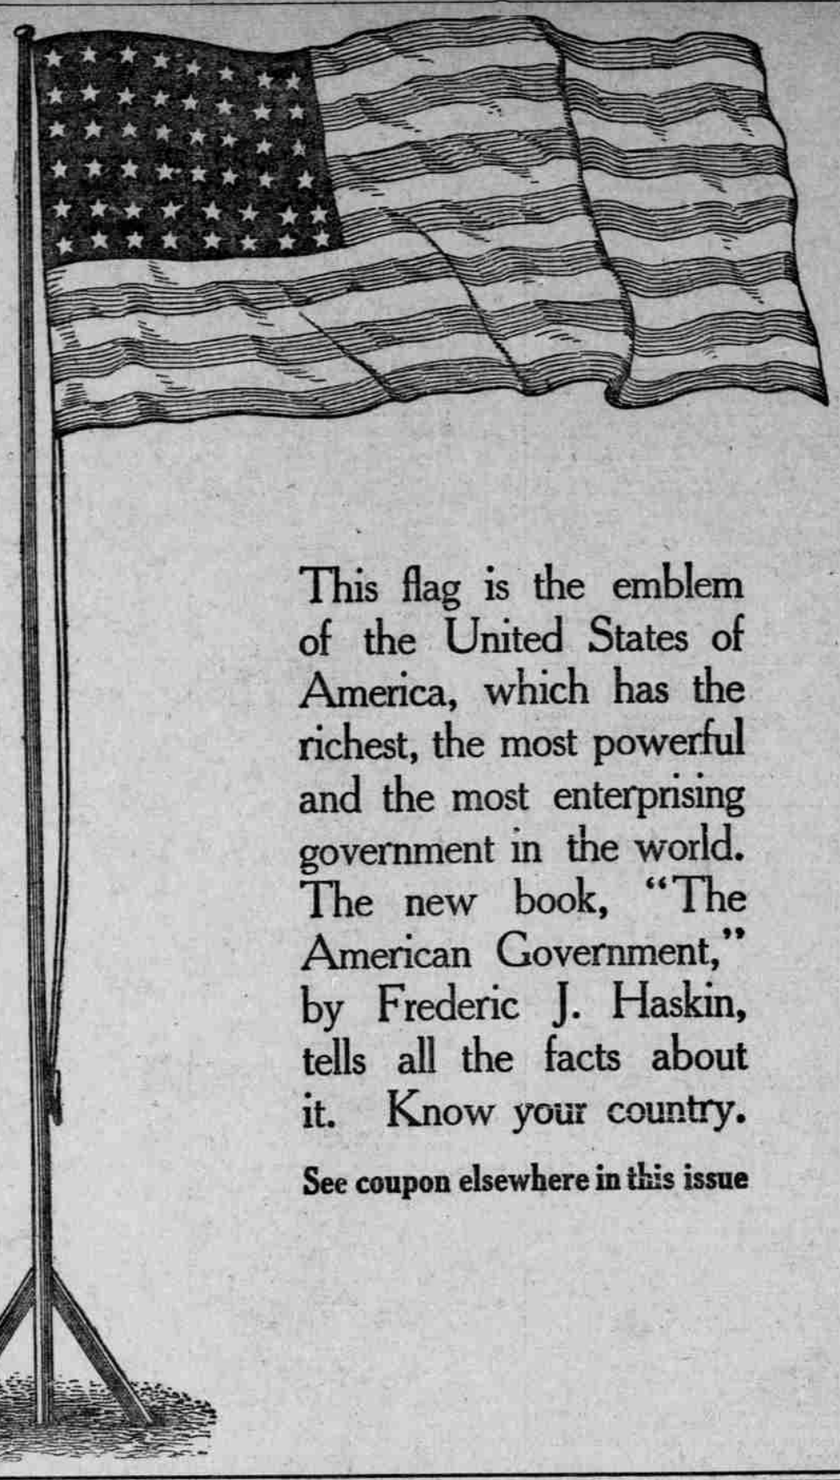
"I have decided to enter the ring again and will fight Langford and McVey in Australia," said Johnson tonight. "The terms offered by McIntosh are satisfactory and the papers will be signed Monday. I think I will meet Langford first on Boxing day, December 26, and McVey a few days later. I am confident of winning both battles. I expect these to be my last ring battles. I will leave Chicago October 25 and go directly to Australia to train."

JUVENILE FAIR CLOSES

Clatsop County Children Make Splendid Showing.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The Clatsop County Juvenile Industrial Fair closed this evening, and during the day several thousand people visited the exhibits. One feature of the afternoon was the baby show, of which Captain C. T. Bailey, Captain V. Boelling, E. A. Noyes, B. F. Allen and John Chitwood were the judges.

Many of the awards for the various displays have been made, but as there are in the neighborhood of 1500 individual exhibits, comprising fully 5000 articles, it will take some time to complete the list. Among the city schools, the booth of the Adair School took first prize, Shively second and McClure third. Of the schools outside the city Warrenton was awarded the first prize, Seaside second and Svensen third. Other schools also made fine showings.



This flag is the emblem of the United States of America, which has the richest, the most powerful and the most enterprising government in the world. The new book, "The American Government," by Frederic J. Haskin, tells all the facts about it. Know your country.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity—Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness and cooler weather; easterly winds shifting to southerly.

Oregon—Fair, except rain extreme northwest portion; cooler west portion; winds becoming southerly.

Washington—Rain west, fair, followed by increasing cloudiness east portion; cooler west portion; winds becoming southerly.

Idaho—Fair, except increasing cloudiness extreme north portion.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A large high-pressure area extends from the North Pacific states southeastward to Oklahoma and thence northeastward to Ohio. There is a small low-pressure area passing to sea down the St. Lawrence Valley and a large low-pressure area is central over Southeastern Alaska. Moderately heavy rains have fallen in most of the Northern states east of the Mississippi River. Fair weather continues in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific states. It is much cooler over a wide strip of territory extending from Texas northeastward to the Lake region.

The conditions are favorable for generally fair weather in this district Sunday, except in Western Washington, where cloudiness will be followed by rain. It will be cooler in Western Oregon and Western Washington.

EDWARD A. BEALS, District Forecaster.
