

DOLAN'S MELT HOLD

Oregon "Aggies" Put Up Desperate Battle on Mud-Covered Gridiron.

WOLFF MAKES ALL POINTS

"Winged M" Fullback Kicks Goal at Placement and Makes Touchdown—Hauser Is Star for Corvallis Eleven.

Notes of Multnomah-O. A. C. Game. My team is somewhat stronger, I think, than the one of 1911, said Coach Dolan, after the game. "My weakness lies in the absence of good second string men. Hauser should have been taken out in the second half today, but I had no one to put in his place. I am satisfied with the showing, for I had expected Multnomah to beat us by three or four touchdowns."

"Nothing to say," said Captain Sitton, of the Corvallis eleven, in his dressing room. "Brook, one of my front teeth off in a scrimmage and that concerns me mostly now. I think all the boys played their hardest."

Under last year's rules yesterday's score would have been 3-0 instead of 9-0. This shows how evenly the battle was waged. It took four downs for the opposing end to get the line for the fourth quarter touchdown. Last year only three downs were permitted in 10 yards.

Cherry, Rodgers and Carlson, the Multnomah center trio, had their hands full from start to finish with Christian, Sitton and Hofer. Hofer, a recruit, started in, fighting severely. He was kicked into submission by the jovial Cherry, who, in addition to being a wonderful center, is the champion football man of the university. Cherry played one of the best games of his career. Carlson and Rodgers are both scrappy, nervy linemen.

Yell Leader Dutton, of the "Aggies," kept the grandstand applauding with his original yell conceptions, which he manufactured on the ground. "They ought to wear aprons or overalls over their pretty sweaters and suits," remarked a fair fan as she saw the two eleven troop to the field. Now she is wondering why the man who brought her to the game almost fainted.

The "cop" had his busy day yesterday. It was almost impossible for the little fans to keep off the fence when they knew that the first college game of the season was in progress on the other side of the barrier.

"That's a good fellow," remarked Cherry, as he stopped some player on the back after each play. Had the honored player been able to see the big muddy paw on his back he might have guessed the reason for the fellow's slip.

Ben Robertson is a short-order football player. Two years ago he played his first football as a half on the Washington High School team. Bennett Blackwell was formerly a member of the Aberdeen High School football team. The year he played the team was so good that the citizens of the Washington city tried to send it East.

OREGON SURPRISED BY WHITMAN 20-0

EUGENE NEARLY SCORES

Twice Visitors Work Ball by End Runs and Forward and Double Passes Close to Goal, but March Is Stopped.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Tallenders last year, Whitman College today pushed herself into the limelight as a contender for championship honors this year by defeating the heavier Oregon team 20 to 0, by straight football. Whitman carried the ball across the goal line three times and kicked goal twice. Oregon got two "almost" scores in the second quarter, the first time carrying the pigskin to within two feet of the line and the second to within four inches. Both times Whitman held and prevented a score.

Wind Blinders Passes.

A wind storm, which started this morning, continued during the game the velocity being sufficient to make kicking and forward passes uncertain. Both sides tried the very open style of game but with little success. Aggie Honors broke about even on the forward passes, Whitman made her gains with end runs and line bucks, while Oregon had to rely on end runs and fakes being unable to get through the seven men on the firing line.

OREGON PLAYS DESPERATELY.

In the second quarter Oregon became dangerous. A fake kick which masked an end run was used time and again. The forward pass and double passes, and by these tactics Oregon twice got within striking distance of the goal. The first time the ball went over two feet from the goal. The Oregon man held, Niles punting out from behind the line. Oregon again got the ball and rushed it this time to within two inches of the goal. Little new football was used on either side, though La Grande reeled off yard after yard of intricate open plays, but did not have the stamina to push the ball over. Persistent plugging of the line was Wallowa's attack.

The Auto race here on Booster Day was three-fourths of a mile around the square, having 4 corners to turn, three of them very dangerous turns, two being at right angles; this necessitated the drivers to slow down considerably to make the dangerous turn.

The winners of the first and second prizes used an Air-Friction carburetor. They made up their fast time on the way those carburetors picked up after slowing down for the corners and in the get-away on the start.

This shows the superiority of the Air-Friction carburetor over all other makes. Neither of the above machines used a wide open throttle.

WILLAMETTE TRIMS INDIANS

Largest Crowd in Years Witnesses Game Ending 29 to 0.

The game was a good exhibition of football and a far better one than the score would indicate. Willamette scored three points in the first quarter on a placement by Francis from the 30-yard line, seven in the second, six in the third and 13 in the last. Willamette played better ball than at any time this year, getting the plays off faster and showing aggressive defensive work.

WILLAMETTE TRIMS INDIANS

Largest Crowd in Years Witnesses Game Ending 29 to 0.

The Indian team is the strongest seen on the local field in years and some very clever work was done by their fullback, Saunders. Willamette tried five field goals, as they seemed desirous of perfecting this style of play. From a crowd was the largest seen here in years, except upon Thanksgiving day.
