

bell's Gaud and Miss Grace Honeyman, who were the guests of Major and Mrs. Fleming, and Miss Claire Wilcox, Miss Louise Burns and Miss Maile MacMaster, who were guests of Miss Polly Young, Carl Wernicke, John Banks, C. C. Hindman, Richard Mackay, C. N. McArthur, William Wheeler, Fritz Behrends and Joseph Ferguson.

The subscription dance Friday evening at Hotel Multnomah was a brilliant affair. About 250 of the younger set were present, many of them being "buds" of this season. The decorations were suggestive of Yuletide, and the bright poinsettias and brilliant green foliage made a pleasing background for the chlo gowns worn. A few of the costumes noted were those of Henry Ladd Corbett's gown of watermelon pink charmeuse, with trimming of black fur and black velvet at the hem and girle.

Mrs. W. S. Biddle was in a French gown of soft green chiffon heavily embroidered in silver, built over white brocade satin.

Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot wore a striking gown of plum-colored satin, with wing sleeves of garnet chiffon.

Mrs. Thomas Sharpe, who is passing the holidays with her parents, took Mrs. A. A. Morrison, wore a stunning white charmeuse gown, with overdress of chiffon and silver motifs.

Miss Anita Burns was distinguished in a gown of old blue chiffon over white satin, with silver trimming. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink forget-me-nots.

David Taylor Honeyman was handsome in a gown of heliotrope charmeuse, with lace and silver trimming.

Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe's gray chiffon gown over satin of the same shade, with mulberry velvet girle was greatly admired.

Miss Evelyn Carey, wore a quaint pinner gown of old blue embroidered silk, with drape of blue chiffon.

Miss Mildred Honeyman wore a chic gown of white charmeuse, with short overdress of geranium pink chiffon, and silver trimming. A velvet band confined her coiffure.

Miss Dorothy Morrison, whose wedding will take place Wednesday, wore a striking gown of mauve chiffon, with an overdress of orchid chiffon, and touches of cerise at the corsage and girle.

Miss Marion Jackson was attractive in an imported draped gown of soft yellow silk, with gold lace. She wore a pearl band and white spray in her coiffure.

Miss Claire Wilcox wore a handsome French creation of green chiffon, embroidered with silver and rhinestone motifs, built over pastel pink satin and lace, caught with pink rosebuds. A sweeping aigrette in her hair completed her costume.

Miss Leslie Smith's charming coloring was enhanced by a gown of crushed strawberry chiffon over satin of the same shade.

Miss Cornelia Cook was in a new French gown of golden brown satin, with green chiffon drape.

Miss Frances Wilson was handsome in a rose colored chiffon gown, with broad satin hem and girle of the same shade.

Miss Charlotte Laidlaw wore a girlish frock of rose pink chiffon over satin of the same shade.

Miss Cully Cook was distinguished in a dainty Dresden chiffon Lucile gown, built over white charmeuse. A band of brilliant and white spray completed her costume.

Miss Evelyn Wilson, wore a black chiffon frock, edged with silver trimming, and draped over white satin, with a broad band of embroidery at the hem.

Mrs. Frank Wilder was attractive in a cafe au lait satin gown, with crystal trimming, and chiffon overdress of the same shade.

Mrs. J. Weston Ladd wore a pastel pink satin gown, silver embroidered, over pink satin.

Miss Shirley Eastman was striking in a turquoise blue brocade gown, trimmed with lace and deep silver fringe. She wore a band of rhinestones in her hair.

Miss Genevieve Thompson was greatly admired in an imported gown of white brocade satin, trimmed with lace and pearl motifs and she wore a sweeping aigrette in her hair.

Miss Ethelwyn Goss wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse with short overdress of American Beaus shade chiffon, heavily embroidered in silver, with deep crystal fringe. She also wore a silver band in her coiffure.

Miss Katherine Hart was in a handsome white brocade satin gown, trimmed with sheer lace.

Miss Jean Mackenzie wore a dainty frock of white chiffon, crystal trimmed, over white satin and a broad girle of pastel pink satin. A corsage bouquet of pink forget-me-nots completed her costume.

Mrs. Clyde H. Reade was in a dainty pastel pink chiffon over same toned satin, trimmed with lace and silver.

A group of prominent exhibitors in the Horse Show, which will take place December 6 and 7, are shown on today's society page. Mrs. C. A. McKenna and the Misses Wilcox, and Elizabeth Huber, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Huber. They are among the most enthusiastic young horsewomen in Portland, and are seen almost daily exercising their mounts along the numerous picturesque roads leading out to the hills. The coming Horse Show fair to eclipse all previous shows, as many attractive features have been added to the already long list of events scheduled to take place.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper and their house guest, Miss Mary Brainerd, of Seattle, were honor guests at an attractive luncheon given by the members of the Kappa Alpha Theta at their sorority house in Eugene last Wednesday.

