FARM SYSTEM FAVORED

DEAN BEVELL DECLARES FOR ANNUAL INVENTORY. Agricultural College Learns Through Practical Research Great Need of Uniform Standard.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 26.—(Special).—That an annual inventory day should be observed by every farmer who wishes to attain the highest degree of success in the business management of his plant is the doctrine preached in an address by Dean J. A. Bevell, which was presented before the International Dry-Farming Congress at Lethbridge, Alberta, this week. "This opinion is not based on theory, but on experience," said Professor Bevell. "Last year the Legislature of Oregon made an appropriation for statistical research, and a preliminary agricultural survey was undertaken last Summer under the direction of the Agricultural College. Field agents secured about 1500 interviews, but, valuable and varied as the information is, the financial end of it is very inaccurate and incomplete. "In the 1500 interviews secured a very small number reported that the facts furnished were based on actual records; a large number reported that no records were kept except a simple bank account; while the great majority reported that no records were kept at all. It is perfectly evident that if an attempt is to be made to secure

WIFE SECURES ESTATE

TACOMA SWEETHEART OF DEAD BRAKEMAN LOSER. Friends of Dead Man Knew of Engagement and Verbal Will, but Relative Surprised.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special).—Denouncing the pretensions of Miss Mary Burckett, of Olympia, who said she was engaged to marry George F. Vance, a brakeman, accidentally killed at Alder three weeks ago and had been given a verbal and tentative will for all of Vance's property, Mrs. George F. Vance, of Portland came hurriedly to Tacoma today and, thirdly, to fulfill the necessary legal proceedings to obtain title to his real property. Vance was born in Olympia and lived there most of his life. He is said to have separated from his wife shortly after the wedding, after which he met Miss Burckett. Vance's friends were greatly surprised at today's developments, as none had ever heard him say he was married. Senate Clerk Visits Albany. ALBANY, Or., Oct. 26.—(Special).—Henry H. Gilfray, chief clerk of the United States Senate, passed yesterday visiting old friends in this city. When a resident of Salem before he began his service as a clerk in the Senate at Washington many years ago, he knew many people in this city, several of whom yet reside here.

CATARRH MISERIES ENDED. A SIMPLE SAFE REMEDY GIVES INSTANT RELIEF

Jures and Prevents Catarrh and Cold in the Head With a Few Applications. The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are
