UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 2 .- With simple but impressive ceremonies the body of Vice-President Sherman was laid away this afternoon in a crypt within a beautifui mausoleum in Forest Hill

Under a canvas covering that served as a shield against a chill November wind were gathered the Sherman family, President Taft, members of his Cabinet, Justices of the Supreme Court. Senators and members of the House of Economical Courts and a few intimate. Representatives and a few intimate friends and business associates of the Vice-President, while without was a throng that stood reverently until the strains of "Asleep in Jesus," by a male chorus had died away.

President's Eyes Are Dimmed.

President Taft listened with bowed head and tear-dimmed eyes as Dr. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton College, read the brief committal service and Rev. Louis H. Holden, pastor of Christ Church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member, offered prayer.

A mixed chorus sang "Good Night," and when a selection by the male chorus had been finished the President gazed a moment at the flower-covered casket and slowly made his way to a waiting automobile, accompanied by ex-Vice-President Fairbanks. Attorney-General Wickersham and Major Rhoades, his military aide.

Sympathy Extended to Family.

The special train bearing the Presidential party arrived in Utica at 1:20 o'clock and the President went at once to the Sherman home to offer his sympathy to the bereaved family. He remained for the services there, which were conducted by Dr. Holden, and then went to the church, where the funeral services were held.

Crowds began to gather in the vicinity of the church before noon and when the doors were opened the large auditorium quickly filled.

The Congressional party were among the earliest arrivals, followed by the President and those who had called on Sympathy Extended to Family.

The casket, covered with violets and lilies-of-the-valley, was borne into the church at 2:30 o'clock and following came Mrs, Sherman in heavy mourning, leaning on the arm of her son, Richard. The Mendelssohn funeral march was played as the body was carried in. Next floral offerings formed an impressive feature. Those consisted largely of appropriately designed wreaths with which the altar was completely covered. The Senate sent an immense piece composed largely of orchids, while the House offering was of white roses. There were wreaths from the National Republican League, the employes of the Utica Trust Company, of which Mr. Sherman was president: the Beta Sigma Pi, the local Re-publican committees, the German am-bassador, the Spanish, Salvadorean, Hayti, Dominican and Guatemalan legations, Secretary Knox and others.
