For the enlightenment and helpfulness to Portland citizens the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis holds, under the auspices of the city's committee, a Free Exhibit on the subject. 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. daily; Sundays, 2 to 6 P. M.—Goodnough Building.

Period Costumes on Miniature Models—direct from Paris they've come, miniature models that depict the costumes of various periods from 1800 up to the present date. Interesting is the exhibit in the Fifth and Morrison street window. See it today!

Our 12th Annual Doll Show Will Be Held November 7th, 8th, 9th

Not Only the Children, But Hundreds of Portland and Oregon Women Will Participate

Fifth floor New Building

FOR the last eleven years The Meier & Frank Store has held an original Doll Show here on the fifth floor in the best All-the-Year-Round Toy Department of the Northwest! We propose to make this year's Doll Show the most notable and enjoyable ever held on the Coast—to far eclipse any previous event and one that children and parents alike will remember with pleasure for years to come. A Doll

Show to delight the child heart—and that's one of the objects of this splendid event—to arouse in the children the feeling of tenderness and care for the Doll companions of their childhood days. Every child contestant gets a present, even though they don't win a prize. Entries open November 4th and close November 6th at 6 P. M. Judges announced at a later date.

The Call!

MONTHS ago, through every civic organization in Portland, headed by the Humane Society, the message came: "Buy early—prepare for early Holiday Shopping."

We did. Today, we are ready. In turn, today, we issue the call to the Buying Public:

No Matter Where You Shop—SHOP EARLY

This store's equipment and facilities are sufficient to take care of its patrons, at ANY time, and under ANY conditions—whether you make selections now or the day before Christmas. For your own sake, therefore, and for the sake of the vast army of employees, here, there, everywhere, we ask—not only the people of Portland to co-operate in this "SHOP EARLY" cause—but we respectfully request each merchant in the Pacific Northwest to devote a portion of his advertising space to furthering this essentially humane movement.