Miss Geraldine Coursen was hostess at a Christmas party Tuesday afternoon. A charming decorative effect was obtained with violets and ferns. Assisting the hostess were Miss Jessie McLean, Miss Mary Long and Miss Kenna. Additional guests were: Mrs. C. A. McKenna, Mrs. Lloyd Bates, Mrs. Guy Standifer, Mrs. Matthew B. Evans, Mrs. Frank Butler, Mrs. Charles Whitney Morden, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Jean Brownlie, Miss Gladys Ross, Miss Louise Williams, Misses Louise and Ruth Small, Miss Louise Bradley, Miss V. O. Guthrie, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Dorothy Moulton, Miss Fleetwood of Tacoma, Miss Marjorie Forbes, Miss Janet and Marjorie Noble and Miss Winifred Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Hogue, who have been traveling in the Orient for the past few months, returned last week, and will pass the Winter on their ranch at Santa Barbara.

Miss Tina Lerner, the noted Russian pianist, who has been passing a few weeks in New York, will soon arrive in Portland. Many affairs are being planned in her honor, among those who will entertain for her are Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. Rose Hoch Bauer and Mr. John F. Logan. Miss Lerner, during her sojourn in Portland, will be heard in a limited number of concerts. Miss Lerner was extensively entertained in New York, and among her hostesses were Miss Marion Bauer, and Miss Emilie Frances Bauer.

On Friday evening the young people among married people of the Portland Heights Club will give a dance. The patronesses will be Mrs. G. L. Campbell, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Francis F. Hallinan, Mrs. Max House.

Major and Mrs. James Canby moved into their new quarters at Vancouver Barracks last week. Major Canby has been appointed Quartermaster at the post.

Mrs. Mark W. Gill was hostess at two small teas, on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. On Tuesday Mrs. Charles F. Swigert and Mrs. George T. Willett presided at the table. Mrs. John L. Hoffman assisted the hostess. On Thursday Mrs. Charles W. Sherman and Mrs. John L. Hartman were at the table and the hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Moreland, and Mrs. Lydell Baker. The rooms were attractive with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The annual Christmas sale at the Woman's Exchange, which took place Tuesday, brought forth a large number of prominent matrons who had charge of the various tables where the articles were for sale, and also presided at the tea table. The tables were attractive with baskets of pink roses, and several hundred of Portland's smart set thronged the rooms during the afternoon. Among those presiding in the dining-room and assisting were Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. Walter John Burns, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. L. N. Fleischer, Mrs. G. G. Wheeler, and Mrs. A. A. Morrison. Mrs. Helen Corbett, Mrs. Henry Hausman, Mrs. Thanhauser, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Miss Henrietta Failing and Miss Gilsan.

A large and charming tea of the week was given by Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, complementing a group of debutantes of this season on Thursday. The guests of honor were Miss Ruth Rosenfeld, Miss Helen Simon, Miss Elise Simon and Miss Marjorie Hausman. Huge baskets of feathery pink chrysanthemums adorned the drawing-room, and an effective combination of Killarney roses and violets was used in the dining-room, which was presided over by Mrs. Marcus Fleischer, Mrs. Chantling Hirsch, Miss Florence Kohn and Miss Frances Jacobs. Miss Eda Lirsch and Miss Miriam Jacobs were stationed at the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Herman Metzger, Miss Stella Wolfe, Miss Emily Ehrman, Miss Minnie Fleischer, Miss Marion Citron, Miss Frieda Barab, Miss Edna Blum, Mrs. Emma Baum, and Miss Rida Heyman. About 100 of the younger set called during the afternoon.

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. Simon Freeman, of Alameda, Cal., who is her house guest, Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby gave a charming tea on Wednesday evening, December 17. The guests of honor were Mrs. Chrysanthemums and ferns. The tea table was centered with a gold basket of Killarney roses, and was presided over by Mrs. Paul Frolich, Miss Cecelia Wilson, Mrs. Sanderson Reed and Mrs. Luther Hamilton. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. James J. Pantan, Mrs. Samuel Slocum, Miss Grace Dalrymple and Miss Judith Scott. Mrs. Gadsby's mother, Mrs. J. Freeman, received with the hostess and guest of honor.

Announcements are out for the December party of the Knights Templar Club, to be given at the Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening, December 17. Portland society was largely interested in the Thanksgiving ball given by the Assembly Club at Salem, Wednesday.

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

Tenth Letter: On the Fat Man Who Caught Up With the Procession.

Dear Six:—Your letter of congratulation is just like you, dear. I know I'll be happy with him, but you mustn't refer to him as "Fatty" any more or your Betty will pout. He has "caught the procession" in man's work and pleasure. He wears his clothes like and Adams—not a "dash." Oh, you should see him on the golf links—he's some measure of a man—clean-cut and vigorous. And in evening dress, my dear, he is divine. No more of the soft, Roly-Poly baby-man of yore. And all these wonders have come about in a few months simply by taking a harmless little Marmola Prescription Tablet four times a day.

You know the wonderful recipe I told you of—the one that really rid me of my excess flesh. Well, that same harmless combination made by the Marmola Co., Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., is now made by the same people and sold in tablet form by all druggists—a large case for 75c.

You ought to tell your Bob about them. I told him about the prescription, but he said he probably would break the bottle and smear up everything in his grip and he didn't like the idea of taking medicine in public, anyhow. But the Marmola Prescription Tablets are so convenient, easy to carry and take he will welcome them with joy.

He rarely is a gigantic example of what exercise and dieting won't do. He can stop all the if he likes to. They are exactly like the prescription that made me slim and healthy—only in more convenient form. Write soon again. Lovingly, BETTY.
