Mr. and Mrs. William Skinner, who have been occupying apartments at Hotel Multnomah, have leased a house on Ravensview Drive, Portland Heights. Mr. Skinner is a prominent railroad man.

Mrs. M. Baruh has sent out several hundred invitations for a tea on Friday, October 12, when she will introduce her daughter, Miss Frieda Baruh, to Portland society.

The members of the Multnomah Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold their first meeting of the season at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Shelvlin on Wednesday afternoon, October 16, at 3 o'clock. The officers for the year are: Mrs. E. C. Shelvlin, regent; Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, vice-regent; Mrs. John Pearson, secretary; Mrs. H. M. Van Deurs, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Roeky, registrar; Mrs. W. F. Gannett, historian. The local committee is composed of Mrs. James N. Davis, Mrs. R. S. Greenleaf and Mrs. H. Pittenger.

Mrs. Arthur D. Monteith and Mrs. Henry G. Bettman returned yesterday from the East. Mrs. Monteith has been visiting her mother in Boston for several months, and Mrs. Bettman has been East for the past month, in New York and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauld are being felicitated upon the arrival of a son, born Wednesday, October 9. The baby will be named for his grandfather, General Thomas M. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver King Jeffery were dinner hosts Tuesday, complimenting the house guest, Mrs. Helen Gale, of Medford. Mrs. Gale was also the inspiration for a luncheon, at which Miss Irene Daly presided, Tuesday. Mrs. Gale left Tuesday evening for her home.

GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST

Miss Rebecca Fields, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George S. Young, for several months, left Friday for an extended tour of the East. In four or five months she will reach Washington, D. C., through her home in Detroit, where she will visit her Mackenzie, who to visit a sister there.

Miss Polly Young, daughter of Colonel George S. Young, passed through Portland with friends. She attended the Honeyman dancing party in Hotel Multnomah Friday evening. Mrs. George Rockwell, wife of Lieutenant Rockwell, entertained the Post Bridge Club at her quarters Thursday afternoon. Prizes in this club are not awarded until the end of the season, when the one having the highest score throughout will be given a handsome prize.

An informal hop was given in the post gymnasium last night. Music was furnished by the band of the Twenty-first Infantry. By postponing the hop one night the officers of the Second Field Artillery, who returned to the garrison Friday, were able to attend. A number of society folk of Portland were present.

A regimental review of the Twenty-first Infantry was held on the Infantry parade grounds Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Several hundred spectators from Portland and Vancouver were present. A report had gained circulation that the review was expected, but he did not arrive until Saturday morning.

General Maus, Major Adrian S. Fleming and Lieutenant Edward G. McCleave enjoyed a few hours' hunt on Shallowford Lake Thursday.

Captain L. C. Bennett is to be relieved as post quartermaster. He may be detached to the Twenty-first Infantry.

Miss Felice Morris, leading woman in a sketch at the Orpheum Theater in Portland, has visited a relative, Captain J. H. Page, in the post during the week. She will come over here tonight and leave here for South Monday. Miss Morris is a daughter of Felix Morris, English actor, who was leading man with the formerly famous actress, Regina Vokes.

Major S. J. Smiley, of the Twenty-first Infantry, went to the target range at Prosser yesterday to conduct a firing test of the machine gun platform, under command of Lieutenant George M. Parker.

Lieutenant Joe R. Brasnon, of the Second Field Artillery, has been granted a leave of absence for a month, beginning November 2.

General C. H. Martin, now in Portland, called on General Maus Wednesday.

Mrs. Marion P. Maus is now visiting at Atlantic City, N. J. She will visit her mother, Mrs. Moore, in Washington, D. C., and return to this post about December.

The greatest event this year in the post, so far, was the visit of Major-General Leonard S. Wood, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, Saturday morning. Major-General Wood was met at the train in Vancouver by General Marion P. Maus, commanding officer of the Department of the Columbia, and was his guest for breakfast and lunch. At 9 o'clock General Wood held a reception in his quarters for his guest, and all of the officers of the post and their mental heads. After receiving several committees from Portland, General Wood, General Maus and Dr. R. A. J. MacKenzie, of Portland, went out for several hours' duck-shooting.

The Second Field Artillery returned Friday afternoon after a two-month stay at Warm Springs Indian Reservation, where they held target practice. There were 338 men and officers returned under command of Major Edward F. McGlachlin. The other officers who returned to the post Friday were: Captain William Fitzhugh Jones, Captain Edgar E. Yule, Captain A. B. Wolf, Dr. Foster, veterinarian; Dr. Carleton, Dr. McKellar, and Lieutenants C. W. Harlow, George, Merle Proctor, Davney, J. C. Beatty, Drabson, Meyer, Gillespie and Wilson.

Among those from the garrison who attended the debut of Miss Honeyman and Miss Grace Honeyman, at Hotel Multnomah in Portland Friday evening, were: General Marion P. Maus, Major and Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Captain J. H. Page, Jr., Lieutenant F. J. Rilee, Lieutenant W. R. Talliferro, Lieutenant F. W. Schneider, Lieutenant Lester Wheeler, Lieutenant R. T. Snow, Lieutenant and Mrs. H. L. Taylor, and Miss Polly Young. Colonel and Mrs. George S. Young were unable to attend.

Mrs. Warfield gave two bridge parties during the week, one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday. The house was decorated in Autumn leaves and asters. Mrs. Walter Kenyon Lloyd and Mrs. McLaughlin poured on Tuesday, and Miss Page and Sachton served on Wednesday. The young girls of the post also assisted.

Three prizes were given at each party, and were won by Mesdames Stacy, Osseward, Yule, Young, Miss Field and Miss Young.

Mrs. Walter Kenyon Lloyd was hostess at one of the smartest affairs of the week, when she entertained at tea on Monday. The house was most attractive, with an abundance of rich red leaves and garden flowers. The dining-room was especially attractive in ferns and pink asters. Soft pink shades gave a pretty glow. Mrs. McLaughlin poured and Mrs. Foster and Helen McLaughlin served. In the den Miss Arabella Clarke served a delicious fruit punch. Thirty women called during the hour.

Mrs. A. B. Warfield, wife of Captain Warfield, gave two delightful bridge parties—one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday. On Tuesday, Miss Fields won first prize, Miss Young, second, and Mrs. Osseward, third.

Captain George S. Tiffany, Post Adjutant, has gone to New York for a month and during his absence Lieutenant B. Lentz is Acting Adjutant, and also Post Commissary.

Captain Armistead left Friday for Fort Leavenworth, being detailed to take back a number of prisoners.

Lieutenant George Rockwell, of the Twenty-first Infantry, left Friday for New York, having secured a 30-day leave of absence.

Chaplain Walter Kenyon Lloyd returned from Warm Springs Indian Reservation Friday, much improved in health.

Mrs. Lloyd, wife of Chaplain Lloyd, entertained at bridge Monday afternoon.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

On Tuesday evening the Beavers campaign committee of the Degree of Honor was the guest of Mrs. J. Leach in her home, 1057 William Avenue. This committee will have charge of the work during the campaign, which will close July 1, 1913, and it will not be satisfied with anything less than 500 new members. A number of applications have already been received. On November 1 all the lodges of the Degree of Honor and A. O. U. W. will meet in their new hall, they having leased for five years the entire third floor of the building recently vacated by Woodard, Clarke & Co. on Fourth and Washington streets. The lodges are all working hard on their ritualistic work to be prepared for a large initiation. The personnel of the committee inures the success of the campaign.
